Reverend Dr. Raymond Haselhuhn of First Baptist Church of Canton offered the following invocation:

Father in heaven, we thank You for this day and for the privilege to be a part of another day that You've made. We ask, God, for Your blessing upon this chamber today and the work that will be done here by these Senators. I pray, God, that You will provide wisdom and direction for them; that You would guard them and guide them and keep them as they work together.

I thank You, God, for our great state of Michigan and ask Your blessing upon our country today. I pray that You bestow Your richest blessings upon our lives. Help us to be witnesses in testimonies for You.

We pray all this in Jesus' name and with thanksgiving. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs

September 26, 2013

As Director of the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs, I take great pleasure in forwarding to you the 11th Biennial Report for the State Survey and Remonumentation Program. Pursuant to the requirements of the State Survey and Remonumentation Act, 1991 PA 345, MCL 54.261 et seq., the enclosed report discusses the program's development and progress toward the goal of recovering and perpetuating the public land survey corners established and monumented in an original survey or resurvey by the United States government.

If you have any questions regarding the Survey and Remonumentation Program, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Steve Arwood
Director

The communication was referred to the Secretary for record.

Resolutions

Senator Meekhof moved that consideration of the following resolution be postponed for today:

Senate Resolution No. 34

The motion prevailed.

The question was placed on the adoption of the following resolution consent calendar:

Senate Resolution No. 92Senate Resolution No. 93

The resolution consent calendar was adopted.

Senator Nofs offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 92.

A resolution to declare October 14-18, 2013, as Credit Union Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Credit unions have been organized in Michigan since 1934, and they have a proud tradition of innovation and leadership among the nation's credit unions. The Michigan credit union movement has a proven record of growth, progress, and success; and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions are rooted in the communities in which they serve, whether supporting local charities, offering financial education seminars, or operating student-run credit union branches in schools. They do this voluntarily because, as not-for-profit member-owned financial cooperatives, credit unions recognize that social responsibility is an integral part of their mission; and

Whereas, Credit unions in Michigan have demonstrated their ability to improve the lives of individuals, families, and communities for generations by following the credit union philosophy of "People Helping People"; and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions remain informed through the assistance of the Michigan Credit Union League & Affiliates, which has focused exclusively on serving its members throughout its history. It is a commitment that is concisely expressed in its mission statement: The Michigan Credit Union League & Affiliates will help credit unions serve their members, grow their market presence and strengthen their financial condition; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body hereby declare October 14-18, 2013, as Credit Union Week in the state of Michigan. We honor Michigan credit unions as they celebrate Credit Union Week.

Senators Ananich, Anderson, Bieda, Booher, Brandenburg, Emmons, Green, Hildenbrand, Hopgood, Jones, Marleau, Pappageorge, Pavlov, Proos, Richardville and Warren were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Hood, Jones, Brandenburg, Ananich, Booher and Pappageorge offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 93.

A resolution recognizing the 50th Anniversary of the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Whereas, On November 22, 1963, John F. Kennedy was shot and killed by Lee Harvey Oswald while campaigning in Dallas, Texas; and

Whereas, John F. Kennedy was the 35th President of the United States for nearly three years before his tragic and untimely death; and

Whereas, Although President John F. Kennedy did not live to see a man walk on the moon, it was his support and inspiring commitment to space exploration that helped make it possible six years after his death; and

Whereas, In 1961, President John F. Kennedy established the Peace Corps to promote world peace and friendship. The program has allowed over 210,000 volunteers to serve 139 different host countries since its creation, helping the people of interested countries better understand Americans and helping Americans better understand other people; and

Whereas, On May 5, 1961, President John F. Kennedy signed the minimum wage bill that raised the minimum wage from $1.00 to $1.25 an hour and expanded its coverage to include roughly 3.5 million more citizens; and

Whereas, President John F. Kennedy's support of and advocacy for the Civil Rights Movement was seen through numerous executive orders and personal appeals, such as the executive order made in 1962 that prohibited discrimination in the sale or leasing of housing that was financed by federally-guaranteed loans or owned by the federal government; and

Whereas, The patience, intelligence, and bravery shown by President John F. Kennedy led the United States out of the Cuban missile crisis in 1962, safely averting the prospect of a worldwide nuclear war; and

Whereas, These acts as President of the United States won John F. Kennedy numerous awards, including the American Campaign Medal and the Presidential Medal of Freedom; and

Whereas, In his time as President of the United States, John F. Kennedy enacted and inspired programs, movements, and legislation for the benefit of the nation and its people; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body recognize November 22, 2013, as the 50th Anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and honor his memory and the contributions he made to the United States of America.

Senators Anderson, Bieda, Emmons, Hildenbrand, Hopgood, Pavlov, Proos, Richardville and Warren were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Jansen and Warren offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 91.

A resolution recognizing the efforts of the Legislators Building Communities Program and commemorating October 8, 2013, as Legislators Building Communities Day.

Whereas, It is with the deepest respect that we honor the efforts of the many organizations that have dedicated their efforts to meet the housing and community economic development needs in our state through the Legislators Building Communities Program; and

Whereas, With gratitude, we salute the broad-based coalition of agencies, associations, and organizations that have worked on this effort. These include Habitat for Humanity of Michigan (73) affiliates; Community Economic Development Association of Michigan (CEDAM) and its nearly 200 member organizations; Michigan State Housing Development Authority (MSHDA); and other statewide and regional organizations and their members, including Community Development Advocates of Detroit (CDAD), Michigan Coalition Against Homelessness, Community enCompass, Corporation for Supportive Housing, Michigan Housing Council, FiveCAP, Inc., Michigan Historic Preservation Network, Michigan Municipal League, Michigan Association of Realtors, Michigan Association of Counties, Home Builders Association of Michigan, American Planning Association of Michigan, Michigan Coalition to End Domestic and Sexual Violence, and Michigan Community Action Agencies; and

Whereas, The work these efforts promote is commendable. Neighborhood improvement projects foster pride and community spirit, while demolitions and deconstructions reduce blight and increase safety. Downtown development projects create healthy and vibrant downtown districts and livable communities; and

Whereas, Through the accomplishments of the coalition, in 2013, more than 75 Michigan legislators have participated in the Legislators Building Communities Program by volunteering on projects throughout the state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That with highest respect and gratitude, we recognize the efforts of the Legislators Building Communities Program; and be it further

Resolved, That we commemorate October 8, 2013, as the Legislators Building Communities Commemoration Day. It is a day when legislators, advocacy groups, and the public can celebrate the completion of legislator volunteer projects in or near their legislative districts, while showcasing hundreds of local housing and community economic development efforts that will make Michigan a safe, healthy, and welcoming place to live; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Habitat for Humanity of Michigan, Michigan State Housing Development Authority, and Community Economic Development Association of Michigan as a reflection of our gratitude.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Meekhof moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Ananich, Anderson, Bieda, Booher, Brandenburg, Emmons, Green, Hildenbrand, Hopgood, Pappageorge, Pavlov, Proos and Richardville were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Jansen and Warren asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Jansen's first statement is as follows:

Legislators Building Communities is an initiative of the Living in Michigan Coalition. It's a broad network of housing and community development practitioners. This initiative is a way for legislators to learn more about housing and community development activities while volunteering. Legislators Building Communities also gives community members the opportunity to begin to strengthen their relationship with their elected officials.

Today, I have with me my co-chair on this, Senator Warren. In fact, she was just telling me this story of working this past weekend on her project.

Senator Warren's statement is as follows:

Just yesterday, Governor Snyder proclaimed October 7, 2013, as Habitat for Humanity Day in Michigan. Habitat for Humanity is one of the member groups of the Living in Michigan Coalition.

On behalf of my colleagues who are the co-chairs of the Legislators Building Communities project, Senator Jansen and myself, and our House colleagues, Representative Sam Singh and Representative Wayne Schmidt, we would like to recognize some of the members of the Living in Michigan Coalition who are here with us today: Sandy Pearson, the president and CEO of Habitat for Humanity of Michigan; Ken Bensen, past president emeritus; Jamie Schriener-Hooper and Jessica AcMoody of the Community Economic Development Association of Michigan—that we commonly know as CEDAM; and Mark Garcia and Jennifer Bowman from the Michigan State Housing Development Authority.

I wish for our colleagues to help us welcome them today.

Senator Jansen's second statement is as follows:

We want to thank all the Senators and Representatives who have volunteered their time working with the organizations back home. We have enjoyed our time as co-chairs of Legislators Building Communities. We will be working once again with Habitat for Humanity of Kent County—for some of us on the west side—on October 18 as part of our legislative build.

Now I'd like to introduce one person from my district, and there are some others from other districts who will also be introduced. Ira Thomas, I believe, is here; I see him with a smile. He has been part of Habitat for Humanity, kind of getting his hands dirty and trying to teach us legislators how to not smash our fingers. Ira, welcome and thanks for being part of this.

Recess

Senator Meekhof moved that the Senate recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The motion prevailed, the time being 10:51 a.m.

11:07 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by the Assistant President pro tempore, Senator Hansen.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

General Orders

Senator Meekhof moved that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the General Orders calendar.

The motion prevailed, and the Assistant President pro tempore, Senator Hansen, designated Senator Moolenaar as Chairperson.

After some time spent therein, the Committee arose; and the Assistant President pro tempore, Senator Hansen, having resumed the Chair, the Committee reported back to the Senate, favorably and without amendment, the following bill:

Senate Bill No. 539, entitled

A bill to amend 1964 PA 170, entitled "An act to make uniform the liability of municipal corporations, political subdivisions, and the state, its agencies and departments, officers, employees, and volunteers thereof, and members of certain boards, councils, and task forces when engaged in the exercise or discharge of a governmental function, for injuries to property and persons; to define and limit this liability; to define and limit the liability of the state when engaged in a proprietary function; to authorize the purchase of liability insurance to protect against loss arising out of this liability; to provide for defending certain claims made against public officers, employees, and volunteers and for paying damages sought or awarded against them; to provide for the legal defense of public officers, employees, and volunteers; to provide for reimbursement of public officers and employees for certain legal expenses; and to repeal acts and parts of acts," by amending section 7 (MCL 691.1407), as amended by 2005 PA 318.

The bill was placed on the order of Third Reading of Bills.

The Committee of the Whole reported back to the Senate, favorably and with a substitute therefor, the following bill:

Senate Bill No. 540, entitled

A bill to enhance public safety, protect the environment, and prevent the disruption of vital public services by reducing the incidences of damage to underground facilities caused by excavation or blasting activity by providing notices to facility owners and facility operators before excavation or blasting; to provide for certain notices to affected parties when underground facilities are damaged; to provide for the powers and duties of certain state governmental officers and entities; to allow the promulgation of rules; to prescribe penalties; to allow the imposition of a fee; to provide for immunity for certain individuals; to allow claims for damages against certain governmental entities in certain circumstances; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.

Substitute (S-1).

The Senate agreed to the substitute recommended by the Committee of the Whole, and the bill as substituted was placed on the order of Third Reading of Bills.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of

Third Reading of Bills

Senator Meekhof moved that the rules be suspended and that the following bills, now on the order of Third Reading of Bills, be placed on their immediate passage at the head of the Third Reading of Bills calendar:

Senate Bill No. 539

Senate Bill No. 540

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The following bill was read a third time:

Senate Bill No. 539, entitled

A bill to amend 1964 PA 170, entitled "An act to make uniform the liability of municipal corporations, political subdivisions, and the state, its agencies and departments, officers, employees, and volunteers thereof, and members of certain boards, councils, and task forces when engaged in the exercise or discharge of a governmental function, for injuries to property and persons; to define and limit this liability; to define and limit the liability of the state when engaged in a proprietary function; to authorize the purchase of liability insurance to protect against loss arising out of this liability; to provide for defending certain claims made against public officers, employees, and volunteers and for paying damages sought or awarded against them; to provide for the legal defense of public officers, employees, and volunteers; to provide for reimbursement of public officers and employees for certain legal expenses; and to repeal acts and parts of acts," by amending section 7 (MCL 691.1407), as amended by 2005 PA 318.

The question being on the passage of the bill,

Statements

Senator Nofs asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Nofs' statement is as follows:

We did pass Senate Resolution No. 92, which designates October 14-18 as Credit Union Week in the state of Michigan. As a lifelong member of a credit union since I was 16 years old, I just wanted to commend the Michigan Credit Union League and its member organizations for their work in educating the members, the community, as well as thousands of young adults, in financial management and sound money practices.

I know that credit unions are trusted by millions of Michiganders to safeguard their financial assets, so I rise today to congratulate them and acknowledge that they are a valuable part of each and every one of our communities. I'm glad that we passed Senate Resolution No. 92.
