Rep. Richard J. Ball, from the 85th District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear God, we need Your help and wise counsel to guide us to an equitable solution of the current fiscal crisis.

The task You have given us is to do what is best for the citizens of Michigan. Now we need Your guidance and assistance to lead us through the morass of partisan differences, personal agendas, and reelection concerns to a resolution that best serves our citizens, and starts Michigan on a path to economic strength and stability.

We have not been successful in accomplishing this resolution on our own. We pray and ask for Your infinite wisdom and guidance to touch each of us so we are able to resolve this crisis.

In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.”

Rep. Booher moved that Rep. Agema be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Elsenheimer moved that Rep. DeRoche be excused temporarily from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of Motions and Resolutions

House Resolution No. 183.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to continue exempting returning workers allowed into this country under the H2B visa program by passing H.R. 1843 and to urge that Congress not enact legislation granting amnesty to illegal aliens.

(For text of resolution, see House Journal No. 86, p. 1443.)

(The resolution was adopted on September 25, see House Journal No. 96, p. 1561.)

Rep. Tobocman moved to reconsider the vote by which the House adopted the resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Tobocman moved that consideration of the resolution be postponed temporarily.

The motion prevailed.

Reps. Lemmons, Brown, Byrnes, Cheeks, Clemente, Constan, Cushingberry, Dean, Donigan, Farrah, Gonzales, Hammel, Hopgood, Johnson, Robert Jones, Leland, Marleau, Sak, Tobocman, Vagnozzi, Valentine and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 190.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to create the Homeowners and Bank Protection Act.

Whereas, The onrushing financial crisis engulfing home mortgages and the banking system of the United States threatens to set off an economic depression. Millions of American citizens are threatened with foreclosure and loss of their homes due to a financial crisis that threatens the integrity of both state and federally chartered banks. Such a banking collapse would wipe out the life savings of American citizens and undermine the economic stability of our nation; and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States should move quickly to keep people in their homes and avert economic catastrophe. Congress should establish a federal agency to place the federal and state chartered banks under protection, freeze all existing home mortgages for a period of months to adjust the values to fair prices, and restructure existing mortgages at appropriate interest rates. Also, the Congress should write off all speculative debt obligations of mortgage-backed securities and other schemes that have brought the banking system to the point of bankruptcy; and

Whereas, During the transitional period, all foreclosures should be frozen, allowing American families to retain their homes. Monthly payments, the equivalent of rental payments, should be made to designated banks, which can use the funds as collateral for normal lending practices, thus recapitalizing the banking system. These payments will be factored into new mortgages, reflecting the deflating of the housing bubble and the establishment of appropriate property valuations and reduced interest rates; and

Whereas, State governments should assume the administrative responsibilities for implementing the program, including the rental assessments to designated banks. The federal government should provide the necessary credits and guarantees to assure the successful transition; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to create the Homeowners and Bank Protection Act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Banking and Financial Services.

Reps. Robert Jones, Ball, Bauer, Bieda, Brown, Byrnes, Cheeks, Condino, Constan, Cushingberry, Dean, Donigan, Farrah, Gonzales, Green, Griffin, Hammel, Hammon, Hopgood, Johnson, LeBlanc, Leland, Lemmons, Marleau, Mayes, McDowell, Meadows, Miller, Pearce, Polidori, Proos, Sak, Schuitmaker, Shaffer, Alma Smith, Spade, Stahl, Tobocman, Vagnozzi, Valentine and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 191.

A resolution declaring November 4-10, 2007, as Michigan Long-Term Care Awareness Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has reported that 60 percent of Michigan residents over the age of 65 will need long-term care services at some point, with more than 40 percent of this group requiring nursing home care and another 30 percent in-home assistance; and

Whereas, The U. S. Census Bureau has projected that the population of Michigan residents age 65 and older will increase by nearly 70 percent to more than 2 million by 2030; and

Whereas, In 2006, the average annual cost of care in Michigan for nursing home services was $70,445, over $32,500 for assisted living and $18 per hour for non-skilled, in-home aid with all three continuing to increase at a rate outpacing the Consumer Price Index; and

Whereas, The American Association of Long-Term Care Insurance estimates that, by 2020, the cost for today's 60 year old will be in the $80,000 to $120,000 range for a single year of care in a nursing home or assisted living facility, which would entirely or nearly deplete the financial assets of most in just a year or two; and

Whereas, A 2006 AARP study indicated that most Americans, age 45 or over, were less informed than they thought regarding long term care, which was evidenced by the less than eight percent of them who could estimate the cost for nursing home care to within +/- 20 percent of its national average and the nearly 60 percent who believed that Medicare would cover the costs for an extended nursing home stay when it usually doesn't; and

Whereas, The Governor's Office and the AARP have noted that low levels of consumer awareness and many common misperceptions regarding the most essential long term care issues significantly contributed to the very apparent lack of planning and financial preparedness on the part of a significant majority of Michigan and U.S. residents aged 45 and over; and

Whereas, Almost all long term care experts are predicting that the next 10 to 30 years will see even sharper increases in the demand for services and its associated costs, it has become contingent on Michigan citizens to recognize this critical situation and, with the assistance and cooperation of state and federal government and businesses of all sizes, they will begin to take the appropriate steps to ensure that their individual and family long term care needs can be met, which will improve the odds that their latter years can be "golden years"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 4-10, 2007, as Michigan Long-Term Care Awareness Week in the state of Michigan. We encourage every citizen to take the steps necessary to ensure a caring, worry-free future for themselves and their loved ones.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Tobocman moved that Rule 71 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
