Pastor Dan Bowman, Pastor of First United Methodist Church in Marlette, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Gracious and Mighty God,

We gather today in the presence of You Who have given us self-evident truths and certain inalienable rights. We call upon Your unmatched guidance in these troubled days. We thank You for the blessings that You have provided for our state and our nation, for the resources and wisdom that have led us to receive a bounty of provision and have carried us to be a city upon the hill and an arm of justice to the world.

We ask that You provide guidance to these elected officials of the state of Michigan, so as they convene, they may do so in the realm of Your wisdom, Your courage, Your compassion and Your virtue. Lead them that they may rightly guide through legislation the direction of our state as we move into the future.

We recognize the difficulty of the decisions that they face. We acknowledge that such decisions affect many in this state and that in such times as these, their decisions are neither simple nor made without much careful consideration. Heavy is the burden they bear in the pursuit of righteousness, but strong is the arm of our God who leads them.

Therefore guide this body of men and women that they may truly hear the voice of Your timeless understanding, and plant the governmental seeds of fruitfulness and hope.

Enable them beyond the existence of their human capabilities, that they may surely find Divine inspiration and light to overcome this season of struggle. Grant them unity, tireless determination and encouragement to discover Your vision for our state.

May their work be the object of faithful and consistent prayer by the citizens of this great state. And may they feel that prayerful support daily.

It is in Your powerful Name, and with great reverence and awe that we pray for these proceedings. Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Segal moved that Reps. Haugh, Jackson and Womack be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Meadows, Constan, Huuki, Kurtz and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 101.

A resolution to memorialize the President and the Congress of the United States to allow access to frozen Libyan assets to address the situation facing Libyan students studying at American universities and participating in academic programs.

Whereas, The ongoing turmoil in Libya is having ramifications far beyond the immediate areas of conflict. One group facing a host of very serious difficulties is the population of Libyans studying in the United States; and

Whereas, According to the Chronicle of Higher Education, approximately 2,000 students from Libya are studying at American universities, either pursuing degrees or participating in special academic programs. Today, these students face a host of serious and immediate challenges, even as they are living with fears for their families back home and concerns for the future of their homeland; and

Whereas, The Libyan National Economic Development Board stopped funding for Libyan students at the end of March. As a result, most Libyan students, unable to hold jobs under the terms of their student visas, have no money available to them for food, housing, or health care. Many universities, including Michigan State University, are providing emergency assistance in order to help students acquire these necessary resources; and

Whereas, Given the tense situation in Libya, which currently is engulfed in armed conflict, it is important to understand that these visiting students and scholars also face conflicts among themselves. The body of our visiting Libyan students includes both those who oppose and those who are in favor of the actions taken by the Libyan government. This tension endangers the safety of the students as well; and

Whereas, Compounding the challenges facing Libyan students is the fact that visas for many of them, including the students in Michigan State University’s Visiting International Professional Program, are expiring. Currently, students are filling out asylum forms, but without legal advice the process is very strenuous. The students cannot afford a lawyer to help them, and the university cannot provide any legal services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the President and the Congress of the United States to make every effort to open up assets for Libyan graduate students and students that are in other academic programs; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. MacGregor, Lyons, Stapleton, MacMaster, Wayne Schmidt, Franz, Irwin, Yonker, Pscholka, Roy Schmidt, Barnett, Crawford, Dillon, Heise, Horn, Knollenberg, LeBlanc, Nesbitt and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 102.

A resolution to declare July 2011 as Craft Beer Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers are a vibrant affirmation and expression of Michigan's entrepreneurial traditions, operating as community-based small businesses and providing employment for more than 1,000 workers; and

Whereas, Michigan has craft brewers in every region of the state and more than 100 craft brewers statewide; and

Whereas, The Michigan Brewers Guild celebrates Michigan Craft Beer Month each year by hosting a Summer Festival in July; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers support Michigan agriculture by purchasing hops, beet sugar, cherries, apples, and numerous other fruits, herbs, and vegetables grown in Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers promote Michigan's spirit of independence through a renaissance in hand-crafted beers like those first brought to Michigan by European settlers and produced here by our forefathers, including Bernhard Stroh, for the enjoyment of the citizenry; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers strive to educate legal drinking-age residents about the differences in beer flavor, aroma, color, alcohol content, body, and other complex variables, as well as historic brewing traditions, beer history, and gastronomic qualities of beer; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers champion the message of responsible enjoyment to their customers and work within their communities to prevent alcohol abuse and underage drinking; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers produce more than 100 distinct styles of flavorful beers, the quality and diversity of which have made Michigan the envy of many states, contributing to balanced trade with increased Michigan exports, and promoting Michigan tourism; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers have been a successful business model during our state's economic struggles, thriving and expanding - furthering their economic importance to our state; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers are vested in the future, health, and welfare of their communities as employers providing a diverse array of quality local jobs, as contributors to the local tax base, and as committed sponsors of a broad range of vital community institutions and philanthropic causes, including not-for-profit housing development associations, chambers of commerce, humane societies, athletic teams, and medical research; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare July 2011 as Craft Beer Month in the state of Michigan. We recognize the contributions that Michigan craft brewers have made to the state's communities, economy, and history; and be it further

Resolved, That we commend Michigan craft brewers for providing jobs, improving the balance of trade, supporting Michigan agriculture, and educating residents about the history and culture of beer while promoting the responsible consumption of beer as a beverage of moderation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Opsommer to the Chair.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 15.

A concurrent resolution to request the Michigan Supreme Court to issue an opinion on the constitutionality of the provisions of 2011 PA 38 allowing the taxation of certain pension income.

Whereas, The restoration of Michigan's economic health and vitality is of critical importance to the people of this state. The project to reform, restructure, and reinvent Michigan is a joint undertaking of the both houses of the Legislature and the Governor. Revisions to Michigan's tax system are major components of this effort; and

Whereas, On May 25, 2011, Governor Rick Snyder signed into law Enrolled House Bill No. 4361, which became 2011 PA 38 and allows the taxation of certain pension income. The earliest date upon which any provision of the act will become effective is October 1, 2011; and

Whereas, Constitutional concerns have been raised regarding the act, particularly its reduction and elimination of the statutory tax exemption for public-pension incomes. Resolution of these concerns is vital because Michigan's fiscal year 2012 budget assumes implementation of the tax code changes contained in this legislation; and

Whereas, The Michigan Constitution, in Article 3, Section 8, provides: "Either house of the legislature or the governor may request the opinion of the supreme court on important questions of law upon solemn occasions as to the constitutionality of legislation after it has been enacted into law but before its effective date"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we request the Michigan Supreme Court to issue an opinion, pursuant to Article 3, Section 8 of the Michigan Constitution, on the following important questions of law pertaining to provisions of 2011 PA 38:

1. Does reducing or eliminating the statutory tax exemption for public-pension incomes, as described in Section 30 of the act, impair accrued financial benefits of a "pension plan [or] retirement system of the state [or] its political subdivisions" under Article 9, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution?
2. Does reducing or eliminating the statutory tax exemption for pension incomes, as described in Section 30 of the act, impair a contract obligation in violation of Article 1, Section 10 of the Michigan Constitution or Article 1, Section 10[1] of the Constitution of the United States?
3. Does determining eligibility for income-tax exemptions based on total household resources or age and total household resources, as described in Section 30(7) and 30(9) of the act create a graduated income tax in violation of Article 9, Section 7 of the Michigan Constitution?
4. Does determining eligibility for income-tax exemptions based on date of birth, as described in section 30(9) of the act, violate equal protection of the law under Article 1, Section 2 of the Michigan Constitution or the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States?

; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution and a copy of 2011 PA 38 be transmitted to the Michigan Supreme Court.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

Rep. Stamas moved that consideration of the concurrent resolution be postponed for the day.

The motion prevailed.
