Rep. Lee Gonzales, from the 49th District, offered the following invocation:

“O God...at a time when there are so many issues on which we find it difficult to reach a common basis of agreement, give us insight enough ourselves to discover the deeper meaning of how complex decisions are made in the face of tremendous challenges.

‘We live in a time of incredible transition, in the midst of changes so profound we will only be able to fully understand them with hindsight. But that doesn’t mean we can’t prepare for what lies ahead.’

Please guide us, Lord, as Your servants who can tell strength from power, growth from greed, leadership from dominance, and real greatness from the trappings of grandiosity. Give us the vision, as public servants, to know where leadership for our state truly lies, to pursue it diligently, and to require it to protect the rights for everyone everywhere in Michigan.

This we pray, and please join me in saying...Amen.”

Rep. Booher moved that Reps. Emmons and Garfield be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Reports of Standing Committees

The Speaker laid before the House

House Resolution No. 31.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to establish a “Marshall Plan” for the United States automotive industry.

(For text of resolution, see House Journal No. 20, p. 221.)

(The resolution was reported by the Committee on Labor on April 12, consideration of which, under the rules, was postponed until April 17.)

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Tobocman moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Sheltroun, Byrnes, Lindberg, McDowell, Lahti, Miller, Lemmons, Sak, Valentine, Meisner, Ebli, Clemente, Leland, Espinoza, Mayes, Warren, Angerer, LeBlanc, Hopgood, Hammon, Condino and Dean offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 67.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to divert excess oil company profits to provide incentives for the development of biodiesel and ethanol production facilities and to encourage the use of these fuels in diesel fuel vehicles and flexible fuel vehicles.

Whereas, High gasoline prices will impact all sectors of Michigan’s economy. During the past year, the price of regular gasoline has approached, and in certain regions of the state exceeded, $3.00 per gallon. This price is substantially higher than the price of gasoline sold previously in Michigan. These extreme gasoline prices disproportionately impact Michigan’s manufacturing, agriculture, and tourism sectors, which are highly dependent on fuels and are negatively affected by soaring fuel costs; and

Whereas, Oil companies reported record increases in their 2005 profits compared to a year earlier. In particular, ExxonMobil reported $36.1 billion in 2005 profits, or 43 percent higher than the previous year, making it the world’s largest corporation. Royal Dutch Shell’s 2005 profits reached $23 billion, exceeding its 2004 earnings by nearly a third. Exceptional profits were also reported by Chevron, British Petroleum, and ConocoPhillips, the other major international oil companies; and

Whereas, These excessive oil company profits are not simply a historic concern. The most recent financial information available for ExxonMobil indicates that during the second quarter of 2006, its net income rose to $10.4 billion, up about 36 percent from the second quarter of 2005. Other oil company's profits have also followed suit. Royal Dutch Shell's second quarter net income climbed nearly 40 percent to $7.3 billion, British Petroleum's net income rose 30 percent to $7.3 billion, ConocoPhillips' net income jumped 65 percent to a record $5.2 billion, and Chevron's net income increased 18 percent to $4.3 billion; and

Whereas, It is becoming increasingly apparent that alternative fuels must be a critical component of the state's and the nation's energy supply. Access to the world supply of crude oil is very precarious, and gasoline and diesel fuel prices continue to fluctuate; and

Whereas, Biodiesel and ethanol are renewable alternative fuels produced in the United States primarily from soybean and corn crops, which are prominent crops in Michigan's agricultural sector. Advancing the development of biodiesel and ethanol by using excess oil company profits will help the United States meet its energy needs, lessen our dependence on foreign oil supplies, and reduce tailpipe emissions that have the potential to harm human health and the environment; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to divert excess oil company profits to provide incentives for the development of biodiesel and ethanol production facilities and to encourage the use of these fuels in diesel fuel vehicles and flexible fuel vehicles; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

Rep. Coulouris offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 68.

A resolution recognizing the month of April 2007 as Financial Literacy for Youth Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The informed use of credit and other financial products and services benefits individual consumers and promotes economic growth; and

Whereas, Financial literacy encourages greater economic self-sufficiency, higher levels of homeownership, and enhanced retirement security, particularly among low- and moderate- income citizens; and

Whereas, The past decade has seen declining personal savings rates, increased bankruptcy filings, and rising percentages of family income devoted to serving household debt; and

Whereas, Only 26 percent of 13- to 21-year-olds reported that their parents actively taught them how to manage money; and

Whereas, A 2002 study by Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy found that high school seniors know even less about credit cards, retirement funds, insurance, and other personal finance basics than seniors did five years ago; and

Whereas, Personal financial education is essential to ensure that our youths are prepared to manage money, credit, and debt, while also becoming responsible workers, heads of households, investors, entrepreneurs, business leaders, and citizens; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body recognize the month of April 2007 as Financial Literacy for Youth Month in the state of Michigan. This month will raise public awareness about the need for increased financial literacy in our schools and among our children and to urge the awareness of the serious problems that are associated with a lack of understanding about personal finances; and be it further

Resolved, That we call on each parent, school, business, community organization, and unit of government to observe the month with appropriate programs and activities.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Tobocman moved that Rule 71 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
