Senator Vincent Gregory of the 11th District offered the following invocation:

Dear Heavenly Father, we come before You this morning seeking Your guidance and advice as we work together to serve the people of the state of Michigan. Let us remember Your words: "To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven."

As we begin our new season, we ask for Your patience, Lord, as we move forward. Please bless us with the intelligence needed to succeed. During times of animosity, give us Your wisdom and encouragement. When we face disappointment, extend a shoulder to lean on. Let us remember what our duty is and whom we are fighting for. Provide Your support during the good times and the bad. When we lose sight of our goals, replenish us with hope. Lord, please give us Your hand while we set out to improve the lives of the people from this great state.

Lastly, we ask that You bless our new members along with returning ones. Please provide the members of this body with Your great inspiration as we work together to create a better society for generations to come.

In Your name, we pray. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Resolutions

Senator Young entered the Senate Chamber.

Senators Schuitmaker, Warren, O'Brien and Emmons offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 8.

A resolution proclaiming February 2015 as American Heart Month and February 6, 2015, as Go Red for Women Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Heart disease is the No. 1 killer of women, yet 80 percent of cardiac events can be prevented; and

Whereas, Cardiovascular diseases cause 1 in 3 women's deaths each year, killing approximately one woman every minute; and

Whereas, An estimated 44 million women in the United States are affected by cardiovascular diseases; and

Whereas, 90 percent of women have one or more risk factors for developing heart disease, yet only 1 in 5 American women believe that heart disease is her greatest health threat; and

Whereas, Since 1984, more women than men have died each year from heart disease; and

Whereas, Women comprise only 24 percent of participants in all heart-related studies; and

Whereas, Women are less likely to call 911 for themselves when experiencing symptoms of a heart attack than they are if someone else were having a heart attack; and

Whereas, Only 43 percent of African-American women and 44 percent of Hispanic women know that heart disease is their greatest health risk, compared with 60 percent of Caucasian women; and

Whereas, Women involved with the American Heart Association's Go Red For Women® movement live healthier lives. Nearly 90 percent have made at least one healthy behavior change; and

Whereas, Go Red For Women is asking all Americans to Go Red by wearing red and speaking red.

- Get Your Numbers: Ask your doctor to check your blood pressure and cholesterol.
- Own Your Lifestyle: Stop smoking, lose weight, exercise and eat healthy.
- Raise Your Voice: Advocate for more women-related research and education.
- Educate Your Family: Make healthy food choices for you and your family. Teach your kids the importance of staying active.
- Don't Be Silent: Tell every woman you know that heart disease is their No. 1 killer. Raise your voice at GoRedForWomen.org;

now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we hereby proclaim February 2015 as American Heart Month and February 6, 2015, as Go Red for Women Day in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge all citizens to show their support for women and the fight against heart disease by commemorating this day by wearing the color red. By increasing awareness, speaking up about heart disease, and empowering women to reduce their risk for cardiovascular disease, we can save thousands of lives each year.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senator Kowall moved that rule 3.204 be suspended to name the entire membership of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor as co-sponsors of the resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senators Schuitmaker, Emmons, O'Brien and Warren asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Schuitmaker's first statement is as follows:

Today I am honored to be here with my esteemed colleagues to ask for your support of Senate Resolution No. 8, which proclaims February 2015 as American Heart Month and February 6 as Go Red For Women Day in the state of Michigan.

Senator Emmons' statement is as follows:

Heart disease is the No. 1 killer of women, yet 80 percent of cardiac events can be prevented. Cardiac events can be prevented. Cardiovascular disease causes 1 in 3 women's deaths each year, killing approximately one woman every minute. An estimated 44 million women in the United States are affected by cardiovascular disease. Ninety percent of women have one or more risk factors for developing heart disease, yet only 1 in 5 American women believe that heart disease is her greatest threat.

Senator O'Brien's statement is as follows:

Since 1984, more women than men have died each year from heart disease, but women comprise only 24 percent of participants in heart-related studies. Women are also less likely to call 9-1-1 for themselves when experiencing symptoms of a heart attack than they are if someone else were having a heart attack. Only 43 percent of African-American women and 44 percent of Hispanic women know that heart disease is their greatest heart risk, compared with 60 percent of Caucasian women.

Senator Warren's statement is as follows:

Women involved with the American Heart Association's Go Red For Women movement live healthier lives. Nearly 90 percent have made at least one healthy behavior change. Go Red For Women is asking all Americans to Go Red by wearing red and speaking red:

G - Get your numbers; ask your doctor to check your blood pressure and cholesterol. O - Own your lifestyle; stop smoking, lose weight, exercise, and eat healthy. R - Raise your voice; advocate for more women-related research and education. E - Educate your family; make healthy food choices for you and your family, and teach your children the importance of staying active. D - Don't be silent; tell every woman you know that heart disease is their No. 1 killer, and raise your voice at GoRedForWomen.org.

Senator Schuitmaker's second statement is as follows:

We urge all citizens to show their support for women and the fight against heart disease by commemorating this day by wearing the color red. By increasing awareness, speaking up about heart disease, and empowering women to reduce their risk for cardiovascular disease, we can save thousands of lives each year.

We ask for your support of this resolution, and we ask you to join us in the rotunda at 11:00 a.m. to hear from a survivor of heart disease and to meet with advocates from around the state.

Statements

Senator Hertel asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Hertel's statement is as follows:

I rise today to remember my friend Representative and Reverend Dr. Michael C. Murphy. Reverend Murphy passed away on Sunday, December 28, 2014. He was a friend and a mentor of mine and spent many years giving service to the people of Ingham County.

Michael was elected to the State House in 2000. His proudest moment as a legislator was the passage of The Jasmine Miles Schoolchildren Safety Act, which was named after Jasmine Miles, a student who died walking home from school in 2003. This legislation was targeted at local school jurisdictions to add sidewalks, school crossings, and other safety measures for schoolchildren. In addition, he served as chairman of the Michigan Legislative Black Caucus. Clearly, the people of Michigan were well-served by his diligent and respected service here as a legislator.

Michael C. Murphy continued to serve afterward also. He was the senior pastor at People's Congregational United Church of Christ in Washington, D.C., having served five years prior to his passing. His dedication to the well-being of congregations and their church growth inspired Reverend Murphy to start new churches not only in Lansing, but also in Washington, D.C. In 1987, Reverend Murphy founded St. Stephen's Community Church here in Lansing. During this time, he also served on the Lansing City Council until his election to the Michigan House of Representatives.

He will be dearly missed by those who loved him and those who cared about public service here in my district.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of former State Representative Reverend Dr. Michael C. Murphy.
