Rep. Fulton Sheen, from the 88th District, offered the following invocation:

“Lord, this may very well be the final day of session for the 94th Legislature. Lord, I want to thank You, as do many in this chamber, for the privilege of serving the state of Michigan and the citizens of our respective districts. Almost half of this chamber will now return to the private sector and the districts from which we came. We are looking forward to spending more time with our families and friends. But we are returning to an economy and job market which are both difficult and challenging. I pray that You enable those who are leaving to be able to find a good job to provide for their families. I pray for those who are staying to make wise choices and to not be afraid to do what must be done.

Lord, I ask for Your forgiveness for the mistakes we have made and for the things we should have done that we didn't. I pray, oh Lord, that You would help us do the right thing and we would not place politics before good policy and personal gain and position before the welfare of the majority of citizens which live in Michigan.

Lord, our state is in dire need of leadership and vision. Lord, it says in Your word that a people without a vision are a people without restraint. Father, we were sent here to make difficult choices and the time to make those choices is now. Our state has not been in this difficult of a situation since the Great Depression. Lord, we need Your grace and divine wisdom, strategies, and direction to lead the state out of this crisis. So today I pray, along with all those in this room, that You would give the 94th Legislature, as well as the 95th Legislature, the courage and insight to make those decisions and chart that course. Just as Benjamin Franklin prayed so many years ago, ‘We have been assured Sir, in the sacred Writings, that except the Lord build this House, they labor in vain that build it. I firmly believe this; and I also believe without His concurring aid, we should succeed at this political building no better than the builders of Babel.’ May we not try to chart this course without You. Amen.”

 “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While I agree with the intent of the bill and I understand it supposedly protects retailers from the costs of retrofitting their machines, I believe that with the budget problems the State has that in another year the retailers will get stuck with the bill for retrofitting their machines. Thus I voted no.”

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Tobocman moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Shaffer:

- “Thank you, Mr. Speaker for the courtesies extended; good morning revered colleagues of the House Chamber!
- I had planned to draw your attention to the West Gallery, and focus on the fact that, surprisingly, I had no guests, however, that plan was foiled by the appearance of two dear friends from Three Rivers, whom I will introduce later in the day!
- However, most of you would be surprised if you knew of any members of my constituency who have NOT visited during my tenure here, since I think at one time or another it seems they all came to visit, and, with a sincere thank you to Mike Quillinan, I have the photos to prove it!
- To be perfectly candid, I was not planning on a Sine Die farewell. Most of our presentations are of similar rhetoric and perhaps a more effective use of legislative time would be for each of us to contribute a thought or two and have a spokesperson, more eloquently, present a ‘class farewell’. In that respect, I want to thank my friend and colleague, the good Representative from the 77th District who sits across this aisle from me, for refocusing my practicality.
- He shared, ‘Alone, you could never have achieved the privilege of serving in these hallowed chambers and likewise, never would have been of service to your constituents or gained legislative accomplishments. Your supporters need to have their value recognized!’
- Very wise counsel, Representative Green!
- And so, I too, will deliver a few accolades as has been the ‘common thread’ of so many of our closing speeches.
- First of all, a thank you to a Loving God that allows free moral agents to make decisions concerning their futures and forgives our shortcomings. He has provided guidance during my life, and I give Him all the thanks!
- I am blessed with a supportive family. My wife Sara and our boys Robbie and Ryan have made great sacrifices of their time to support my political ambitions as a county commissioner, during multiple campaigns and, of course, this ‘crazy’ legislative life-style.
- My parents deserve special recognition for instilling values of compassion for all fellow beings, Christian virtues and a spirit of volunteerism. They underwent years of self sacrifice to provide a Christian education for my sister and me.
- Over the years, I have had understanding employers and staff who have compensated during my absence while attending various community events.

- I am continually indebted to a talented campaign committee - each contributed their talents, and resources which provided me with the ultimate privilege of serving the constituency of the 59th District.
- The words 'Thank You' do not in any way reach the depths of my appreciation for their support, but I do say a sincere and humble "thank you" to them all.
- As legislators, we are blessed with talented support personnel at home and here in Lansing. I would be remiss if I didn't thank a few of my district 'legislative' cabinet! Each brought vocational expertise to the table, and many of my votes reflected the wisdom and guidance gained from them. I know I risk missing a few people in the plethora of names I am mentioning, but my gratitude goes to: John Kruse, Elmer Black, Suzie Warner, Kelly Hostetler, Larry Walton, Pattie Bender, Fred Henningson, Andy Goldberger, Bill LeBre, Bernie Williamson, Tom Meyer, Roger Rathburn, David Matthews, Jeff Middleton and the Cass County 'email King' County Commissioner Gordon Bickel .
- Since so many of my colleagues have mentioned our legislative support staff, I'll not take the time to further extrapolate, but will add my own accolade for their faithful service; in a term limited environment their institutional knowledge is certainly invaluable. Thank you to each and every one of you.
- In closing, and most importantly, a word about my own staff. Susan Martin, Chief of Staff has been an acquaintance for many years, and later became a friend. She was in reality my Campaign Manager who worked on my re-election campaigns also, and has for the past six years so admirably served our constituency. Her famous 'leave-it-to-me' response has been a comfort to me as she has brought countless issues to positive resolve and gained tremendous respect both at home in the district, and here in Lansing, during the process. She's been described as 'Mary Poppins with attitude', but to me she is just 'friend'. I'm tempted to keep calling her after January 1st..... Just kidding Susan, and thank you for your support and service.
- Marcy Johns, joined our staff a year ago. Many did not recognize the change in staff as her identical twin sister, Tricia McCallum left our office after five years to seek other employment and I would be remiss not to thank Tricia for her service and dedication. Marcy has her own personality and has fit the vacancy like a glove. We enjoy her 'can-do' positive attitude, warm friendliness to constituents, and her efficient control of my calendar, which provides some balance to this hectic legislative life style. Thank you Marcy for your support and service.
- And finally, to my colleagues, a salute to each of you who made this a most amazing experience. Whether for your support of my bills, your camaraderie during challenging times, or your personal friendship; each of you has made an indelible mark!
- I thank you one and all; and wish you all God's blessings as you continue to travel down your path through life.
- Thank you."

Rep. Amos:

"Good Afternoon:

I have found that to serve in the Legislature is a wonderful way to cap off a career. When I worked at Bell I loved what I did but I never felt that I was doing what I was put on this earth to do. Serving as a Representative of the people is getting much closer to what I believe my purpose is.

After listening to many of my colleague's farewell remarks, I have decided to touch upon some of the most important things that stick out in my mind and have not been mentioned enough.

I would like to thank the volunteers that have assisted me in getting to where I am today. Without the dedication of these caring citizens, none of us would be here in Lansing serving our constituents. To all volunteers, thank you from the bottom of my heart.

In this job you need to use every talent and skill that you have gained from your life experiences. To serve in this august body you need lots of skills: perseverance, time, cooperation, research, listening, leadership, and negotiating just to name a few.

To survive here in Lansing, you need a whole other set of skills.

Serving here is NOT JUST about making laws and balancing the budget, it is mostly about helping people and it covers a very wide spectrum of issues and problems. I have had many positive experiences during my time in the House. This includes supporting a family that had a loved one who was missing in action in Iraq, helping out the constituents of my district when they needed someone the most and being a voice for the mental health and disability communities.

If there is one negative point looking back on my six years, it would be not getting an effective solution to my proposed legislation concerning schools of choice for special education students. The experiences I had while working diligently to pass this important legislation opened my eyes to the true purpose of why I am here serving the people of Michigan. It is my hope that all of my colleagues will come to learn this same purpose before their time in the legislature comes to an end. Please remember that we are here first to serve. Especially for the groups of people, like special education students, that need real solutions when they are being wronged. It is our duty to look past politics to the core of the problem, and make sure that we make decisions in the best interest of the State of Michigan.

I remember the first day when I walked from the HOB over to the capitol to vote for the first time, a rush of responsibility filled my entire heart and body at the thought of pressing that button. That excitement and sense of responsibility has NEVER changed. We are entrusted to hold the volts of 10 million peoples lives. That is a responsibility I have NEVER taken lightly and NEVER compromised.

Everyone's time here is both intense and valuable, with the days being long and the years being far too short. So now time is running out as with many new and old friends the best way to go is say ..... SAYONARA."

Rep. Bieda:

"First of all, I want to thank the people of the 25th District. When I ran for state representative I promised to work to make it the best vote you ever cast.

I sincerely hope I came close to that goal.

I would also like to thank my family, especially my parents, Joseph and Joan Bieda who are watching this on MGTV, as well as friends and supporters for everything they have done for me and everything they mean to me. No mere words can adequately express my debt, appreciation or affection.

For the last six years I have had the honor of representing a district that is very much part of this country's industrial muscle, indeed an area that Franklin Roosevelt hailed, during a visit there in the 1940s, as the Arsenal of Democracy.

I have always been proud to be an American.

I love my country.

I want to see my country succeed.

And I have always driven an American Car.

These are challenging times for our country, our state and our people. We need, and are fortunate to have, many good people in public service.

Upon reflecting on this wonderful and unique experience, I have to note that there are two types of personalities that take office. One type is self-assured, solid in their positions, immovable in their approach to some of the problems and issues facing the state. The other, and I think I fall in this category, is open to learning new things and approaching issues with an open mind.

Over all, the most important characteristic is being a good listener – whether you are dealing with your family, friends, or your constituents.

Since taking office I've had the pleasure of working on a number of interesting and complex issues.

For a policy wonk — this has been a virtual public affairs buffet. And with my 100 plus bills I sponsored — I clearly have enjoyed this very much.

I have had the challenge of working on a replacement for the Single Business Tax, something I approached with a workman like zeal and a definition of workgroup I suspect pushed the boundaries of what had previously passed for the term.

Issues relating to MBT revisions, service tax replacement, as well as a whole host of sundry and technical changes to the tax code have been a mainstay of my life for the last several years. I've also enjoyed my work on the Judiciary, Transportation, Labor, Capitol, and Ethics and Elections Committees

I tried my best, although in a political environment we are often lucky to end up with pretty good rather than ideal. As part of the first group of the 'budgeters of 07' to leave office, I can't but help to note that our state and country would be better off if we all placed a higher emphasis on the policy rather than the politics.

Disappointments?

Yes, more than a few. I am disappointed that despite our best intentions and a progressive series of ethics reforms that only one bill — a bill I sponsored requiring the reporting of funds donated to politicians legal defense funds — made it through both chambers and onto the Governor's desk.

I think it's deplorable that Michigan is ranked at the bottom of states on state ethics legislation. I'm also disappointed that we haven't adopted no-excuse absentee voting.

I hope a future legislator takes up this challenge.

My class of 2003 took office on what was essentially the eve of the War in Iraq. Since that time, between Afghanistan and Iraq, over 4200 Americans have been killed. Of those 152 were from Michigan. My most poignant memories of this institution will be the times we stood at attention in honor of a fallen American.

I want to commend Governor Granholm for her sensitivity and respect for those sacrifices made by these brave Americans by ordering the Flag to be flown at half-mast for each Michigan resident lost in the war.

Although it pales by the enormity of the sacrifice, this is a great honor and an appropriate tribute. But passing the Capitol and noticing the Flag at half-mast didn't fully tell the story about the individuals so honored.

Thus, as a member of the Capitol Committee I recommended that we post the names so we would all be informed of the identity of those who loved this country and paid the ultimate sacrifice.

As a country we should never forget the sacrifices of our veterans and especially those who died in the service of our country. God bless them and their families.

It was in the similar thought of remembrance that I undertook a project to honor the memory and achievements of Elijah Myers, architect of the State Capitol, with the installation of a memorial plaque at his gravesite and on the ground floor of the rotunda of this building.

Since I started working here there has not been a day that has gone by that I haven't noticed some architectural flourish, some artistic detail of this magnificent building.

We are so fortunate to have this as our workplace.

Another more permanent achievement is something many of you may have in your pockets.

In 2003 I had the honor of working with members of the Michigan State Quarter Commission. The five finalist designs all incorporated the outline of the state.

But something was missing, and working with the United States Mint and the Michigan DEQ, I suggested and requested that the designs incorporate the topographical features of the State of Michigan.

So my friends, when you rub your fingers over the surface of a Michigan Quarter – those slightly irregular surfaces – you can tell your kids that that's Steve Bieda.

I would be truly remiss if I didn't thank all of you for your service to the state. At risk of omitting some,

First of all, thank you to everyone who either worked on my campaigns or worked with me on my many legislative ideas.

Special thanks to Stephanie Atkinson, David Bocek, Jeff Weathers, Eric Stoken, Ryan Bates, Elizabeth Lenhard, Joe Dolan, Ed Klein, Jane Gabler, Phil Turner and Joe DiSano.

Thank you to my office staff — both current and former, including most recently Celina Stewart, Becky Hilgert, Mike Brown and Jim Smock. Thank you also to all the clerks on the committees I have served. As well as to all the interns that have served in my office.

Thank you to our Policy staff - both Democratic and Republican, House and Senate. Special thanks to Stephanie Schmidt, Arnold Weinfeld, Bill Flory, Gary Garbarino, Chrissy Beckwith, Lorna Elliott., John Mulcrone, Matt Hanley, Howard Ryan and Nathan Forester.

Thank you to the staff of the State Capitol. Kerry Chartkoff, Matt Van Acker, Steve Benkovsky and the late Jerry Lawler for all you have done in ensuring that this Capitol continues to be the gem that it is. Thank you to all who work in visitor services, to the docents and capitol volunteers, as well as the House pages and the House Sergeants.

Thank you to those in the administration, including State Treasurer Bob Kleine, Tim Hughes, and the very talented and somewhat curmudgeonly Scott Schrage. Thank you to our legislative services bureau especially Fred Doherty and Kellie Osborn for your work on the MBT. Thank you to Mitch Bean in House Fiscal. You are all talented individuals.

I'd like to also thank House and Senate leadership both past and present. In particular Speaker Andy Dillon, MFL Steve Tobocman and Speak Pro Tem Mike Sak.

I'd like to thank members of the Macomb delegation, both past and present, including Lisa Wojno, with whom I represent the City of Warren, and Tory Rocca with whom I represent the City of Sterling Heights.

Thank you to other members I've had the pleasure of working with, especially Doug and Toby Spade, Barb Farrah, Gabe Leland, Mike Nofs, Andy Coulouris, Tim Melton, Lorence Wenke, Richard LeBlanc, Kathleen Law, Marc Corriveau, Aldo Vagnozzi, and John Espinoza, as well as former fellow staff members turned legislators Jeff Mayes, Hoon-Yung Hopgood, and Rebekah Warren.

Thank you to the talented and knowledgeable press and lobby corps whom I have had the pleasure of working with over the years.

I would especially like to thank everyone who ever served on a workgroup with me. Especially members of the MBT workgroup, my good friend and seat-mate Paul Condino, Kathy Angerer, Brian Calley, and Senators Buzz Thomas, Jud Gilbert, Mark Jansen and Nancy Cassis.

Lastly, I have to acknowledge the fact that as we transition to different jobs and careers that I won't be seeing you in the same capacity or frequency that I've become accustomed to.

So what do you say? In my feeble attempts to find the right words, I reflect back to something my grandmother wished for me in one of my last conversations with her several days before she died last year, just shy of her 99 th Birthday.

She told me two things. One was that life was too short. The second was that life is beautiful, and that she hoped I had a beautiful life.

Well my friends, life is beautiful, I hope you have a long and beautiful life. It has been an honor serving with all of you and for the people of Michigan in this, our Michigan House of Representatives. Thank you."

Rep. LaJoy:

"Thank you for the opportunity to address my colleagues today. First of all, I'd like to thank God for the opportunity to serve. I'd like to thank my family: my wife, Jean, my son, Todd, and his wife, Amy and my son, Chris, his wife, Mary, and my grandchildren, Lena and Andrew, for their unwavering support and making it possible for me to serve. I'd like to thank my staff, Stacey Shell and Wendy Larvick, for their hard work and dedication to the residents of the 21st district.

When I first came to the House, having spent many years working in the private sector and in managing my own business, I quickly came to the realization that we have a long way to go in being good stewards of the people's money. It became my primary focus during my time in office to attempt to assist our state government in being more efficient and more effective. I found that this venture did not make me popular in many of our state office buildings. I am proud though of the two legislative commissions on Mandates and Government Efficiency started this year which have already stirred up the status quo. I hope the recommendations of these two commissions will be taken to heart by the state and by this body when they are released next year. I'd also like to offer this parting advice — figure out how Michigan can work more as one state rather than 17 separate departments. We certainly can do a better job of consolidating and yet still provide the excellent service our residents deserve. I'd like to thank Tom Casperson for his continuous support through this efficiency journey.

I want to thank Craig DeRoche for the opportunity to chair the House Transportation Committee. I enjoyed this responsibility. I'd like to thank all of those who served with me on the committee for their excellent work and their support. Special thanks to the policy staff who assisted me, David Worthams, Audrey Robinson and Scott Starr. There is a definite need to improve our transportation funding system in Michigan and we must continue to, with a loud voice, make Washington, D.C. understand we need to receive our fair share of the funding. In addition, as a state, we must make transportation a top priority and ensure the funds we do have are spent where they are needed most, on our roads and bridges. Frankly, the revenue does not match the needs of a comprehensive transportation system. We need to change the way we collect our transportation revenue. The future, with changes in technology and renewable fuels, will demand it.

It's truly been an honor and a privilege to serve as state representative, to work in this beautiful building, and to build such strong and lasting friendships. I'd like to thank my colleagues, especially those seatmates I've had over the years, Shelley Taub, Tom Casperson, Jim Marleau and to David Law, special thanks for making this sometimes difficult job more tolerable. I'd like to thank the Republican Central Staff, the Legislative Service Bureau, and the lobbying community for their wealth of knowledge and support in creating good policy. I'd like to thank the sergeants, Clerk Rich Brown, Deputy Clerk Gary Randall, and all of the Capitol personnel for all they do to make our job so much easier. Finally, I'd like to thank the residents of the 21st district for granting me this honor."

Rep. Walker:

“Thank you Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the opportunity to wish everyone a farewell and to thank those who made this great adventure possible. First let me say my thank you’s so I do not forget. It took me year of speech making before I consistently thanked my wife so I want to thank her first. Dianne, I could not have done it without you. Thank you to my dedicated staff Matt Classens who was with me for three years; Eric Dean for three years; and Brianna Mills for all six years. I could not have looked good without you. And a big thank you to my constituents who put their faith in me and even to those who did not, I could not have done it without you.

I would like to talk just a little about myself and who I was before I got here. First you need to know I had a surveying business before I came here and surveyors in general are pretty conservation folks. And we are usually pretty casual. As a matter of fact flannel shirts were standard issue; for the office, for the field, and for meetings. I didn’t even know that those blue blazers, you know the one with gold buttons, went with khaki pants. You see I wouldn’t know because flannel shirts go with blue jeans.

Now as a surveyor I feel qualified to tell a quick surveyor joke. Picture two surveyors having a lively conversation and one was an introvert and one was an extravert, do you know how to tell which one was the extravert? He would be the one who looks at the other guys shoes when they are talking – pause for laughter.

I tell that joke to make a point and so maybe you can see a little bit more about whom I was coming into this job. And now, as I reflect back on the last six years I was wondering what it was all about. Was ‘it’ about all the constituent problems which we solved, was ‘it’ about all the legislation which was passed, or was ‘it’ about how many votes you got the last elections? Well, I think maybe it depends on what the definition of ‘it’ is. ‘Pause for laughter’.

I pondered what ‘it’ meant to me and thought about many of the things which I worked on that might define me down here and in the District, but I was drawn to a thought which was described in a book I read which titled The Purpose Driven Life and is authored by Rick Warren. The first sentence of the book reads ‘It is not about you’. If it is not about me, . . . what is it?

I think for me, ‘it’, was growing in my Christian faith. And how does one grow in their faith in Lansing, of all places; A place where many might envision a caldron of nefarious intent. Well, I can thank my good friend Rep. John Moolenaar and all those who attended and led our Bible study group which met every Wednesday morning at 7:00 am.. Yes. Right here in Lansing over in the House Office Bldg. This was a great bi-partisan group that really had a meaningful impact on me. Now, I not only will have my legislative experience but a stronger Christian faith to carry with to my next great adventure.

In conclusion, thank you again to everyone who made this experience possible. ‘It’ was a great ride!”

Rep. Accavitti:

“Thank You Mr. Speaker

First and foremost I would like to thank the 90,000 people of the 42nd district. For sending me to represent them these past six years.

Next my Family - Parents Frank and Mary Jane – Brothers Michael, Daniel and Paul and their families. My Children Amy, Jennifer and Frank and their Mother Mary Beth

My new extended family Dawn, and her Children Brianna and Brendan

My incredible staff present. Jenn Putney, Lindsay Willet, and past Lindsay Whiteninght/Laforte now on the speakers staff, Andy McKinnon now an attorney, Sam Modlen now a Washington DC police officer

Over six years I made many friendships on both sides of the aisle - I believe if pressed I could share a personal antidote about each and every one of you. But as we are pressed for time I will not

I do need to thank my Macomb County Colleagues - Cousin Dan Acciavatti, Steve Bieda, Jack Brandenburg, Kim Meltzer, Fred Miller, Tory Rocca & My 1st term side kick Lisa Wojno

Thank you Speaker Dillon – choosing me to lead the E & T Committee – Reeling me in when I got too far out there. But never being heavy handed or stifling the fire in my belly. You truly were the best choice for Speaker and that may have been the most important vote I cast in all the six years I have served here

Mike Nofs – For teaching me how to be Chairperson – for helping me move out of my comfort zone – helping me not only listen to those who agree with me but revealing in the growth from interacting with those who did not agree.

Detroit Caucus members past and present – who refreshed my hopes and dreams for the City of Detroit — all of you are a credit to your City.

I thought I knew everything when I got here to Lansing but what I learned was I didn't even know how much I didn't know. Thank you all for helping me learn that one never stops learning.

In parting a quote from Frank A. Clark

'If you find a path with no obstacles, it probably doesn't lead anywhere.'

Thank you it has been my pleasure to serve with you."

Rep. Palmer:

"My friends:

I leave Lansing hopefully as I arrived - consistent and unaffected by the bureaucracy. I choose today to submit these remarks because I owe a debt of gratitude to a vast number of people who have helped me along the way, and I would be remiss not to publicly acknowledge them. I choose not to stand on the floor of the House and give these remarks orally because I believe that we owe it to the citizens of this great state to be judicious with the taxpayer's resources, and focus on our job at hand, rather than take up valuable time with personal remarks. However, I do want to express a heartfelt goodbye to my new "brothers and sisters" that I gained in the past seven years in the legislature. Since I lost my only brother, Ron, and only sister, June during my first term in the legislature, this acknowledgement is even more important to me.

This stand harkens back to my first months as a legislator. We voted on legislation to establish a state fossil. While I'm sure that it made someone feel good to see that enacted into law, we have diverted attention away from the real issues facing our state. At the time I told our leadership that if the heat and lights are on in the chamber, that's enough for me to conclude that the legislation is a waste of taxpayer money.

I start by thanking Almighty God, the true source of all of our rights, for his care of our great state, and for protecting the men and women in the armed forces who protect our freedoms around the world. I thank my beautiful family, my wife Linda, my partner and the love of my life, my children Shannen, Devin and Brian, and especially my personal saint, my daughter Kaitlin Breanne. My wife and family have been an inspiration, a sounding board, and quite often the real sponsor of my legislation as they have brought numerous constituent issues to my attention.

I would also like to offer special thanks and loving appreciation to my Father-in-Law, Walter Street Sr., a D-Day veteran and very wise man, who became my real father after my own father passed away over three decades ago. Also, I would be remiss if I didn't acknowledge the incredible and everlasting influence that my mother Stella Palmer had on my life. Her steadfast faith in God, support of the Roman Catholic Church, kind words for everyone, forgiveness for all, and unconditional love for her family and friends is what helped make me who I am. She provided me with my faith foundation, while my father, an immigrant from northern Italy helped me find my purpose in life. He taught me that you can be anything you want to be in this country, and that all is possible if you believe.

I want to express my heartfelt appreciation to the voters of the old 32nd and the current 36th Districts for believing in me and allowing me to represent them here. I am forever humbled by their faith in me, and I hope that I have served them well.

I'd also like to thank everyone who makes this chamber work. Not just all of the Members that I have had the privilege of serving with, but the Clerks, the Service Bureau, the Fiscal Agency, all of the central staff including Adam Stacey, Jenn Spike-DeBano, Deena Bosworth, and especially my own staff over the years, including Dave Jessup, Jenn Hayes, Justin Gray, Kelly Hoffmann, Jared Burkhart, Liz Gullett and the host of interns that made my office operate efficiently for seven years. Most importantly, I thank Phil Browne for his tireless efforts as my Chief of Staff, and political manager for the past ten years. His tenacity, creative policy capabilities, political awareness and insight has been invaluable. I believe Phil, and past central staffer Don Cooper, to be about the most capable staff in the Capitol that I have encountered in my years here.

Also, a special thank-you to the following:

The men in 'red' that protect us, serve us, and teach us civility and proper behavior, far more than what should be the norm. They are under-appreciated at times, and taken for granted all too often.

Gary Randall for his wisdom, guidance, professionalism, an uncanny ability to come up with the right procedure and answer to a rules issue at just the right time.

All of the Members of this august body whom I appreciate for their commitment to serve and who all love this great state in their own way.

All of those serving in the Michigan Senate that I served with in my first of four terms in the House, who taught me much and served as my mentors when I was on the fast-track that first year, 2002, with no orientation other than: 'the red button means no, and the green means yes' as succinctly put by representative Larry Julian, Speaker Pro-Tem.

I would like to thank my good friend, John Engler who I've known and worked with since his days in the Michigan Senate, one of the greatest Governors ever, anywhere, in America.

I would also like to thank our Michigan Supreme Court for their conservative interpretation of the Michigan Constitution, and their resolve to avoid any temptation to legislate rather than interpret. I believe that we have been fortunate to have the finest state Supreme Court in the land.

I am and may well be for a long time - the longest 'consecutive serving' member of the House since term limits were enacted, and have had the pleasure of serving under two Governors consecutively.

The issues that I am the most passionate about revolve around the sanctity of life, including the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban, the right of conscientious objection, opposition to the death penalty, and the marriage amendment. Without life, all other questions are moot.

I tried to serve my constituents by improving their quality of life. I am proud of the funds we secured to monitor the Clinton River Watershed and restore the rivers and beaches. We promoted Advance Life Support statewide, and in the process created tax relief for my constituents with these services by an average of $400/year. We worked hard to protect our personal property rights accordance with the principles that our Founders' intended us to adhere to through facing down the DEQ, and working with the Save-Our Shoreline organization to implement a practical, realistic shoreline beach-grooming process. Throughout it all, I placed people first and politics, government and special interests second.

I spent four years chairing the House Education committee. In that time we reformed graduation requirements to provide our students with an education worth receiving, and a diploma that means something other than 'time served.' We revamped testing to make it relevant to students and encourage more to attend college. We made our schools safer by beefing up background checks on school employees to keep felons out. We addressed teen suicide issues, reformed ISD operations and hopefully made a positive impact on students throughout Michigan. Along with Representative Moolenaar, I helped promote math and science initiatives, which was sorely needed to bolster our K-12 standing internationally. I also tried to be the best possible advocate of Charter Schools and school choice legislation; and championed health insurance and pension reform legislation. Both issues prompted a 'Call of the House' much to the chagrin of both my fellow Republican and Democratic House Members. Finally we attempted to raise awareness regarding the necessity for teacher colleges to be able to turn out teachers that can 'teach to all children'

One of my biggest regrets echoes the lament of a great governor I had the privilege of serving under for a single year, John Engler. We didn't do enough to address the huge problems in the Detroit Schools. I grew up in Detroit. I graduated from Finney High School. Detroit was my home. I am simply saddened to see what a disaster the Detroit Public School system has become. It breaks my heart to see what was once a great system through the early 1970's has become. Union politics, cronyism and apathy have replaced the genuine care that was once a staple of that district.

As Education Chair, I reached out to the members of the Detroit Delegation in the House to see what we could do to improve the schools. The meetings I had were ultimately fruitless, though the Detroit Caucus whom I have a special fondness for, tried to come to grips with this dilemma. It's heartbreaking however, to see another generation of children wasted to power politics.

My other regrets include the failure of this Governor to sign a ban on partial birth abortion, and the failure of the Speaker and House leadership to take up my request to establish a permanent chapel in the Capitol, which was supported by almost every representative and senator that I presented it to.

On a day-to-day basis, my best moments were spent conducting prayers and the rosary before session each day since January of 2007. It helped to remind me of what was really important in this town. I will always treasure those moments, as well as my relationships with my friends, and those that I have worked with in Lansing for the good of this state. What was eternally important to me was the preservation of my integrity, and my mission to serve every citizen in this state rather than special interests, lobbyists, or worse, government itself.

As we look to the future for our state, we can be clear on one thing - our economic future is not bright. I can tell you this - no matter who has been in charge, we seem to avoid the real important issues and waste our time with political shenanigans and headline grabbers.

Despite our Lansing 'beltway environment', there are many good people here, and have been throughout my three and one half terms. Most often however, those who want real change, real structural changes in government, and a major change in the direction of this state, have been silenced and/or marginalized.

We need to 're-imagine' what our state and our citizens need to be successful. I firmly believe that we need to start with three major changes: Make Michigan a right-to-work state, more aptly called 'worker choice,' reign in the out-of-control bureaucracy by reforming JCAR with constitutional controls assuring that laws are properly implemented and enforced, and most importantly eliminate the outrageous tax and regulatory climate we have created that continue to drive people and industry out of our state.

We need to be bold going forward, and to stand for what is right, even when it's not politically expedient. The people of Michigan enacted term-limits in part to allow us the freedom to be bold, to act in the best interests of the State, and not be burdened with the politics of re-election. Many Members and those in the lobby corps lament that we do not have enough time to become experts in all things, or even a small number of things. Maybe that's not a bad thing. Our founders envisioned citizen lawmakers, a platform that I campaigned on when I ran for US Congress against David Bonior in 1998. In fact, Michigan's lawmakers didn't begin serving long periods until the mid 1960s. We can function as an effective body if we set aside our complaining and dive in and tackle the issues that face us. Nothing holds us back except ourselves, and turning the blame to others doesn't help to correct the path to nowhere that Michigan is presently on.

I leave this challenge to the next legislature. I also hope that eventually Michigan will embrace the concept of a part-time legislature, with some mitigation of term limits as a proper balance. Be free of the constraints of narrow politics and reach forward for the good of all of our citizens. I believe bipartisanship and professional congeniality to be a good thing, but not at the expense of the 'debate', and the providing of alternative policies to our constituents, and options for our citizens. If this is considered partisan and obstructionist, so be it.

We cannot survive by protecting aging dinosaurs that refuse to acknowledge that world realities have changed. Both business and labor need to realize that the old models no longer apply and they need to move forward together. Government needs to do what it should do best - provide for basic infrastructure, enforce the law and protect our citizens from harm, and most importantly- get out of the way of those that truly drive our economy: individuals, entrepreneurs, small business, and other participants in the private sector. As one of our greatest Presidents so aptly stated over 25 years ago, 'government is not the solution, rather government is the problem'. The solution to improving our quality of life and our state is to have LESS government, and MORE empowering of our individual citizens, their freedoms, their rights, and embolden their ability to strive for the American Dream unfettered by excessive government regulation, bureaucratic dominance of our institutions, bloated government budgets, and those politicians whose primary mission seems to be 'to perpetuate government' and their jobs.

Again, thank you all for your indulgence. Finally, I would also like to offer my apologies to any and all that I may have offended over the years as a result of my sometimes overly driven or myopic policy passions.

May Almighty God bless this chamber, all of its Members and their families, the great State of Michigan, and the United States of America."

Rep. David Law:

"It has been an honor to serve in the Michigan House of Representatives. Serving in the same chamber that my two uncles, Gerry and Robert did is very special. It would not have been possible without the support of my family and friends. I would specifically like to thank my father, Tom Law; my mother, Sharon Law; and my sister, Julie Law. I am very blessed to have such a special family.

I am proud of the accomplishments I have achieved on behalf of the people of the great state of Michigan. I enjoyed serving on committees such as Judiciary, Commerce, and Insurance. Included among the eighteen bills I wrote that were signed into law, is Michigan's version of 'Jessica's Law' which significantly increased the penalties for sexual predators who prey on children. Also, the Medicaid Fraud Prevention Act, which roots out and punishes those criminals that are stealing from Medicaid. Others bills signed into law include:

HB 4528 (PA 35 of 05): Law to eliminate the statute of limitations for conspiracy to commit murder.

HB 5490 (PA 128 of 06) and HB 5824 (PA 130 of 06): Law to allow law enforcement to place forfeiture funds in interest bearing accounts for security purposes, and direct interest accrued towards law enforcement purposes.

HB 6075 (PA 454 of 06): A law to further secure our airports by increasing the penalties for trespassing on airport grounds.

HB 6271 (PA 544 of 06): A law to solidify the integrity of our courts by increasing the penalties for contempt of court.

These accomplishments would not have been possible without assistance of my staff. I would like to thank Mike Castiglione, Brett Visner, Mike Vogt, Pat Meyn, and Amanda Murley. The memories I have of the Legislature and the friends I made during my time here will live with me forever.

I will leave these chambers with the peace of knowing I tried to do what was right and maintain the values and integrity that my family instilled in me. The people of my district gave me a wonderful opportunity to serve them and I am forever grateful."

Rep. Cheeks entered the House Chambers.

Rep. Cheeks:

"Thank You Mr. Speaker

First and foremost I would like to thank the 90,000 people of the 42nd district. For sending me to represent them these past six years.

Next my Family - Parents Frank and Mary Jane - Brothers Michael, Daniel and Paul and their families. My Children Amy, Jennifer and Frank and their Mother Mary Beth

My new extended family Dawn, and her Children Brianna and Brendan

My incredible staff present. Jenn Putney, Lindsay Willet, and past Lindsay Whiting/Laforte now on the speakers staff, Andy McKinnon now an attorney, Sam Modlen now a Washington DC police officer

Over six years I made many friendships on both sides of the aisle - I believe if pressed I could share a personal antidote about each and every one of you. But as we are pressed for time I will not

I do need to thank my Macomb County Colleagues - Cousin Dan Acciavatti, Steve Bieda, Jack Brandenburg, Kim Meltzer, Fred Miller, Tory Rocca & My 1st term side kick Lisa Wojno.

Thank you Speaker Dillon – choosing me to lead the E & T Committee – Reeling me in when I got too far out there. But never being heavy handed or stifling the fire in my belly. You truly were the best choice for Speaker and that may have been the most important vote I cast in all the six years I have served here

Mike Nofs – For teaching me how to be Chairperson – for helping me move out of my comfort zone – helping me not only listen to those who agree with me but revealing in the growth from interacting with those who did not agree.

Detroit Caucus members past and present – who refreshed my hopes and dreams for the City of Detroit — all of you are a credit to your City.

I thought I knew everything when I got here to Lansing but what I learned was I didn't even know how much I didn't know. Thank you all for helping me learn that one never stops learning.

In parting a quote from Frank A. Clark

'If you find a path with no obstacles, it probably doesn't lead anywhere.'

Thank you it has been my pleasure to serve with you."

Rep. DeRoche:

"My friends, it has been a tremendous honor to accompany you on our quest to change Michigan for the better. As my term in the House comes to a close, I would like to offer a sincere thank you to the constituents of the 38th House District who put their great trust and confidence in me to serve them, to my caucus, who I have been honored to lead, to all the members of this chamber who sacrifice family and personal time to serve our state, and thank you to our great staff—on both sides of the aisle and the nonpartisan staff—who labor behind the scenes to help us tackle some of the most difficult challenges facing our state in generations. Thank you.

I'd also like to thank our governor. Governor Granholm - thank you for our friendship and for all that you have done for our state, and I look forward to the day our paths will cross again in the future.

This has been a challenging time for our state—but a time that has seen this body rise to the occasion to meet those challenges.

The negative sells newspapers—and I get that, but oftentimes we rise to the occasion and help sell those papers.

But on countless days throughout my six years as a member and a leader in this chamber, I have seen citizen legislators make a difference.

On these days, the Legislature proved their ability to do extraordinary things - including the work done to improve our state's education curriculum; the Michigan Promise Grant; the Higher Education funding formula; and reforms in welfare, Medicaid and our foster care system.

Let's remind ourselves that while our challenges are great—and on some days it seems like the whole world is gunning for our state—we can still do extraordinary things.

When I had the privilege of being sworn in as Speaker, I reminded my colleagues that we are the figurative decedents of Henry Ford, we are the guardians of the modern middle class, and we are the enduring legacy of that arsenal of democracy that helped save the globe from oppression and tyranny.

Ours is a proud history of accomplishment, courage, strength and ingenuity—and we all know that Michigan may be down, but she'll never be out.

Whether you will continue your service inside this chamber or out, let us all renew our commitment to serving our great state at her hour of need.

This job is a sacrifice but also a tremendous privilege—I could not be more grateful for the opportunity to serve as your Speaker, and then the Republican Leader—and I wish the best to Speaker Dillon and Leader Elsenheimer as they tackle the tough road ahead.

On a personal note—thank you to my beautiful wife Stacey. I am eternally grateful for your support and your love, for without it I could not have accomplished half of what we've done. Thank you for keeping me grounded, focused and in love. Thank you to my daughters, Carley, Zoe and Phoebe, who've grown up in the halls of the Capitol, for your support and understanding, and my parents, Anne and Paul DeRoche. Lastly, thank you to my staff, - Jim Holcomb, Jennifer Spike, Andy Anuzis, Mike Batterbee, Deena Bosworth, Babette Cook, Jason Brewer, Chris Hackbarth, Marcia Hune, Ruth Ann Jirasek, Scott Liggett, Terry Marquardt, Kate Miller, David Nyberg, Matt Resch, Cale Sauter, John Sellek, Scott Starr, Brandi Tribell, Phyllis Washburn and Shana Wycoff, and our policy and communications staffs - who have been strong leaders in advancing our ideas and our vision. I greatly appreciate everything all of you did to help further our cause.

To those who will return in January I offer my best wishes for future success. May God grant you the wisdom and strength to forge the difficult road ahead.

God Bless you and God Bless the state of Michigan."

House Resolution No. 405.

A resolution to express the sense of the House that the sentence of life without parole for those under 18 should be abolished.

(For text of resolution, see House Journal No. 65, p. 1868.)
 (The resolution was discharged from the Committee on Judiciary on December 18.)
 The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Warren moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 405.

A resolution to express the sense of the House that the sentence of life without parole for those under 18 is an important issue that requires serious consideration and deliberation by the Legislature.

Whereas, Michigan youth may be sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Such a sentence condemns the youth to a miserable and dangerous existence, and where the goal of rehabilitation is realized, does nothing to enhance public safety; and

Whereas, Sentencing youth as adults violates the core principle of the juvenile justice system, which traditionally recognizes that juveniles are less mature socially and biologically than adults, and therefore should not be held to the same standards as adults. Science, especially brain and child development studies, demonstrates that the parts of the brain that regulate aggression and impulse inhibition are not fully developed in juveniles; and

Whereas, These life sentences have extreme social and monetary costs. The opportunity for such young persons to reform and make a positive contribution to society is severely, if not completely eliminated. A life sentence for persons who are so young puts a tremendous burden on taxpayers, who must pay tens of thousands of dollars per year to house each prisoner for decades; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we express the sense of the House that the sentence of life without parole for those under 18 is an important issue that requires serious consideration and deliberation by the Legislature.

(d) The applicant states, in writing, that the rehabilitation of the qualified facility, excluding qualified retail food establishments through December 31, 2009, would not be undertaken without the applicant’s receipt of the exemption certificate.

House Resolution No. 519.

A resolution honoring the life of Kevin Kelly.

Whereas, Mr. Kelly served the 16,000-member Michigan State Medical Society (MSMS) his entire career, beginning shortly after graduating from Michigan State University in 1978, where he earned a degree in economics. After graduation, he started as a legislative coordinator in 1979. In 1987, Mr. Kelly became managing director and in 2005 was named executive director, succeeding William E. Madigan; and

Whereas, Julie L. Novak, acting executive director of MSMS said, "Kevin has been a mentor and an inspiration to many people, and his passion for life permeated everything that he did. The good fortune of knowing someone like him makes us all better people, and his influence will have a ripple effect for generations. We will miss him, but we will carry a little of him with us forever"; and

Whereas, Successes during his career at MSMS include the MSMS Future of Medicine initiative, a Michigan Patients' Bill of Rights, nation-leading medical liability reform, increased AIDS education, stabilized funding of the Medicaid program, domestic violence education, and improved end-of-life care. He also was dedicated to banning smoking in workplaces, improving childhood immunization rates, and patient safety education, among many other health care issues; and

Whereas, Mr. Kelly's seemingly limitless energy was shared with a variety of organizations outside of MSMS including: Ele's Place, the Children's Trust Fund, Michigan's Children, Capitol National Bank board of directors, Michigan Hospice Organization, Michigan Health Council, Michigan Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Alliance, Michigan Transplant Policy Center, Michigan Public Health Association, American Cancer Society, Gilda's Club, Michigan Festival, Michigan Political History Society, People's Church, MSU's Wharton Center, the Sparrow Hospital Foundation, and various advisory councils for the city of East Lansing, Lansing Community College, and Sparrow Hospital; and

Whereas, In 2004, Mr. Kelly received one of his alma mater's highest honors, the MSU Distinguished Alumni Award. In 1999, Mr. Kelly received one of the American Medical Association's highest awards, the Medical Executive Achievement Award. Other awards include: the Strategic Association Leader Award from the Michigan Society of Association Executives and the Vernice Davis Anthony Ele's Place Award recognizing his leadership of that agency's efforts to counsel grieving children. Also, most recently, on December 9, 2008, the advocacy group, Michigan's Children, named him the first recipient of the annual Kevin A. Kelly Children's Advocate Award; and

Whereas, Mr. Kelly's motto of "showing up" is "Hard on issues, soft on people." This respectful attitude toward others in public policy development garnered respect from every quarter, ally and opponent, alike; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of this legislative body honor the life of Kevin Kelly, a lifelong champion of, not only the medical community, but his local community as well; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Kelly family in the presence of our esteem.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Explanation of “No” Votes

Rep. Opsommer, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of House Bill No. 6752, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While I agree that how we fund our transportation infrastructure is critically important, this is part of a package of bills that have been brought forth this evening that have been substituted and/or amended in a manner that has not been shared with the House as a whole. In some cases, it has become evident after the fact that they are being substituted in a manner so that they actually have the opposite of the initial purpose of the bill. As such, I can not vote on a bill without knowing its true content, and I wish to thank Rep. Vagnozzi for pointing out that the majority of members are being asked to vote on these bills without knowing what they accomplish.

Before we can consider raising gas taxes, registration fees, or other hardships onto Michigan's citizens it is important that we first ensure that the equivalent of all gas tax monies be spent on road funding, and that the road funding money we generate is not being diverted for other purposes. For that reason I am in support of my bills that would create the Priority Now! Transportation fund, HB 6520, HB 6521, and HJR NNN to establish a baseline for how much transportation money we currently should be using."
