Pastor J. Douglas Paterson, Pastor of First United Methodist Church in Ann Arbor, offered the following invocation:

“O holy God, Governor of all that is and all that will be. We pause long enough at the beginning of these sessions to remember that the work of this body resides within the framework of Your movement in history. Our human laws at best are but an approximation to Your immutable law, and if our institutions are to stand, they must rest on justice, for only justice can endure. Lend, therefore Your wisdom to these men and women who represent the populace and let Your spirit of service fill their hearts.

We are blessed to live within a democracy where the people are free to speak, and where their voices can make a difference through these, their representatives.

Strengthen, then, the sense of duty in our political life. Grant that this body may feel ever more deeply that any diversion of their public powers for private ends is a betrayal of their state and country. And grant them Your vision where all are lifted up in life to work for love and liberty.

With humble hearts we pray. Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Rep. Rutledge moved that Rep. Lane be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Announcements by the Clerk

The Clerk received the following dissent on House Bill Nos. 4970, 4971, 5020, 5021 and 4736 and Senate Bill No. 390, from Rep. Irwin:

I continue to object to the use of procedural tricks to subvert the Constitutional rights of citizens to know accurately the actions of the House of Representatives. Motions for immediate effect are routinely gavelled through without even a pretense of vote counting. This motion requires support from 2/3rds of the members and there is no genuine effort to ascertain the level of support for immediate effect. I object to this practice and I object to the erroneous assertions printed in the House Journal that suggest an authentic counting of votes occurred on the House floor.

Rep. Dianda moved that the House adjourn.

The motion prevailed, the time being 2:55 p.m.

The Speaker Pro Tempore declared the House adjourned until Thursday, October 31, at 12:00 Noon.

GARY L. RANDALL
Clerk of the House of Representatives
