Pastor Mike Moses of Harvest Bible Church of Westland offered the following invocation:

We thank You, Father, Creator of heaven and earth, Lord of all things. We acknowledge You for who You are: infinite in wisdom, and majestic in power. We thank You, Lord, for all things because all things are from You and go right back to You for Your glory.

We acknowledge, Lord, that we would have nothing without You and that we would be nothing without You, so we come to you today as grateful people, humbled by all that You are. We thank You for Your Son Jesus Christ, Lord, the perfect One, the sacrifice for sins, risen from the dead. We praise You for who He is. We thank You for the many blessings that You give to us. We give You praise, recognizing You as the author of all things.

Lord, we thank You for these, Your servants. We know from Your Word, Lord, that these are Your servants here for the good of those who do right and for the reproof of those who do wrong, and so, Lord, I pray Your blessing today for a great measure of patience and wisdom and steadfastness to work toward justice and righteousness and truth. I pray for discernment for the men and women here to know what is true, to know what is good, to have the courage to fight for it, to defend those who cannot defend themselves, and to stand up for the cause of truth and justice.

Lord, I pray for their families. This is certainly a sacrificial duty, and I pray Your blessing upon their spouses and upon their children, Lord, that even as we look forward to Christmastime here, that they would have some extra time to take with their families and be a blessing to them, Lord. Have Your hand upon this time today and may You be glorified through it. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senate Resolution No. 223.

A resolution to encourage the U.S. Congress to support an investigation into Russia's computer hacking and influence in the United States presidential election.

Whereas, The United States government is built on the right of citizens to choose their leaders in free and fair elections. The right to vote and have a voice is an undeniable and inalienable right for every United States citizen; and

Whereas, Election tampering, including the deliberate release of illegally obtained materials, unduly influences voters and the information available to the free press. While cyberattacks directed at America's physical, economic, and military infrastructure are not new, interference in our election process should cause concern for every American. With a bipartisan call for an investigation underway, even U.S. Senator John McCain, R-Arizona, has said, "You can't make this issue partisan; it's just too important. A fundamental of a democracy is a free and fair election"; and

Whereas, The United States government must take every action to stop foreign powers from improperly influencing or controlling our government. In Federalist Number 68, Alexander Hamilton warned of the "...desire in foreign powers to gain an improper ascendant in our councils." Therefore, the grave threats posed by cyberattacks conducted by foreign governments must be stopped; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we encourage the U.S. Congress to support an investigation into Russia's computer hacking and influence in the United States presidential election; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.
