Rep. Jim Runestad, from the 44th District, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty God, Who has given us this good land for our heritage, we humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will.

Bless our land with compassion and eternal liberty.

Protect us from needless discord and unintended results. Defend our liberties, preserve our unity and fashion us into a body devoted to the wisdom of uniting to improve the lives of our county citizens within our constitutional framework.

Imbue us with the spirit of wisdom, prudence and fortitude so that the actions of this legislative body, to whom is entrusted the authority of governance, will strive to achieve that justice and freedom will flourish in our county.

Make us equal to our high trusts, reverent in the use of freedom, just in the exercise of power, and generous in the protection of weakness.

May wisdom, compassion and sound reason guide us with our deepest trust in Thee.

Amen.”

Rep. Singh moved that Rep. Yanez be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Garcia moved that Rep. Muxlow be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Nesbitt, Heise, Hughes and LaVoy offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 169.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to take actions necessary to help families enduring mental health crisis.

Whereas, According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, mental illness is defined as “health conditions that are characterized by alterations in thinking, mood, or behavior (or some combination thereof) associated with distress and/or impaired function.” The National Institute of Mental Health states, “while mental disorders are common in the United States, the burden of illness is particularly concentrated among those who experience disability due to serious mental illness (SMI)”;

and
Whereas, Laws, regulations, and misinterpretations frequently shut out families attempting to get effective and appropriate treatment for their loved ones in a mental health crisis. In a given year, approximately ten million Americans endure serious mental illness, such as schizophrenia, major depression, or bipolar disorder. Approximately four million Americans battle with serious mental illness do not receive treatment in a given year; and

Whereas, Families struggling with mental illness must also grapple with the likelihood that their loved one will end up in jail or prison where there is virtually no mental health treatment. There are ten times more individuals with serious mental illness in jails and prisons than in state psychiatric hospitals. Moreover, federal laws and billing policies restrict the ability of persons on Medicaid to receive high-quality inpatient and outpatient mental health treatment; and

Whereas, Current spending needs to be more focused on the most effective services and most severe mental illnesses. Passage of federal legislation like the Helping Families in Mental Health Crisis Act of 2015 (H.R. 2646), sponsored by United States Congressman Tim Murphy of Pennsylvania, would be a positive first step. The bill would create a new Assistant Secretary for Mental Health and Substance Use Disorders to coordinate funding between agencies, collect increased data on treatment outcomes, and drive evidence-based care; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to take actions necessary to help families enduring mental health crisis; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.
