Pastor John Vermilya, Lead Pastor of The Tabernacle in Buckley, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty God our Father and Lord of all,

We acknowledge You and Your divine hand upon this nation, upon our beloved state of Michigan, and for Your love and care for all her people. We thank You for Your providence, Your blessing, and for Your benign sovereignty.

God we pray and ask You for wisdom for all of our State leaders, especially those entrusted in this house as legislators. Give them strength, humility, and unity, as they collectively strive to do what is best for all our citizens. May they always stand strong in defense of our personal freedom, for justice, and to the inalienable rights which You have endowed us.

God we commit ourselves and our legislative activity to bring about both the triumph of the common good and common sense. Please guide our legislators actions as they seek to obtain the peace and prosperity of their fellow citizens. Give them the courage to do what is right, and the humility to compromise for the greater good.

God we pray and ask You for Your protection and blessing on these men and women, and their families, on both sides of the political aisle. We ask the same for their support staff persons. Where there is disagreement, teach them to do so agreeably, with honor and respect in their discourse. God please unite them around what is most important in service to the state Michigan.

May Your blessing Lord, rest on this session. May Your reign of peace be firmly established in Michigan for generations to come. Acknowledging that we may worship and pray differently, I ask all of this in the name by which I know You: Jesus Christ.

— Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Tedder, Singh, Cochran, Elder, Ellison, Faris, Green, Hoadley, Jones, Lasinski, Marino and Sneller offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 71.

A resolution to declare April 26, 2017, as Biosciences Industry Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan has a robust biosciences industry comprised of research, innovation, development, and manufacturing; and

Whereas, Michigan is home to the entire continuum of the biosciences industry, including world class academic and clinical research centers, bioscience startups, established bioscience companies, and contract research/manufacturing firms. These entities work across the agricultural/industrial/environmental, medical devices and equipment, pharmaceuticals, research and testing, and distribution and logistics sectors; and

Whereas, Michigan has 1,760 bioscience establishments, employing 44,278 individuals directly and a total of 225,348 when utilizing an employment multiplier. This ranks the state’s bio-industry in the top 15 nationally by size; and

Whereas, Michigan’s bio-industry has a strong legacy and is notable for being home to the first two U.S. pharmaceutical companies, Parke-Davis (est. 1866) and Upjohn (est. 1886), the world’s largest over-the-counter drug product manufacturer in Perrigo (est. 1887), the chemical giant Dow Chemical (est. 1897), and the medical device firm Stryker (est. 1946), along with many other global brands across the various sectors; and

Whereas, Michigan’s research institutions and bioscience companies have contributed significant discoveries and innovation including cholesterol-lowering agents, the first anti-anxiety medication, the first approved treatment for HIV/AIDS AZT, the leading chemotherapy drug cisplatin, the invention of the oscillating electric bone saw by Dr. Homer Stryker, genetically modified hybrid corn to increase crop yields, and the first and only anthrax vaccine along with many other therapies, treatments, devices, and technologies; and

Whereas, Michigan’s bio-industry is developing products and applications that are vital towards healing, feeding, and fueling the world; and

Whereas, Michigan’s bio-industry generates approximately $28 billion in revenues, and is the source of hundreds of millions of dollars in state and local tax revenue; and

Whereas, Michigan’s bioscience companies and academic research centers help create and retain jobs, spur commercialization and innovative businesses, and attract talent from around the country and the world to the state; and

Whereas, The Michigan Biosciences Industry Association, known as MichBio, is hosting a Biosciences Capitol Day on April 26, 2017, as an opportunity for the statewide biosciences community to join forces with the government to help educate about the bio-industry and engage in policy discussions that can ensure a prosperous and sustainable future; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 26, 2017, as Biosciences Industry Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize the value and importance of the biosciences industry to the state's economy and the health of its citizens.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Tedder moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 71.

A resolution to declare April 26, 2017, as Biosciences Industry Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan has a robust biosciences industry comprised of research, innovation, development, and manufacturing; and

Whereas, Michigan is home to the entire continuum of the biosciences industry, including world class academic and clinical research centers, bioscience startups, established bioscience companies, and contract research/manufacturing firms. Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 26, 2017, as Biosciences Industry Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize the value and importance of the biosciences industry to the state's economy and the health of its citizens.

The motion prevailed and the substitute (H-1) was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Durhal, Singh, Greig, Faris, Gay-Dagnogo, Moss, Wittenberg, Geiss, Greimel, Zemke, Cochran, Neeley, Sneller, Byrd, Scott, Yanez, Hertel, Chirkun, Howell, Green, Robinson, Bizon, Peterson, Lasinski, Pagan, Love, Garcia, Barrett, Glenn, Tedder, Kelly, Leutheuser, Inman, Canfield, Howrylak, Vaupel, Cox, Allor, Afendoulis, Pagel, Hoadley, Clemente, Crawford, Elder, Ellison, Jones, Schor and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 72.

A resolution to declare April 20, 2017, as Multiple Sclerosis State Action Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Multiple sclerosis can impact men and women of all ages, races, and ethnicities; and

Whereas, More than 400,000 Americans live with multiple sclerosis; and

Whereas, Every hour of every day, someone in the United States is newly diagnosed with multiple sclerosis; and

Whereas, Approximately 18,000 Michigan residents have been diagnosed with multiple sclerosis; and

Whereas, Multiple sclerosis symptoms occur when an immune system attack affects the myelin in nerve fibers of the central nervous system, damaging or destroying it and replacing it with scar tissue, thereby interfering with or preventing the transmission of nerve signals. The exact cause of multiple sclerosis is still unknown and symptoms of multiple sclerosis are unpredictable and vary from person to person. There is no diagnostic laboratory test available for multiple sclerosis. Multiple sclerosis is not genetic, contagious, or directly inherited, but studies show there are genetic factors that indicate certain individuals are susceptible to the disease. There is no known cure for multiple sclerosis; and

Whereas, The goals of Multiple Sclerosis State Action Day is to invite people to join the movement to end multiple sclerosis, encourage everyone to do something to demonstrate their commitment to moving toward a world free of multiple sclerosis, and to acknowledge those who have dedicated their time and talent to help promote multiple sclerosis research and programs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 20, 2017, as Multiple Sclerosis State Action Day in the state of Michigan. We support the goals and ideals of Multiple Sclerosis State Action Day and encourage media organizations to participate in Multiple Sclerosis State Action Day and help educate the public about multiple sclerosis; and be it further

Resolved, That this legislative body recognizes and reaffirms the commitment of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society to combat multiple sclerosis by promoting awareness about its causes and risks and by promoting new education programs, supporting research, and expanding access to medical treatment; and be it further

Resolved, That this legislative body recognizes all people in Michigan living with multiple sclerosis, expresses gratitude to their family members and friends who are a source of love and encouragement to them, and salutes the health care professionals and medical researchers who provide assistance to those so afflicted and continue to work to find cures and improve treatments; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society Michigan Chapter.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
