Pastor Charles Keller, Pastor of Diamond Cove Missionary Church in Cassopolis, offered the following invocation:

“Father God, I honor You as the creator and sustainer of life here on earth. I praise You because You are worthy of praise, You are good and You are love! I praise You that You love each one of us and even though we all fall short You have made the way of salvation for us through the blood of Jesus Christ, God the Son. Thank You that we are Your special creation and, as Your word says, we are fearfully and wonderfully made!

Lord, because You said in Psalm 91:15 that if we call You will answer and in John 14 that whatever we ask in Your name You will do, I ask that You bless each of these representatives, their families and their staff members. I pray that they would desire and seek Your righteousness above all else, that in the hour of temptation they would be strong in Your mighty power. Holy Spirit of God, place God’s armor on each leader in this building protecting them and their families and staff in every way.

Lord, Your word also says in II Corinthians 10:3-5, that we can demolish the strongholds of the enemy with divinely powerful weapons. And so, I demolish any discouragement that may be at work among these our leaders, I speak against unfair criticism in Jesus’ name. On behalf of the populous and constituency I ask You Lord for forgiveness for unkind spoken words, emails, phone calls and texts directed towards these men and women. May they receive from us instead, words of appeal and concern that are respectful, honoring, thoughtful and intelligent, which their office deserves.

Furthermore, I ask, Lord, for a spiritual cleansing of this property going back to its origin and on this building from the tip of the spire to the foundation.

Father, I love Michigan. These leaders love Michigan and work hard on its behalf and, best of all, You love Michigan. Bless all 83 counties from Wayne to Keweenaw with peace, prosperity and bountiful provision in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Rep. Greig moved that Rep. Greimel be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Leonard, Allor, Brinks, Chirkun, Cochran, Elder, Ellison, Faris, Greig, Howrylak, Hughes, Kahle, Lasinski, Liberati, Marino, Maturen, Moss, Pagan, Rendon, Sabo, Schor, Singh, Sneller, Sowerby, Wittenberg and Zemke offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 161.

A resolution to declare September 2017 as Leukodystrophy Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Leukodystrophy, sometimes referred to as white matter disease, makes up a group of rare genetic disorders that affect the central nervous system by disrupting the growth or maintenance of the myelin sheath, which insulates nerve cells in the brain; and

Whereas, Myelin, sometimes referred to as “white matter” because of its white, fatty appearance, protects and insulates the axons and consists of a protective sheath of many different molecules that include both lipids (fatty molecules) and proteins. It functions in a manner very similar to that of the protective insulation surrounding an electric wire; that is, being necessary for the rapid transmission of electrical signals between neurons. Myelin does so by containing the electrical molecules within the axons so that they are all properly transmitted to the next neuron and with a proper myelin sheath, neurons can transmit signals at speeds up to 60 meters per second; and

Whereas, Leukodystrophy damages this myelin sheath, causing a potential decrease by ten-fold or more based on this signal lost during transmission, decreasing the speed of signal transmission, and leading to significant disruption in the proper functioning of the nervous system; and

Whereas, The process of disruption in the proper functioning of the nervous system causes loss of normal function ultimately leading to severe multiple impairments and 100% dependence on caretakers; and

Whereas, Leukodystrophy is progressive, incurable, and fatal, and in many cases has taken the lives of children within a matter of months; and

Whereas, There are over 40 types of leukodystrophies, estimated to affect 1 in 7,000 people; and
Whereas, Institutions of stature continue researching many forms of leukodystrophy, looking for breakthroughs that may lead to a cure; and

Whereas, There is a lot that can be done to make life more positive for a person with leukodystrophy and their family, and having a network of support helps get through the hard times; and

Whereas, The great state of Michigan is filled with so many faithful, caring people and medical professionals that provide this network of support; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare September 2017 as Leukodystrophy Awareness Month in the state of Michigan. We honor the patients who fight this disease each and every day, and the families who support them or have lost a loved one. During this month of September, we urge greater education and awareness of this rare genetic disorder.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Barrett, Brinks, Chirkun, Elder, Ellison, Kahle, Liberati, Marino, Maturen, Rendon, Sabo, Schor, Sneller, Sowerby and Wittenberg offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 162.

A resolution to declare September 2017 as Life Insurance Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Life insurance is critically important in protecting ourselves and the people we love; and

Whereas, Every year, the insurance industry provides tremendous financial relief and security to families who have experienced the loss of a loved one; and

Whereas, Despite its vast importance, many people do not have life insurance coverage; and

Whereas, Life insurance is critically important in providing peace of mind for those affected by the loss of a loved one; and

Whereas, September 2017 has been designated as the month to generate awareness of life insurance and encourage those who are not insured to consult a qualified insurance professional and take the actions required to provide a financially secure future for their families and loved ones; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare September 2017 as Life Insurance Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Runestad, Graves, Reilly, Canfield, Bellino, Glenn, Barrett, Lucido, Kelly, Miller, Hernandez, Hornberger, Allor, Chirkun, Ellison, Kahle, Rendon and Sneller offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 163.

A resolution to declare October 1-7, 2017, as Free Speech Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States guarantees freedom of speech and assembly as inalienable rights; and

Whereas, It is the duty of public institutions to preserve and protect the basic human rights guaranteed by the United States Constitution; and

Whereas, The free speech movement emerged from the civil rights movement and became an integral part of campus communities in Michigan; and

Whereas, The expression of diverse viewpoints is basic to the process of learning. In response to the free speech movement, Michigan's public universities adopted policies to explicitly protect the rights of free expression, speech, assembly, worship, and distribution of literature; and

Whereas, To maximize liberty and learning, political discussion on campus must allow for the expression of diverse intellectual and political perspectives; and

Whereas, Violence, whether instigated by students, faculty, or outside groups, should be repudiated in the strongest possible terms. Suppressing the speech of those with whom we disagree must be eschewed in favor of meeting one argument with a better argument; and

Whereas, Michigan's institutions of higher education must recognize the constitutional rights of faculty, staff and students to participate, either as individuals or as members of groups, in the political process, supporting diverse viewpoints, candidates for public office or any other political activity; and

Whereas, Michigan's institutions of higher learning must protect the rights of all students to participate in student activities and must not withhold funding from student activities based on their policies or message (Rosenberger v. Rector and Visitors of the University of Virginia, 515 U.S. 819 (1995)); and

Whereas, The time, place, and manner of public expression on campus should be limited or regulated only by the least restrictive means and only in furtherance of a compelling governmental interest, so as to safeguard our First Amendment rights; and

Whereas, In 1989, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan struck down a speech code at the University of Michigan, whereby speech codes that broadly restrict free speech violate the First Amendment (Doe v University of Michigan: 721 F. Supp. 852 (E.D. Mich 1989)) ; and

Whereas, Protesters in Michigan have shouted down and terminated debates on college campuses, institutions in Michigan have restricted free speech to specific zones which has been challenged and resulted in legal settlements, and university policies have been critiqued as restrictive of free speech; and

Whereas, The precarious and endangered condition of free speech on Michigan's public college campuses highlights the need for all state institutions of higher education to restate and confirm their commitment to free expression in both word and policy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 1-7, 2017, as Free Speech Week in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the student governing bodies and governing boards of each of the public institutions of higher learning in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Guerra, Sabo, Pagan, Faris, Greig, Hoadley, Brinks, Camilleri, Chang, Love, Geiss, Garrett, Chirkun, Cochran, Elder, Ellison, Hughes, Liberati, Maturen, Moss, Rendon, Singh, Sneller, Sowerby, Wittenberg and Zemke offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 164.

A resolution to urge Michigan institutions of higher learning to improve policies, training, and victims' services regarding cases of sexual assault and stalking.

Whereas, College-aged women are four times more likely than any other age group to face sexual assault. It is estimated that one in five women are targets of sexual assault during the course of their college career; and

Whereas, There are many barriers to reporting, including inadequate university policies, causing the problem to remain hidden on campuses around the country. Fewer than 5 percent of actual or attempted sexual assaults are reported to campus authorities or law enforcement; and

Whereas, Schools should be adopting best practices to address sexual assault and improve the campus climate. Best practices include programs for awareness, bystander intervention, risk reduction, how to report incidents, victim's rights and options, establishment of a campus resource team to review policies, and possible oversight by a state governmental entity; and

Whereas, Many of these practices are required under federal law. Title IX of 1972 requires colleges and universities receiving federal funding to fight gender-based violence and harassment and respond to victims' needs in order to provide all students equal access to education. It requires procedures for students to file complaints and the appointment of a Title IX Coordinator to oversee this and other equity issues. Under the federal Violence Against Women Act, a 2013 amendment to the 1990 Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Police Crime Statistics Act, higher education institutions must report domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking incidents, along with sexual assaults, on campus, publicize prevention and response policies, and provide victims with clear options and support; and

Whereas, Many colleges and universities, including the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, and Grand Valley State University, have been under federal investigation for possible violations of anti-discrimination law in their handling of sexual violence reports; and

Whereas, There is no greater priority for institutions of higher learning than the safety of their students, faculty, and staff. Educational equity for women and girls requires fair, responsive, fully developed campus sexual assault policies, knowledgeable administrators, and, ultimately, an end to sexual violence on campuses; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge Michigan institutions of higher learning to

- Update policies and training regarding cases of sexual assault and stalking and mandate reporting requirements;
- Provide victims of stalking and sexual assault with written information regarding the victim's rights and options under the institution's sexual assault policy, as well as establish access for victims to free and confidential counseling and advocacy services, either on or off campus;
- Establish campus resource teams to review their policies for sexual assault cases and recommend improvements; and
- Establish training requirements regarding the handling of sexual assault cases for institution's Title IX coordinator and special police force, campus police force, or campus safety personnel and for local or state police who respond to campus incidents; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President's Council, State Universities of Michigan, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Families, Children, and Seniors.

Explanation of “No” Votes

Rep. Singh, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of House Bill No. 4892, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted against HB 4892 because of the addition of penalties levied against the local government that occurred in committee. It penalizes the taxpayers of a local jurisdiction due to a mistake made by an election official and doesn’t serve any significant policy outcome. I would have supported the bill as it was introduced.”
