Pastor Brian Ford, Pastor of Living Word Church of Ludington in Ludington, offered the following invocation:

“O Lord, we come before You today to seek after You!

Even as the Founding Fathers of our nation acknowledged their need of You and cried out to You in prayer daily, so we acknowledge our need for Your help.

For it is not man’s wisdom, but the wisdom of God which succeeds.

Psalm 127 reminds us:

Unless the Lord builds the house, They labor in vain who build it; Unless the Lord guards the city, The watchman stays awake in vain.

So Lord, we come to You today because we believe You love this great state of Michigan and You have a great plan for us.

Even as You said in the book of Jeremiah:

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.

Lord, we come seeking after You today!

We don’t pray today to fulfill a religious duty, but to seek Your will for us!

And we thank You that You promised that if we would seek You sincerely and diligently that we would find You!

Thank You, that You have a good plan for our state!

Show us, we pray, the steps which are necessary to fulfill Your plan!

Now Lord, we welcome Your presence, Your wisdom and Your guidance into this assembly.

Help every representative with Your wisdom.

May every decision made in this house be according to Your plan for our state.

And may those decisions bring righteousness, blessing and prosperity to this, the greatest state in our union!

In Jesus name, Amen!”

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 25.

A concurrent resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to expand federal tax exemptions and contribution limits for state-sponsored education savings accounts and to allow federal education funding to be deposited into student-specific education savings accounts.

Whereas, Tax-advantaged education savings accounts are crucial components to making secondary and postsecondary education affordable. The federal government offers tax incentives for state-sponsored 529 college savings plans that make it easier to save for college and other postsecondary training for a designated beneficiary. Individuals are also able to save for education expenses in tax-advantaged Coverdell Education Savings Accounts (ESAs). Like 529 plans, Coverdell ESAs offer tax-free investment growth and tax-free withdrawals when the funds are spent on qualified education expenses. However, in addition to college expenses, certain K-12 purchases are also considered qualified expenses when using a Coverdell ESA; and

Whereas, The federal tax code limits the benefits of education savings accounts. Contributions to 529 plans and Coverdell ESAs cannot be deducted from a tax filer's federal taxable income. Moreover, the total contribution to a beneficiary's Coverdell ESA is limited to $2,000 annually; and

Whereas, The Michigan Education Savings Program (MESP) is a state-sponsored, tax-advantaged 529 college savings plan that helps families and individuals plan for the cost of higher education; and

Whereas, Legislation in the state of Michigan to create the Enhanced Michigan Education Savings Program (E-MESP) would go beyond the higher education scope of current MESP plans to include K-12 and lifelong education pursuits. Interest on balance, qualified withdrawals, and contributions up to $5,000 for single filers and $10,000 for joint filers would be exempt from the Michigan income tax. Under the federal tax system, contributions to the E-MESP would continue to be subject to federal income taxes; now, therefore, be it further

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to expand federal tax exemptions for state-sponsored education savings accounts to cover contributions to those accounts and to allow them to be used for K-12 educational expenses; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge Congress to increase the annual contribution limits of Coverdell ESAs to align with the tax-exempt contribution limits found in the Enhanced Michigan Education Savings Program; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge Congress to allow federal education funding to be deposited into qualified student-specific education savings accounts; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

Rep. Liberati was named co-sponsor of the concurrent resolution.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Education Reform.
