Pastor Geraldine T. Richardson, Pastor of Maranatha Original Church of God in Battle Creek, offered the following invocation:

“Most gracious Father of mankind: It is our desire to request Your guidance and support for the individuals holding the direction of our government in their hands. It is evident that our control as it regards events, times and services is limited. Nevertheless, we are mindful of the high level of responsibility resting upon the shoulders of the occupants of each chair in the Chamber. Grant us a unified relationship as we acknowledge Your presence and listen attentively for divine direction. As we bring this session to closure, special appreciation for those who have served; as well as for those who will occupy those seats. Our first responsibility is to make sure the voices of those we serve are heard. It is the desire and responsibility to seek and provide governmental services that will enhance the lives of our constituents. This we pray in unity of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Franz to the Chair.

Rep. Singh moved that Reps. Garrett and Robinson be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

House Resolution No. 369.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Bill LaVoy.

Whereas, It is a great honor to offer the congratulations of the House of Representatives to the Honorable Bill LaVoy as he completes his service to this legislative body. He has been a powerful advocate for the people of the Seventeenth District and his thoughtfulness and determination made him an excellent representative during his time in the House; and

Whereas, Representative LaVoy learned the value of serving one’s community at an early age. His father was a judge and his mother was a principal, and their experiences pushed him to seek a career in public service after attending the University of Michigan. Before his election to the House in 2012, Representative LaVoy was the executive director of Monroe Public Access Cable Television for 14 years. He also served on the city of Monroe Airport Board, the Monroe Cable Television Committee, the Monroe Rotary, and the Monroe City-County Arts Council; and

Whereas, Representative LaVoy made education policy, the environment, and fiscal responsibility the hallmarks of his time in office. He was also a valuable member of the Agriculture, Energy and Technology, Energy Policy, and Tax Policy committees, asking important questions that benefited his colleagues and the public; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Bill LaVoy for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our entire state; and be it further

Whereas, Gretchen Driskell holds a bachelor’s degree in accounting from Lynchburg College as well as a Master of Business Administration from George Washington University. She has worked as a certified public accountant and now works in the commercial real estate field. Before coming to the Legislature, she served on the Saline City Council for six years

Whereas, Representative Farrington's tenure in the House of Representatives has been well served since 2011 by his business acumen, leadership, and his tireless effort to make Michigan a better place to work and raise a family. As chairman of the Committee on Tax Policy and the Committee on Roads and Economic Development, Representative Farrington has fought to create a business climate in this state that encourages job growth and attracts business. As a result of his steady leadership and work, Michigan's business income tax system has been reformed; personal property taxes have been reduced or eliminated; hundreds of millions of dollars will be dedicated to fixing our state's roads; and Michiganders can donate to the ALS of Michigan on their tax returns to help people suffering from Lou Gehrig's disease; now, therefore, be it

As he brings to a close his three terms of service, we are privileged to reflect on the impact that he has had on the lives of the citizens of this state; and

Whereas, Thomas Hooker was elected to the House of Representatives in 2010 after thirty-seven years of service to the Byron Center Public Schools. In addition to teaching, he was the high school football coach for over twenty years and the wrestling coach for thirty-seven years. Furthermore, as an active member of his church, he contributed to the ministry by working with at-risk youth; and

Whereas, His concern for youth and desire to help others created a natural segue to his interest in family and children's issues in the Legislature. He served as chair of the Families, Children, and Seniors Committee as well as a member of the Health Policy, Education, and Military and Veterans Affairs committees. His experiences afforded him an insight and perspective that have been invaluable to the House of Representatives; now, therefore be it

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Nesbitt moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep Bumstead:

“It’s been a great honor for me to serve the constituents of the 100th district and the great state of Michigan for the past six years. It has been a privilege to work under Speaker Cotter and Speaker Bolger, as well as Governor Snyder and the Senate. I wish the incoming Speaker Tom Leonard, his team, and all new and returning members the best of luck in the future.

It was a true honor to serve on Appropriations. From being Chair of the Appropriations Committee on Natural Resources to Appropriations Vice-Chair, we’ve done a lot in our committees over these last few years to turn this state around. I want to thank Chairman Pscholka for being the best Appropriations Chair our state has ever seen.

When I came into office, I didn’t realize how tremendous the debt was in our state. It caught a lot of us by surprise, but we made a lot of tough decisions to right the ship and get our state moving again.

I want to thank all of my family and friends for all your hard work over the years. From helping walk in parades to knocking doors, your support is greatly appreciated. I want to thank all of the lobbyists who work tirelessly behind the scenes to get things done. Your jobs are often criticized, but the work you do is invaluable. I also want to thank all of the excellent staff I’ve had over the years for all their hard work.

Finally, I want to wish Scott VanSingel the best of luck in the future. I’m confident that he will do a great job as the incoming state representative of the 100th district.

It’s been a pleasure serving the great state of Michigan, and maybe one day I will be back.”

Rep. Darany:

“I am grateful for this opportunity to speak to my colleagues for the next 45 minutes.

Just Kidding, It’ll only seem like 45 minutes.

While I was preparing these remarks and reflecting on my time here, it occurred to me that the House might be better served if we would instead give introductory speeches as we’re coming in, rather than farewell speeches as we’re leaving.

Perhaps then, we might have learned more about what we all have in common outside of politics: favorite music, top ten movies, what cars we love, our favorite Michigan vacation spot.

Maybe if you knew that I like to write songs and jingles, it could have started more conversations that would have led to friendships more quickly.

You might not know that I have written more than 100 songs and advertising jingles. You might remember this one (start singing) ‘I am stuck on Band Aid brand, cause Band Aid stuck on me.’ Well...I didn’t write THAT one. But one day I hope to write one just as catchy!

Along with getting to know each other, there’s a lot to learn when you first arrive in Lansing, both about policy and politics.

I couldn’t believe, for example, how much emphasis there would be on fund-raising.

Now, like many of you, I find it difficult to ask people for money. So when I got here, I was glad to learn that the state had already set up an account with money in it, just for me. It did seem a little strange that it had millions of dollars in it, but still, good news!

Imagine my disappointment when I learned that they were talking about THE RAINY DAY FUND, not DA RANY DAY FUND.

Anyway, I got smarter along the way. And, more importantly, I built relationships here that will be important to me for the rest of my life.

I want to thank ALL of you for being an incomparable part of my life for the past six years.

As we meet here in our final month, many of us will say goodbye to those with whom we have served on committees, argued with, and eventually worked together to do what we considered right for this great state.

We have raised our voices in frustration, and in celebration of a job well done. Those of us who are leaving, go forth as better men and women, confident that we have taken on a great task. The task of representing and giving voice to thousands of citizens who have entrusted us to do NOT what is right for ourselves, but what is right and necessary for the common good.

If I were to mention all the individuals here who have touched my life, this speech would go beyond even the 45 minutes I threatened you with earlier.

But there are some whom I can't leave this chamber without recognizing.

I've had three wonderful seatmates in my three terms here.

Steve Lindberg, my first seatmate, was a true gentleman. His guidance and friendship made my first two years very educational & enjoyable. Plus I learned a new language. (Steve was from the UP)

Ellen Cogan Lipton was my next seatmate. I chose to sit next to her because I knew she had a kind heart and was extremely smart, a Harvard grad, and I was hoping that some of that wisdom would rub off on me. Well, that didn't happen, but her love for education and her ability to work across the aisle was certainly inspiring.

That brings me to Sarah Roberts, my current seatmate. Her political insight on State and National issues is amazing. Her passion and views on education, the environment and women rights has certainly made me rethink my positions on many bills. And although I will never be as liberal as you, thank you, Sarah for making me a better legislator. More importantly, thank you for being someone I can always count on.

Bob Kosowski has been one of my best friends over the past four years. I don't know why. He has more hair, he wears nicer suits and shoes. He's a better poker player. But Bob is very easy to like. He's honest, outgoing and loves to laugh. We laughed a lot over the years. We also cried together at Julie Plawewcki's funeral and when we lost Pete Pettalia. Bob has a heart that's bigger than this chamber and I'm proud to call him my friend.

It's been said that legislators need to have their heads examined. Well, Paul Clemente actually did? Of course, Paul is fine after having emergency surgery last year. Thanks Paul, for showing legislators they have nothing to fear. Paul and I have been pals since the first day we met and I trust we will always be.

I have been blessed with an excellent staff. Kristi Schmidt joined Team Darany this year. Her enthusiasm is contagious and commitment is so appreciated. Thank you, Kristi.

Lori Die was with me for five years. I'm not sure who misses her more: me, or the residents of my district. Lori, thank you so much for all your hard work and kindness.

Then there's Bill. Bill Drake has been with me since day one. Bill always 'had my back' and definitely made me look good. His loyalty and friendship will never be forgotten. I don't know what I did to deserve Bill, but I do know will be friends forever and I thank God that he put him in my life. Thanks for everything Bill.

I need to thank my best friend Gary Woronchak who first put the thought in my head that I could run and actually win this seat. A seat he had previously held. Thanks, Gary, for believing in me.

I want to also thank my Mom, sister Theresa and her husband David who have sacrificed so much to allow me the time needed to serve my constituents well.

We all leave this House with memories that will stay with us always. One of my most treasured memories is the first bill of mine that was passed, a veterans bill in honor of my Father and those who served alongside him. It was a bill to assist veterans in securing suitable employment upon their return when their service to our country is completed.

My Dad passed away before I was elected to serve in this House. So today I hold in my hand my Dad's good conduct medal as a comfort, an inspiration, and a reminder of the true meaning of the phrase 'we must never forget.'

It has been the greatest honor to be chosen by my community to accept this responsibility, and to be chosen again to come back and continue the work that is so important.

To those of you who leave with me this year, I wish you well, reminding you to never stop viewing the world as your home, and the people as your family.

To those who are staying, I ask you to make this House a home for justice, honesty, freedom, and opportunity for every citizen of this state.

To those who are arriving for the first time, I ask you to remember that this great mission that lies before you is one of the highest honors you will ever receive. It is not a personal victory, but rather a personal mission that requires the gifts of humility, generosity, courage, and wisdom.

In his book 'Profiles in Courage,' President Kennedy said when trying to decide which way to vote on an important bill, you have to consider the three C's:

The first C is your caucus or party — what will they think or say if you vote one way or another.

The second C is your constituents — have you voted in such a way that represents them.

The final C is your conscience — will you be able to sleep at night with your decision.

Of the three C's, President Kennedy said you should always go with your conscience. Well, I believe I have voted with my conscience as a state rep. and I am proud of my record.

I leave here with great optimism and faith in my colleagues, that you will find ways to see beyond your differences, beyond party lines, and seek the will of all good people. Let this house have fewer Democrats, less Republicans and more State Reps.

These are high expectations, I know, but they are my expectations based upon six years of experience in Lansing, realizing that there is hope and goodness in everyone I have met here.

In closing, I wish to offer my support to each of you in the future. Please, never hesitate to contact me for any assistance or advice, or even if you just feel like talking.

As I prepare to leave, there is only thing that I'm sad about: And that is that I will truly miss your company.

So what will I take away from this experience?

Allow me to answer that by paraphrasing some of the great philosophers of our time... The Beatles

'And in the end, the love I take, is equal to the friends...I make'

It's been an honor to serve with you.

God Bless You

Thank you

Michigan State Representative – D”

Rep. LaVoy:

“Thank you Mr. Speaker.

As I stand here today giving my farewell address to this chamber many things are running through my mind. When most of us embark on this journey of public service, it is out of a sense of trying to help others and make the world a better place. While I believe much has been accomplished I also believe much remains to be done. So while I am now saying goodbye to this chamber, I am not giving up my commitment to public service.

This legislative session had a little bit of everything. Dealing with unexpected issues such as the Flint Water Crisis as well as the tragic deaths, expulsions and resignations of colleagues added to the challenges of what is already a difficult job.

I have several people to thank. First and foremost, my family, friends and supporters. Our families make great sacrifices for us to not only GET here, but also while we ARE here. The biggest thank you goes out to my wife, Michelle who is here today. Without her support none of this could have been possible. My two daughters, Grace age 13 and Carolyn age 8 are constant reminders of why I am here. I truly believe that good government policy is a legacy that we leave to future generations. My late mother Carolyn was an educator and my father Bill was an educator, a prosecutor and a Circuit Court Judge. Both of my parents instilled in me a sense of public service that continues this day.

This past Sunday my grandmother Margaret Rostash celebrated her 104th birthday. She is a constant source of inspiration and a reminder that through hard work and perseverance you can accomplish almost anything. She is also a reminder that we need to continue to be mindful of seniors in this state and honor the promises we have made.

To all of my colleagues. It has been an honor to serve with you. John Kivela, Representative and now Senator David Knezek and Frank Liberati to name a few. Representative Kosowski was a little harder to figure out. He mostly speaks the truth, it is just hard to figure out when. To Committee Chairs Daley, Farrington, Lauwers and Nesbitt. You have done a great job. Like him or not, I respect the way that Chairman Farrington ran Tax Policy. That is the way to run a committee.

It is also refreshing to be able to work with Representative Sheppard. We share the representation of Monroe County. He puts the politics aside which is much different from those that represented the Monroe area my first term.

Seat mates Paul Clemente and Doug Geiss from my first term and Adam Zemke this term taught me much.

None of us can do this job without the people behind the scenes. Most of my life I have been one of those people, they need to be recognized. Nothing happens without paid office staff and interns. Blane Wetzel was with me from the beginning but left this past summer to join the FBI. Amanda Hernandez, Steve James, Andrew Felder, Sarah Tylutki, Rob Brown, Caitlin Vincent, Allison Glasson, Andrew Poling, some of them are in the gallery. Thank you. There may be no greater satisfaction than helping someone start a new career. Policy Staff and Leah Wawro. Thank you. Tim Bowlin and the rest of the House business office that keeps things going. Thank you.

To the lobbyists. Thank you for educating me on the issues, even when I didn't want to listen.

I would be remiss by not thanking the voters that trusted me to be their voice over the last four years. To the residents of the 17h District. Thank you for believing in me. It has been an honor to serve you.

As I have walked through the Capitol after the election, I have been continually drawn to the unfinished portrait of Governor John Swainson. His story is a reminder of the ups and downs of politics and life in general, and the feeling of unfinished business that many of us have when we leave here, either by election results or term limits.

Speaking of unfinished business, both terms that I have served I have introduced legislation that I believe would help stem the opiate addiction problem in this state and country. Many of the recommendations of the Opiate Addiction Task Force remain unimplemented. Some are included in my current HB 4811. It is time to do more prevention and increase awareness and treatment. As Minority Vice Chair of the Energy Policy committee, I would hope that in the next few days good Energy Policy that supports Michigan jobs and Michigan power generation can be added to the list of the accomplishments of the 98th Legislature.

I leave you with a quote of a theme that has been said and pondered by many in this building. T. S. Eliot said ‘What we call the beginning is often the end. And to make an end is to make a beginning. The end is where we start from.’”

Rep. Driskell:

“Thank you for the opportunity to share my gratitude and closing thoughts as a legislator these last four years. As I’ve listened to past floor speeches this term and last, I am reminded of how little we know about each other’s personal lives. There is a fresh perspective that is offered to our fellow legislators, a place for our similarities to solidify, as we work on behalf of all of our citizens around our great state. We come from diverse backgrounds and life experiences, and so have an opportunity to create a state that reflects our diversity, as we learn from each other.

As for my bio; I am the proud mother of 3 young adults, and only one has left the state so far. He graduated from the Naval academy last spring and is studying to be a pilot in TX. I thank my children, Ryan, Matthew, and Marielle, for supporting my time in public service and for sharing our time together with so many. My 24 years of public service, of which 20 years were as a nonpartisan mayor and councilmember in Saline, comes from being raised in a family with generations of military service. The expectation that I would participate in community building, and help my fellow citizens and country in any capacity I could was ingrained early on. My parents supported my work in public service from afar, though I became an orphan in these last few years. That makes the mantle of responsibility even heavier on my shoulders.

The other relevant part of my bio is that I am not Michigan born. I came here 28 years ago with a young family. I didn’t expect to stay more than a few years but I fell in love with this magnificent state and all the inspiring people I have had the privilege to work with and for.

In 24 years I have seen a lot of change. We all know our economy is cyclical, but our core assets remain the same. We have some of the best universities in the world, a strong history of innovation and entrepreneurship, and unrivaled natural resources, especially all our water. Most importantly, we have a strong work ethic and great pride in our heritage.

However, there are some fault lines in our current state of affairs.

Our economy has picked up and our unemployment rate is 4.7%, however our employment to total population ratio is 10 percentage points below 2000, and we continue to have a net outflow of population, especially our young talent.

Our per capita income has improved since the recession but we were ranked 16th in the country in 2000, and now we are in the mid 30’s. Not only that, our kids living in poverty has increased 23% since 2006, so today almost 1 in 4 children in Michigan are living in poverty.

Finally, our public education system, the foundation for strong communities, has gone from being one of the best in the country in rankings on quality of education to the bottom ten states in the country.

Clearly there is more work to be done for all of us who call Michigan home. We know that the ability to accomplish the important goals that our citizens count on, is determined by our ability to work together.

I would like to thank all the staff that work with the legislators. We turnover as a body so frequently and in such high numbers. The continuity of good governance, of strong comprehensive policies, is difficult to develop in this environment and we couldn’t do it without you. All of the state employees, from our office staff (thank you Annika Doner and Mari Manning) to state department heads, help us do the good work for the citizens of Michigan.

I also want to thank my fellow legislators for the opportunity to learn from you, and for your commitment to work hard and be a voice for all of our citizens. No matter your background, this is not easy work. But it is important work, the lives and futures of so many are impacted by our decisions.

I truly appreciate the great friendships that have developed and I look forward to working with many of you in the future.

And most of all I would like to thank all our citizens. Those who supported me, challenged me, and taught me so much. They believe in this great state and all that we can do together.”
