Fr. Mark Sietsema, Pastor of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Lansing, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly King,

We bow our heads and hearts before You to thank You for the beautiful State that You have entrusted to our care. We praise Your glorious creative power, and we thank You:

For the grandeur of our Great Lakes;

For our fertile farmlands and orchards;

For the sylvan beauty of the Hartwick Pines and the Tunnel of Trees and all our forestlands;

For the majesty of the Tahquamenon Falls and the Au Sable River and all our waterways, harbors, and bays;

For the Big Spring Kitch-iti-kipi, the Pictured Rocks, and the lonely splendor of Isle Royale.

All-Holy Spirit and lover of humankind,

Grant wisdom from above to these our State Representatives, so that they may be faithful stewards of Michigan’s land and water and air, and loving servants of all the citizens of our State. Bless their proceedings today with peace and progress. Give these women and men a measure of Your creative power, so that they may meet every challenge with grace, and justly bear the image of Your divine glory.

For Yours it is to show mercy and to aid us, and to You we give the praise and glory; now and forever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 384 out of numerical order.

Reps. Darany, Canfield, Chirkun, Cochran, Crawford, Driskell, Faris, Geiss, Green, Greig, Hoadley, Hooker, Hovey-Wright, Kelly, LaVoy, Love, Sarah Roberts, Webber, Whiteford, Wittenberg and Yanez offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 384.

A resolution to recognize the 75th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor and declare December 7, 2016, as Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On December 7, 1941, the United States was attacked without warning at Pearl Harbor Naval Base in Hawaii by the air and naval forces of Japan. More than 2,000 sailors and airmen died during the attack and another 1,200 were wounded. A swarm of over 300 Japanese war planes descended on the U.S. naval base at Pearl Harbor in a vicious attack. The attack struck a critical blow against the U.S. Pacific fleet and drew the United States into World War II. Despite the surprise element of the attack, many American military personnel responded efficiently during the battle. The day after the bombing, President Franklin D. Roosevelt described the incident as “a date which will live in infamy;” and

Whereas, On December 7, 2016, we honor those who lost their lives 75 years ago and all veterans who have fought to preserve our freedom and democracy. There were more than 400 American planes in Hawaii that day. A total of 188 were destroyed and another 159 were damaged. In total, eight U.S. Navy battleships were damaged and four were sunk. The attack also resulted in the sinking or damaging of three cruisers, three destroyers, an anti-aircraft training ship, and one minelayer; and

Whereas, We also recognize the citizens of Michigan who answered their country’s call to service on the battlefields and in our factories. Michigan was known as the arsenal of democracy as factories were quickly converted for the production of war supplies; and

Whereas, The events of December 7, 1941, remain upon the memories of the citizens of the state of Michigan, as well as our great nation. The American contribution to the successful Allied war effort spanned four long years and cost more than 400,000 American lives. We remember those who died at Pearl Harbor through their deeds, their devotion to duty, and their willingness to fight for freedom. May this recollection serve not just as a symbol of American valor and bravery, but also as the determination of all Americans in preserving freedom; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body recognize the 75th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor and declare December 7, 2016, as Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan. We commend all those who fought and those who continue to make sure that their sacrifices are never forgotten.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 387 out of numerical order.

Reps. Glenn, Afendoulis, Glardon, Sheppard, Tedder, Singh, Talabi, Lucido, VerHeulen, Leonard, LaFontaine, Lyons, Hughes, Cole, Chatfield, Johnson, Graves, Green, Aaron Miller, McBroom, Barrett, Rutledge, Kesto, Brunner, Runestad, Leutheuser, Lauwers, Cox, Garcia, Iden, Santana, LaVoy, Guerra, Kosowski, Vaupel, Jenkins, Canfield, Kelly, Bumstead, Dianda, Potvin, Love, Chirkun, Cochran, Crawford, Darany, Driskell, Faris, Geiss, Greig, Hoadley, Hooker, Sarah Roberts, Webber, Whiteford, Wittenberg and Yanez offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 387.

A resolution to declare December 4-10, 2016, as Pearl Harbor Remembrance Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On “December 7th, 1941, a Date Which Will Live in Infamy,” said President Franklin D. Roosevelt, “the United States of America was suddenly and deliberately attacked by naval and air forces of the Empire of Japan”; and

Whereas, This date marked the entry of the United States into World War II, a conflict whose outcome has shaped the world in which we grew up and live today, three quarters of a century later; and

Whereas, We who live in the relative peace and security of America in the 21st century owe an immeasurable debt of gratitude to those millions of men and women who served our country in uniform throughout that costly conflict. Among them are the parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents who raised many of us here today, but also the over 400,000 Americans who on foreign fields of battle gave the ultimate sacrifice. Had they survived, the lives of generations of their descendants who would have followed and would live among us today; and

Whereas, 2016 marks the 75th anniversary of that “Date Which Will Live in Infamy”; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare December 4-10, 2016, as Pearl Harbor Remembrance Week in the state of Michigan. We honor and salute the nearly 13,000 citizens of Michigan who were casualties of World War II, including at least 31 Marine and Navy personnel from Michigan who died in Pearl Harbor 75 years ago. Bronze Star winner and former United States Army Sgt. Don Bloomfield of Midland is one of Michigan’s last known survivors of the attack on Pearl Harbor.

House Resolution No. 376.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Paul Clemente.

Whereas, It is a privilege to honor Representative Paul Clemente as his time in the Michigan House of Representatives comes to an end. His service and leadership in this legislative body will be sorely missed; and

Whereas, Paul Clemente brought a wealth of knowledge and business experience to the Michigan Legislature. A graduate of the University of Michigan-Dearborn, he returned home to the Downriver district to build a career. It is here that his business background and financial expertise developed and flourished as manager and co-owner of the family business founded by his parents and working as a certified public accountant; and

Whereas, Representative Clemente was first elected to the House of Representatives in 2010, where he worked tirelessly on behalf of the citizens of the Fourteenth District. His background in accounting and small business paid dividends for his work on the Financial Services, Insurance, and Tax Policy committees. During his time in the Legislature, Representative Clemente pursued policies that advanced the economic well-being of Michiganders, made Michigan more attractive to new businesses, improved fiscal accountability, reformed state school funding, and honored and supported our veterans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Paul Clemente for his service and contributions to this legislative body; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Clemente as evidence of our esteem and best wishes.

House Resolution No. 377.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Marcia Hovey-Wright.

Whereas, As she brings to a close her distinguished career in the House of Representatives, we express our appreciation to Representative Marcia Hovey-Wright. During her terms as a representative of the Ninety-second District, she has been a stalwart for Michigan's families and children; and

Whereas, Marcia Hovey-Wright has a long and exemplary record of career and community service work in the area of human services. A licensed psychotherapist and licensed social worker, she dedicated her life's work to helping families and children in Muskegon and throughout Michigan; and

Whereas, Since her election to the House of Representatives in 2010, Representative Hovey-Wright has been a tireless voice on behalf of the voiceless in Michigan as a member of the Families, Children, and Seniors Committee, where she served as minority vice chair. She was also a member of the Criminal Justice Committee and the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules; now, therefore, be it

House Resolution No. 378.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Jeff Irwin.

Whereas, It is a great pleasure to extend the heartfelt gratitude of the House of Representatives to the Honorable Jeff Irwin upon the completion of his term in this legislative body. He has been a passionate and trustworthy advocate for the people of the Fifty-third District since arriving in the House in 2011; and

Whereas, Representative Irwin's interest in improving Michigan began long before he was elected to the House of Representatives in 2010. After graduating from the University of Michigan, Representative Irwin devoted his attention to the environment through his work for the League of Conservation Voters. He also spent time as a legislative staffer and was later elected to the Washtenaw County Commission, serving 11 years, including two as the commission chair; and

Whereas, Representative Irwin's experience working on both sides of the policy-making process led him to take an active role in the Legislature during his six years in office. His curiosity and inquisitive approach at committee hearings provided the House with valuable information and called attention to important issues. During the course of his three terms, Representative Irwin served on the Appropriations, Elections, Energy and Technology, Financial Liability Reform, and Judiciary committees; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to congratulate and commend the Honorable Jeff Irwin for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our entire state; and be it further

House Resolution No. 379.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Nancy Jenkins.

Whereas, With the completion of her third term in the Michigan House of Representatives, it is most appropriate for us to commend Representative Nancy Jenkins and to express our gratitude for her contributions to this legislative body. Her diligence in identifying and acting on the needs of the Fifty-seventh District, comprising most of Lenawee County, and her thoughtful approach to the challenges facing our state have been deeply appreciated; and

Whereas, After earning an undergraduate degree from Evangel University and a master's degree from the University of Toledo, Nancy served as a real estate title examiner. She has also worked in public relations, as a research assistant for the Michigan Family Forum in Lansing, and as a district representative for former State Senator Cameron Brown. Representative Jenkins brought these experiences and insights to Lansing and the Capitol following her election in November 2010; and

Whereas, Representative Jenkins has distinguished herself as a strong fiscal conservative committed to policies that can strengthen Michigan's economy. Her work in the House has been highlighted by her leadership on the House Appropriations Committee. She has served as chair of the subcommittees on Military and Veterans Affairs, Agriculture and Rural Development, and Joint Capital Outlay and as a member of the Judiciary, State Police, and Natural Resources subcommittees. House Resolution No. 381.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Marilyn Lane.

Whereas, On the occasion of her retirement from the Michigan House of Representatives, the members of this legislative body deem it a great honor to congratulate Representative Marilyn Lane after six years of service; and

Whereas, As a business development officer and mayor, Marilyn Lane worked to help attract investment, grow businesses, and create jobs in the Thirty-first District, even before she was elected to the House of Representatives in 2010. She also served as vice chair of the Macomb Charter Commission and found time to serve charitable organizations such as Women Build-Habitat for Humanity, the Clinton Township Optimist Club, and the Henry Ford Macomb Hospital Ambassador Club; and

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of gratitude to commend and thank the Honorable Paul Muxlow for his notable contribution to this legislative body and our entire state; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Muxlow as a token of our esteem and best wishes.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Greig, Canfield, Chirkun, Cochran, Darany, Driskell, Faris, Geiss, Green, Hoadley, Hovey-Wright, Kelly, LaVoy, Love, Sarah Roberts, Wittenberg and Yanez offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 385.

A resolution to declare December 5-11, 2016, as Computer Science Education Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Computing technology has become an integral part of culture and is transforming how people interact with each other and the world around them. Computer science is transforming industry, creating new fields of commerce, driving innovation in all fields of science, and bolstering productivity in established economic sectors; and

Whereas, The field of computer science underpins the information technology sector of our economy, which is a significant contributor to United States economic output. The information technology sector is uniquely positioned to help with economic growth through the research and development of new innovations; and

Whereas, National Computer Science Education Week can inform students, teachers, parents, and the general public about the crucial role that computer science plays in transforming our society and how computer science enables innovation in all science, technology, engineering, and mathematics disciplines and creates economic opportunities; and

Whereas, Providing students the chance to participate in high-quality computer science activities, including through science scholarships, exposes them to the rich opportunities the field offers and provides critical thinking skills that will serve them throughout their lives. All students deserve a thorough preparation in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics education, including access to the qualified teachers, technology, and age-appropriate curriculum needed to learn computer science at the elementary and secondary levels of education. These subjects provide the critical foundation to master the skills demanded by our 21st century workforce; and

Whereas, Computer science education has challenges to address, including distinguishing computer science from technology literacy and providing adequate professional development for computer science teachers. The field of computer science has significant equity barriers to address, including attracting more participation by females and underrepresented minorities to all levels and branches; and

Whereas, Grace Murray Hopper, one of the first females in the field of computer science, engineered new programming languages and pioneered standards for computer systems which laid the foundation for many advancements in computer science. The week of December 5th, in honor of Grace Hopper's birthday, is designated as "National Computer Science Education Week"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare December 5-11, 2016, Computer Science Education Week in the state of Michigan. We encourage schools, teachers, researchers, universities, and policymakers to identify mechanisms for teachers to receive cutting edge professional development to provide sustainable learning experiences in computer science at all educational levels and encourage students to be exposed to computer science concepts; support opportunities, including through existing programs, for females and underrepresented minorities in computer science; and seek research in computer science to address what would motivate increased participation in this field.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Zemke, LaGrand, Chirkun, Chang, Pagan, Greig, Hoadley, Singh, Wittenberg, Love, Hovey-Wright, Crawford, Brinks, Howrylak, LaVoy, Canfield, Cochran, Darany, Driskell, Geiss, Green, Hooker and Kelly offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 386.

A resolution to condemn state-sanctioned, forced organ harvesting from prisoners of conscience in the People's Republic of China, urge action by the President of the United States and the U.S. medical community, and demand an end to the persecution of Falun Gong practitioners.

Whereas, When performed in accordance with ethical standards, the medical discipline of organ transplantation is one of the great achievements of modern medicine. Organ transplantation depends on altruistic organ donation, which is based on the free, voluntary, and informed consent of the donor; and

Whereas, International medical organizations state that prisoners, deprived of their freedom, are not in the position to give free consent and that the practice of sourcing organs from prisoners is a violation of ethical guidelines in medicine; and

Whereas, The organ transplantation system in China does not comply with the World Health Organization's requirement of transparency and traceability in organ procurement pathways; and

Whereas, The United States Department of State Country Report on Human Rights for China for 2014 stated, "Advocacy groups continued to report instances of organ harvesting from prisoners"; and

Whereas, Falun Gong, a spiritual practice involving meditative "qigong" exercise and centered on the values of truthfulness, compassion, and tolerance, became immensely popular in the 1990s; and

Whereas, In July 1999, the Chinese Communist Party launched an intensive, nationwide persecution designed to eradicate the spiritual practice of Falun Gong, reflecting the party's long-standing intolerance of large independent civil society groups. Since 1999, hundreds of thousands of Falun Gong practitioners have been detained extra-legally in re-education-through-labor camps, detention centers, and prisons, where torture and abuse are routine; and

Whereas, Freedom House reported in 2015 that Falun Gong practitioners comprise the largest portion of "prisoners of conscience" in China and face an elevated risk of dying or being killed in custody; and

Whereas, In 2006, Canadian researchers David Matas, human rights attorney, and David Kilgour, the former Canadian Secretary of State for Asia-Pacific, conducted an independent investigation into allegations of organ harvesting from Falun Gong prisoners in China and concluded that Falun Gong practitioners being killed for their organs was highly probable. Matas and Kilgour implicated state and party entities in illicit organ harvesting, including domestic security services and military hospitals; and

Whereas, The United Nations Committee Against Torture and the Special Rapporteur on Torture have expressed concern over the allegations of organ harvesting from Falun Gong prisoners, and have called on the government of the People's Republic of China to increase accountability and transparency in the organ transplant system and punish those responsible for abuses; and

Whereas, Kilgour, Matas, and investigative journalist Ethan Gutmann released a report on June 22, 2016, that estimates that the number of organ transplants in China far exceeds official Chinese government statistics, with 60,000 to 100,000 transplants being conducted annually since the year 2000. The source for most of the massive volume of organs for transplants is the killing of prisoners of conscience, primarily targeting Falun Gong practitioners; and

Whereas, The killing of religious or political prisoners for the purpose of selling their organs for transplant is an egregious and intolerable violation of the fundamental right to life; and

Whereas, In September 2012, experts testified before the House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee that United States patients continue to travel to China for organ transplants and that the medical community continues cooperation and training with Chinese colleagues, creating the risk that they may be indirectly aiding abusive practices; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we:

1. Condemn the practice of state-sanctioned forced organ harvesting in the People's Republic of China;
2. Call on the government of the People's Republic of China and Communist Party of China to immediately end the practice of organ harvesting from all prisoners of conscience;
3. Demand an immediate end to the 17-year persecution of the Falun Gong spiritual practice by the government of the People's Republic of China and the Communist Party of China, and the immediate release of all Falun Gong practitioners and other prisoners of conscience;
4. Encourage the United States medical community to help raise awareness of unethical organ transplant practices in China; and
5. Urge the President of the United States to undertake a full and transparent investigation by the United States Department of State into organ transplant practices in the People's Republic of China and put up appropriate barriers to prevent U.S. citizens from getting these organs; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States and the United States Department of State, members of the Michigan congressional delegation, and the American Medical Association.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Reps. Inman, Cochran, Darany, Driskell, LaVoy, Sarah Roberts and Yanez offered the following concurrent resolution:
House Concurrent Resolution No. 29.

A concurrent resolution to urge the United States Congress to expand the small wine producer tax credit and reduce the federal excise tax on wine.

Whereas, The wine industry in Michigan is a significant economic contributor. Each year, the state's wine industry contributes more than $300 million in total economic value to Michigan's economy and accounts for more than 3,000 jobs across the state. In 2015, Michigan's wineries produced 2.3 million gallons of wine on 13,700 acres of vineyards, making Michigan the 8th largest producer of wine by gallon; and

Whereas, The wine industry in the United States is an integral component of our nation's economy. It is estimated that the industry is responsible for $5 billion in economic output, which provides job opportunities for over 50,000 people. American wineries account for 8 percent of the world's wine production, and in 2014, American wineries shipped 478 million cases around the world; and

Whereas, The burden of federal excise taxes on wine handicaps the growth of the industry. Each year, the federal government receives billions in tax revenue from the wine industry, and this tax encumbers the industry's ability to reach its fullest potential. Additionally, the burden of this tax undermines the effort of wineries to grow and strengthen their business by capturing capital that otherwise could be strategically invested in their operation; and

Whereas, A reduction in the excise tax on wine is needed in the United States. Enacting legislation like the Wine Excise Tax Modernization Act of 2016 would level the playing field for wineries and encourage growth and innovation. Through common sense changes to the tax code, including the expansion of the tax credit for small- and mid-sized producers and the elimination of the excise tax on champagne and sparkling wine, industry growth can be accelerated. These measures would encourage growth in Michigan's wine industry and the whole of Michigan's economy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we urge the United States Congress to expand the small wine producer tax credit and reduce the federal excise tax on wine; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, members of the Congressional Wine Caucus, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Regulatory Reform.

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Yonker moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Hovey-Wright:

“Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

My colleagues, let me begin by saying thank you. It has been an honor to serve beside people who I have come to respect and like – individuals who are equally dedicated to working for the best interest of our state and its residents, even when we are not in agreement.

It has been my great privilege to serve the people of the 92nd District, and I am forever grateful for the opportunity to be their voice in Lansing these past six years.

There are many people in my life that made this all possible, starting with my husband, Bill Wright. He was the wind beneath my wings, encouraging me, being a sounding board and my moral compass. And he was my campaign manager when I ran and lost the first time and when I won the second time. Bill was known as the best campaign manager in Muskegon County. He often said that being a State rep was the best fit of any job I ever had. Thank you Bill for making this all possible.

Thank you in particular to all of you for your kindness, reaching out, your hugs, cards, flowers and Zingerman’s basket regarding the loss of my husband.

Some of you remember Margo Williams, who was a key player in both campaigns as well and my staffer for the first 1 and 1/2 years. She was a loyal friend and truly great human being and kept our campaign connected to those who needed help the most. She too passed away in my second term.

My women’s group who have been getting together since the mid 70’s nearly every two weeks, who are in the Gallery today, have always been there for me and are like sisters. You were introduced to our gourmet group last week. They all have participated in my campaigns, and supported me in so many ways.

I feel so fortunate to have really talented and dedicated staff, particularly this term. Greg McCullough, a 25 year veteran in the House, keeps legislation moving, keeps me organized, prepared and out of trouble. He will be the legislative Director for my successor as well, Terry Sabo. He will be fortunate to have his expertise and experience. Kara Spencer is so smart and knowledgeable and totally dedicated to advancing issues of importance to women in Michigan. Her commitment to women’s issues knows no bounds. In addition Kara has been brilliant in attracting and supervising interns from Michigan State to research and develop legislation advancing the cause of women. Both Greg and Kara provide exceptional service to the constituents of the 92nd District as well.

Barbara Wieland has been my writer – she knows me like a book and I very much appreciate her work on my behalf. Thank you to our policy staff especially for Families Children and Seniors, Coffiann Hawthorne, Mitch Albers and others.

Noelle Lufkin was a very smart and self-directed Social Work Grad school intern from Grand Valley made her mark by spearheading my Foster Child Bill of Rights package, which passed the House and last week passed Senate committee on families. We hope to pass it in the final days of lame duck so foster children in Michigan will have the rights every child deserves.

I have been very fortunate to have had wonderful seatmates. Rep. Rashida Tlaib was a powerhouse and model for amazing community organizing. Dian Slavens was a quiet but effective force and a good and loyal friend. And Leslie Love too has been a source of humor, a model for dedication to her district, a leader and a good friend,

I celebrate the success of Sam Singh as Floor leader and now Minority Leader and appreciate his support of women’s issues and our women’s caucus and of Chris Greig who will be great floor leader. Thank you to Rep Winnie Brinks for organizing the Democratic Power Hours to educate us on the issues of the day.

A special thanks to former Rep. Joe Haveman, who shared my passion for criminal justice reform and helped me get appointed to the Criminal Justice committee. Chair of Families Children and Seniors, where I was minority vice chair, Rep. Hooker was always a gentleman, though we certainly were on different sides of the fence on many issues. And Criminal Justice Chair Heise was fair and even made sure I got one of the HYDA bills, reducing the prison time and focusing on rehabilitation for many youth offenders in our system.

Former Representatives I call friends and who have been mentors for me include, Rep. Joan Bauer, forever the lady and dedicated to serving her constituents, Rep. Vicki Barnett, brilliant and a strong advocate for progressive issues and Rep Ellen Cogan Lipton, also brilliant and dedicated to saving and preserving public education. It was great to know Steve Lindberg, a truly honorable public servant who found a new calling taking stellar pictures of the birds and animals of the UP for his facebook friends.

Thank you to Senator Geoff Hansen who worked hard on the Detroit schools and always kept the best interests of the children foremost. I consider Geoff a friend and a strong advocate for the district. Thank you to Kathy Crawford, who shares my concern for seniors, to Senator Bieda who helped me learn how to get bills through, to both Fred Durhals for their friendship, to Jon Hoadley and Robert Wittenberg, Frank Liberati and Rudy Hobbs for being good huggers and just fun to be around. Jeff Irwin, I envy your knowledge of the issues, verbal fluency and progressive thinking.

To the lobby corps, I treasure your friendships and support over my 3 terms. In a state of strict term limits, you are essential for educating us on issues you represent, being honest about those in opposition, most of the time, anyway.

I would like to share the few things I am proud of in my time at State Representative.

Legislatively I would have to start with the Foster Child Bill of Rights package (HB 4976, 4977 and 4978) shared by Reps Darany and Runestad. Hopefully after a Senate floor vote, they will come back here with some minor changes. Though they codify new DHHS policy, Michigan will become a model for providing the most comprehensive rights of any state for foster children. I am very proud of the work done by our office and for the support of my colleagues for this bipartisan package.

The HYTA bill of course (HB 4169) reforming the way we treat youthful offenders, was part of a movement to reform the criminal justice system, an effort that is the right thing to do and saves tax dollars as well. Michigan needs to continue in this direction.

I am proud that our office provides timely and very effective constituent service, thanks to my great staff. I have worked hard, tried to be well prepared and been very engaged in the 92nd District. In particular, I am proud of being awarded the legislator of the year by NASW and NOW and the first recipient of the True Blue Award of the Second congressional district.

I have a message for the 99th Legislature. Public Education is the foundation of our democracy. In the mid 70's Michigan's public schools used to be among the best in the nation, but in the recent past they have come under attack. Reforms have caused good teachers to flee Michigan to other states where they are treated better and appreciated. We are experiencing a shortage and have resorted to using uncertified teachers. I experienced first-hand in Muskegon Heights how the state takeover and privatization has made some headway in improving financial management, but academic performance has suffered greatly while a proud community fights for survival. Please find a way to help struggling districts succeed with local control rather than dismantling and destroying a struggling community.

As I review my 6 years in the legislature, the best legislation was developed in a bipartisan manner – binding arbitration, the Detroit bankruptcy and Medicaid expansion. The challenge of the 99th legislature will be to approach MPSRS and municipal health care issues the same bipartisan way.

I look forward to continuing to work from outside this body, to advance the work that was started here on behalf of the women, children and families of Michigan. We have much to do in our state, and will need the continued dedication of the members of the Michigan Legislature to give all residents of our state the opportunity to grow and prosper.

This is a challenging time – both for our nation and our state. But I have faith in the members of this body and in our fellow Michiganders. And I remain an optimistic that our best days are still ahead.

I face a future of unknowns in my life, but am looking forward to the future as I need some time to figure out ways to use my strengths to make a difference. Until recently I could not make any plans, because of my husband's health. I am hopeful that I will find a life of meaning and joy with the support of family and friends as I go forward.

I started my career in the Peace Corps in West Africa in 1968. I close this chapter of my life in the State Legislature 48 years later. Both jobs have been 'the best job I ever loved'.

Farewell and I thank all of you. I thank all of my colleagues for making my service in the people's House meaningful and this next chapter in my life hopeful."

Rep. Jenkins:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker:

What an incredible experience! Whoever said 'Your six years in office will go fast,' weren't kidding. Just when you think you're starting to figure it out, when your networks begin to click, when connections become friends, when you don't get lost trying to find your committee room on the 3rd floor of the HOB, it's time to go.

Because we're granted a short amount of time and we have so much to learn, we all know that being a State Representative is something we can't do alone. There are so many people who stand behind us and hold us up. Without them, we couldn't do our jobs. To them, I want to say thank you.

To my family (who's here in the gallery today): You've gone on this wild ride with me. From the minute I suggested I might run, you were on board. Mom, dad, and James, you were my number one campaigners. You matched me door for door, you were in every parade, and you were my biggest encouragers through thick and thin. Karen, though you live in Alaska, you supported me at every point, even surprising me with a visit just before my first election. I couldn't have done it without your love and support. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!

To the people of the 57th District: Thank you for believing in me. You took a chance on someone who would rather work quietly behind the scenes, but who after watching frustratingly year after year as our state sank deeper and deeper into the lost decade, decided she'd had enough. When I stepped out and said I'd like an opportunity to make a difference, you gave me that opportunity. It's never easy to change course, and making the reforms that needed to be made in our state were difficult, but you hung in there with me. The renewed optimism I see in Lenawee does me good. I know we were able to make a difference together.

To the people who work behind the scenes, who keep us safe, who make sure our sessions and our committees run smoothly, who make sure we have the correct information for leading and making decisions, who help us become better communicators, who provide us with an incredibly beautiful place to work, and who make sure we have what we need: the clerks, the sergeants, policy staff, House Fiscal, communications staff, the facilities guys. You have been great! Thank you!

To my staff, Jeanne Laimon, Lauren Stewert, Mike Witkowski, Andy Buss, Hannah Loop, Aaron Porter, and Morgan Pickering, I want to publicly say how much I appreciate you. As a former staffer, I know what it's like to work tirelessly on legislation or on behalf of a constituent, only to see your boss get the credit. You work hard every day so that I can look good. I am proud, not only to call you staffers, but also to call you friends. Thanks...it has meant a lot.

To my fellow legislators on both sides of the aisle, my fellow laborers and friends: We were 110 out of 10 million in Michigan, elected and chosen to serve. It has been an honor to work alongside of you. To hear the debates, to witness the struggles and frustrations, to read your legislative ideas, to work together with you to craft proposals into something that will lead Michigan forward. It is an honor to be numbered among you.

To my classmates: I remember the first caucus we had as a freshman class. Sitting nervously in a room full of people who I was sure were much smarter than me, I wondered how in the world I got there, and wondered what I was going to do now that I was. I soon found that we were united in our determination to make a difference in Michigan. Like me, you were tired of the status quo. We were the class that said, 'enough is enough.' We set to work as a team and accomplished great things. I am proud to be a member of the class that pulled Michigan out of the great recession and put it on track toward prosperity.

To lasting friendships (I could be here all day, but I'll just highlight a few):

Ken Kurtz and Jim Stamas: I appreciate your mentoring and encouragement. You were there when I needed a shoulder to cry on, and just the right words to get me back out into the fight.

Amanda Price: I've enjoyed getting to know you as we explored Mackinaw Island, climbed to the top, and underneath the Mackinaw Bridge, attended conferences together, and hunted for great finds in thrift stores.

Ken Yonker: I'll always laugh at your jokes, maybe not the punchline, but how you tried to get to the punchline (can anyone say Rolodex?).

Bruce Rendon: Thank you for always watching out for me and having me on your list of dinner invitees.

Frank Foster, Mike Shirkey, and Hank Vaupel: my seat mates, it was fun getting to know you! It was impossible to keep track of Frank. Invariably his was one of the last names on the board to vote. With staff frantically looking for him, they would come to me. I finally began to ask, 'Am I my seat mate's keeper?' Then there was Mike who worked diligently on issues at his seat, but would just as quickly leave during long sessions to join Earl, Al, Ed and others in singing Christmas carols around the piano in the rotunda. And Hank, it's been fun getting to know you, your family and your district through our talks. And once or twice, I've taken advantage of having a veterinarian as a seat mate. Thanks for the advice!

Photo Phil: You've given us all lasting memories that we can take with us. My photo albums are filled with the pictures you've taken, Thank you!

Joe Graves: (I hesitate to include him in this section) He's always giving me grief! All I can say is don't believe a word he says. Amanda Price and I have tried to keep him in line during Caucus, but after this, you guys are on your own. Good luck!

Deb Shaunessy and Amanda Fisher: You offered me not only a room to stay in on snowy nights, but friendships that will last. Thank you.

To the families and districts of those we lost: Thank you for sharing Julie Plawecki and Peter Pettalia with us. It is hard to believe that in just a few months' time we lost these two precious people from our midst. While I didn't know Julie well, I was impressed by her passion to make a difference in the State of Michigan.

And Peter: He was a fierce advocate for his district, and a friend to everyone. His jolly smile and pat on the back would brighten anyone's day. He lightened tense moments with a quip and helped to bring us back to reality with a laugh. Together we founded the Ice Cream Caucus, but were only able to hold one event. Ice cream lovers, I hope you will take up the cause! It's always a good day for ice cream!

Being a member of the Michigan House of Representatives has been an experience of a lifetime! An experience I never dreamed I'd have, but one that started in high school when I prayed a simple prayer telling God I'd do whatever it was he wanted me to do. Little did I know how that prayer would transform my life. Representing the 57th District has been an awesome responsibility and an incredible honor I never took lightly, and will never forget. It's amazing to see ideas brought by constituents back home made into law. It's incredible to watch as legislation passed gets put into action. It's humbling to know that my small part has made a difference. But as great as these things are, the most treasured thing I walk away with is the friendships I've made along the way. Each one of you has made a mark on my life, and for that I will be forever grateful.

May God bless you. May God bless the great state of Michigan, and may God bless the United States of America."

Rep. Lane:

“Abraham Lincoln said, ‘In the end, it’s not the years of your life that count, it’s the life in your years.’

As I reflect on my six years with the Michigan Legislature, the friendships I’ve made come to the forefront of my mind. It’s been a pleasure getting to know all of you while working in service to the people of our state.

There’s an old saying that if you love what you do, it will never feel like work. That applies perfectly to my time in Lansing; I can honestly say that I was always happy to be here.

There are so many people who helped make my time with the House so memorable, and so enjoyable.

First off, I want to thank my husband Jim, my daughter Pamela and her husband, Ian, my grandson Jameson, and my mom and dad who are looking down on us from Heaven, for all the unconditional love and support they’ve blessed me with. They are the ones who have made it possible for me to follow my dreams.

To my Godfather Gary D’Alessandro, Gary Roncelli and Roseanne; thank you for always believing in me.

To Frank Surmann and John Fleming: you have been like family to me. Both of you have been with me since day one, which is rare around here. Your amazing talents, devotion, and sincere loyalty to myself and District 31 has been the best gift, and I will treasure it forever. I look forward to meeting across the hall.

Chris, Lizzy, Sam, Eric and many interns: you have all played an important role in making our office one-of-a-kind. Thank you for all your hard work.

Thank you to Rep. Faris, my current seat mate. Pam is really a class act, and a genuinely kind-hearted woman who I’ve loved getting to know. Through the time we spent exchanging stories about our grandkids, cabin shopping for our family’s holiday houses, and just talking politics, it’s been a pleasure getting to know you, Pam; I can’t tell you how much I’ve appreciated your friendship.

I also have to mention my last seat mate, Rep. Stapleton, who brought so much laughter with her, and whose singing brought calm in the most stressful moments.

There are so many more people I need to thank: Rich Brown and Gary Randall, as well as their staff, and policy on both sides, for everything they do to keep us on track;

Tim Bowlin and his office, which I’d say has to be the best-run office in Lansing;

All of the lobby corps.—I’m so glad for all the great friendships I’ve made with so many of you; I wish I had enough time to name all of you individually, but I’m sure you know who you are;

Sergeant Dickson and all of the other sergeants who always have our backs and come in every day to keep us safe;

Alice, you are the glue here, and I have to thank you for always taking care of all of us.

Thank you to Rep. Greimel and Rep. Singh for all your impeccable guidance and leadership.

To Governor Snyder, Lt. Gov. Calley, Speakers Cotter and Bolger, and Majority Floor Leaders Nesbitt and Stamas: I know we didn’t always see eye to eye, but I’ve always appreciated your willingness to discuss the issues, and it’s been a pleasure serving with all of you.

I want to thank First Lady Sue Snyder for the opportunity to co-chair her task force on sexual assault and protect college students across the state.

To Todd Cook and Sally Durfee, you have both been so helpful in sharing all of your knowledge and helping me navigate the complexities of serving here.

I remain grateful to my late friend Rep. Pettalia, who was always a pleasure to work with on the transportation committee. Pete was a good friend, and I’ve missed him very much.

Thanks to my friends Reps. Dianda and Outman, both of whom I would highly recommend as official Northern Michigan travel guides.

To my colleagues in the Macomb delegation: you all represent the best of what our Macomb community has to offer, and it has been an honor and a privilege to serve with each and every one of you. I’m so glad to have had the opportunity to stand together in service to the people of Macomb; from the bottom of my heart, thank you.

And finally, I have to thank all the people of the thirty-first House District for choosing me as their representative. Serving as the voice of my community was so much more than a job or a responsibility—it was a privilege. I have nothing but the sincerest gratitude to everyone who supported me, and to all my friends and neighbors who kept in touch with me over the years, always calling in and writing to share ideas and input.

I could go on for hours talking about all the people who have touched my life and made me smile while serving here, but clearly we have work to do today. So in closing, I’ll leave you with another famous saying—one most often attributed to A. A. Milne, author of Winnie the Pooh—which goes ‘How lucky I am to have had something that makes saying goodbye so hard.’

Thank you, everyone; this has been a dream come true.”

Rep. Irwin:

“Thank you to my family, without whom I wouldn’t be here.

Thank you to my capable and diligent staff, who fill in my many deficiencies.

Finally, thank you to my constituents, who gave me the opportunity to serve. They are the reason we are all here.”

Rep. Yonker moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today's session. The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

I voted NO today because this bill is unconstitutional. It forces the judiciary to come to a particular conclusion, interfering in the separation of powers. Additionally, the law is ripe for abuse. Current law works just fine. This is a blatant attempt to shut down protest and restrict the first amendment.”

This legislation is an attack on the constitutional protections of freedom of speech and due process. It unfairly punishes protesters.”

Rep. Driskell, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While Dower Rights are in many ways an archaic relic of the past, it is important to recognize that they perform a meaningful function in modern times. Under Dower a husband may not mortgage or convey any property owned by him alone without his wife's signature.

This is critically important because it protects a wife from having her home mortgaged or conveyed out from under her, a protection that we should be seeking to extend to all spouses.

An amendment and/or bill to correct the deficiencies in this bill was offered by Representative Townsend but the corrections were not taken.

We need to fix the current law and properly protect this spousal right for both genders.”

Rep. LaVoy, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement: “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While it is important to change archaic laws, I believe this bill takes away the protection of requiring a wife’s signature when mortgaging or conveying property owned by the husband alone.”

In The Chair: Franz

The question being on agreeing to the title of the bill,
 Rep. Garcia moved to amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to amend 1954 PA 116, entitled "Michigan election law," by amending sections 523, 523a, 813, and 829 (MCL 168.523, 168.523a, 168.813, and 168.829), sections 523, 813, and 829 as amended by 2012 PA 523 and section 523a as added by 2004 PA 92, and by adding sections 20, 523b, and 523c.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Chang, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is a step in the wrong direction. I believe this bill will ultimately be challenged for its unconstitutionality and disproportionate impact on communities of color in our state. Getting an identification card can be a difficult thing for many of the most vulnerable in our communities including homeless individuals, seniors, immigrants, formerly incarcerated individuals, and others. I understand that other bills in this package seek to address this, but the concern remains that there are clear and likely reasonable impediments that will still exist to getting identification. In the Asian American community, we are concerned about some of the senior citizens who do not have identification - the ones who immigrated to this country later in life. They are the ones who are dependent on their adult children for transportation and language interpretation to be able to access services, like getting an ID. This bill would also likely have a disproportionate impact on African Americans - a much larger percentage of African American citizens of voting age lack government-issued photo identification compared to Caucasian Americans. We need to make sure we are not denying individuals their right to vote. We also especially need to make sure we are not putting our state at risk of a lawsuit if the impact is disproportionately going to impact our communities of color. I offered two amendments tonight and both were defeated - one to maintain the current option to sign an affidavit if one does not have ID in order to vote, and one to add Detroit's new municipal identification card to the list in the bill of acceptable photo ID. Without amendments like these and others, I simply cannot support the bill.”

Rep. Moss, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted against House Bill 6066 because this legislation is solution in search of a problem, except the problem is not clear and the solution is even murkier. And that would be pointless enough but this bill create even more problems.

There are significant barriers for people to get the proper identification and this bill doesn't address the significant cost of time and money that will be incurred by some people in order to vote.

I side with Michigan's election administrators, from my local clerk who told me today our current system worked properly on Election Day, to the top election official in Michigan, our Secretary of State who has consistently lauded the integrity of Michigan's electoral process.”

Rep. LaGrand, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Please accept my no vote explanation on HB 6066

I am a firm believer that a robust democracy's first priority must always be to engage its citizenry, most particularly in the electoral process. That commitment finds its best expression in our commitment to the participation of those citizens with least power.

It is a matter of fact that many of our fellow citizens do not have identification that will permit them to vote following the passage of 6066. It is also a matter of fact that those citizens in this position are characteristically amongst the least affluent and least powerful of our neighbors and fellow citizens. While many of our neighbors may be able to rise to the challenge of HB 6066's impediments to voting, many will not. It is a shameful day on which we vote to for a bill whose practical effect is to suppress the vote of any citizen in the name of addressing what is at best a completely theoretical concern about possible and not actual fraudulent voting, and at worst is a rhetorical cover for voter suppression.”

Reps. Brinks, Lauren Plawewcki, Chirkun, Irwin and Pagan, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is a step in the wrong direction.

While I support reforms to make voting more secure, accurate and modern, this bill will suppress and reduce the rights and abilities of our residents to vote. Due to the discriminatory effect of this bill, I believe it violates the United States Constitution and the Voting Rights Act. Nothing is more sacred and fundamental to our democracy than the right to vote, and it is protected by more constitutional amendments than any other right.

Many Michigan residents do not have appropriate photo identification, and do not have the means to secure photo ID. A disproportionate number of these citizens are low income, racial and ethnic minorities, voters with disabilities, students, and the elderly. Obtaining an ID not only involves time but also money. No eligible citizen should have to pay to vote.

There is no credible evidence that in-person fraud, the only type of fraud that requiring photo identification could prevent, is even a minor problem. The bill's sponsor has failed to demonstrate that this bill is solving any tangible problem. Rather than putting up barriers to prevent Michigan citizens from voting, we must ensure that every eligible voter is able to vote through reforms like online registration, no-reason absentee voting, early voting and same day registration.”

Rep. Greig, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is restricting voter access rather than strengthening voter participation.

I support reasonable reforms to make voting more secure, accurate and efficient. This bill, however, will suppress and reduce the rights and abilities of our residents to vote. Due to the discriminatory effect of this bill, I believe it violates the United States Constitution and the Voting Rights Act. Nothing is more sacred and fundamental to our democracy than voting.

Many Michigan residents do not have appropriate photo identification, and do not have the means to secure photo ID. A disproportionate number of these citizens are low income, racial and ethnic minorities, voters with disabilities, students, and the elderly. Obtaining an ID not only involves time but also money. No eligible citizen should have to pay for the right to vote.

There is no credible evidence that in-person fraud, the only type of fraud that requiring photo identification could prevent, is even a minor problem. The bill’s sponsor has failed to demonstrate that this bill is solving any tangible problem. The bill also places an additional burden on in-person voters over those who vote absentee. Rather than putting up barriers to voting, the Legislature must ensure that every eligible voter is able to vote through reforms like online registration, no-reason absentee voting, early voting and same day registration.”

Rep. Hoadley, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I rise today to encourage a NO vote on HB 6066—an effort to require some people, and only some people, to show voter identification before they can exercise their most fundamental right to vote.

You already heard there isn’t fraud in our system, the hypotheticals of the good representative from district 39 notwithstanding.

You already heard we have people with significant challenges to actually receiving identification, the reality of thousands of Michigan voters.

You heard amendments that highlight real-life situations people face when trying to challenge the vote—like lost or stolen ID.

Someone will stand up and say this bill is simple. You have to prove who you say you are before you get to vote.

Don’t be fooled. These bills are an affront to our freedoms.

Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety. –Benjamin Franklin

In the name of security to a threat which does not exist, we’re creating an actual assault on our freedom to vote. YOUR right to vote will be based on the whims of someone sitting across the table from you at a polling place and then the convenience of your schedule to prove them wrong after the election.

For my freedom loving colleagues, take note. This is the opposite of what you have voted for in the past.

This legislature found the right to bear arms so critical that when it came concealed carry, Michigan became a ‘shall issue’ instead of ‘may issue’ state. But when it comes to casting a vote, under this bill, you’re forced to prove your innocence while the state assumes your guilt.

Instead of saying you shall be allowed to vote, we’re moving our state backwards to a may be allow to vote.

- You may be allowed to vote if the person sitting across the check-in table from you think you look enough like your ID
- You may be allowed to vote if you can come back tomorrow with your temporary ID after having your purse stolen to have your provisional ballot count

- You may be allowed to vote if your municipal clerk has hours open when you’re not required to be at work

- You may be allowed to vote if an informal system of poll taxes and bureaucratic road blocks created with trips to places the bus doesn’t run and work hour restrictions don’t let you go didn’t keep you from getting an ID in the first place

We offered amendments to make this bill better. As the current recounts are showing, there are things we can do to improve our election process. However, at no point in American history have we celebrated a milestone that restricts access to the ballot.

History did not cheer the passage of poll taxes

History did not cheer the passage of literacy tests

And I promise you, history will not cheer the passage of a bill designed to make it harder for Americans to vote.

- To my neighbors who feel like their right to vote is under attack, know we will fight for you.
- To my transgender neighbors who are worried that someone won’t think their ID looks enough like them, we’ll fight for you.

- To my rural neighbors who are frustrated that their clerks might not be open after election during a time when they can show ID and have their ballots counted, we’ll fight for you.

- To low income and working neighbors who feel like this is yet another time that the deck is stacked against you, we’ll fight for you.

The fundamental right to vote is the basis in which this country is founded. I promise at no point will you wake up regretting your choice to give eligible voters the benefit of the doubt and be part of this amazing experiment called democracy. Doing what is right might mean standing up to our usual allies.

Show you’ll fight for your neighbor, too. Vote NO on HB 6066.”

Rep. Schor, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

As legislators, we should be making it easier to vote instead of harder to vote. As such, I VOTED NO on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary challenges to voting for our constituents.

In the recent election, I visited many poll sites. I talked to many people who live in our neighborhoods and walked to the polls. The whole reason we have poll sites in our neighborhoods are to make voting easier. Many of these people walked to the poll site and did not bring a driver’s license when they voted, and signed the affidavit of identity so they could still vote. In fact, in the last election, over 18,000 voters voted without their picture ID. This bill would prevent those votes from counting. These people will now have to vote a provisional ballot, then go to the clerk’s office to show picture ID before their vote can count. But people work during the day and it may be tough to get to the Clerk’s office, and by the weekend the election will already have been called for a winner. So these voters likely will not go to the clerk’s office and their vote will not count.

Additionally, it is difficult for many people to get a picture ID, but this bill would force some to get an ID who don’t have one or don’t want one. Some people, maybe disabled or homeless or any other reason, will have a very hard time getting identity documents that will be needed. Any payment required to get a photo ID in order to vote would constitute as a poll tax and would be unconstitutional.

I support reforms to make voting more secure, accurate and modern. But this bill does none of these things. There is no credible evidence that in-person fraud, the only type of fraud that requiring photo identification could prevent, is a problem. Rather than putting up barriers to prevent Michigan citizens from voting, we must ensure that every eligible voter is able to vote through reforms like online registration, no-reason absentee voting, early voting and same day registration. I hope to be able to vote for those bills in the future.”

Rep. Wittenberg, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is a step in the wrong direction.

While I support reforms to make voting more secure, accurate, and modern, this bill will suppress and reduce the rights and abilities of our residents to vote. Due to the discriminatory effect of this bill, I believe it violates the United States Constitution and the Voting Rights Act. A disproportionate number of these citizens are low income, racial and ethnic minorities, voters with disabilities, students, and the elderly. Obtaining an ID not only involves time but also money. There is no credible evidence that in-person fraud, the only type of fraud that requiring photo identification could prevent, is even a minor problem. The bill’s sponsor has failed to demonstrate that this bill is solving any tangible problem. Rather than putting up barriers to prevent Michigan citizens from voting, we must ensure that every eligible voter is able to vote through reforms like online registration, no-reason absentee voting, early voting and same day registration.”

Rep. Zemke, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is a solution in search of an imaginary problem and a huge step in the wrong direction.

While I support reforms to make voting more secure, accurate and modern, this bill will suppress and reduce the rights and abilities of our residents to vote. Due to the discriminatory effect of this bill, I believe it violates the United States Constitution and the Voting Rights Act. Rep. Guerra, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is a step in the wrong direction.

Due to the discriminatory effect of this bill, I believe it violates the United States Constitution and the Voting Rights Act. We should be making voting easier. We should be passing bills that allow for no reason absentee voting and making voting a state holiday. Not passing bills that make voting just that more difficult for working people.”

Rep. Singh, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is a step in the wrong direction.

The Secretary of State stated in a letter to the Board of State Canvassers that during the course of November 8th 2016 election, ‘zero cases of voter fraud were reported.’ Over 18,000 Michigan voters signed an affidavit to access their constitution right to vote during this past election. To date not a single one of those affidavits has been publicized as being fraudulent. It is clear that there has been no cases of voter fraud that warrant the change in our current laws and one can only assume that it is being done to suppress the constitutional right of voters for political and partisan gain. Due to the reasons I have outlined in this no vote explanation, I welcome the eventual legal challenge that will occur to hold the majority accountable for their blatantly illegal and discriminatory bill.”

Rep. Geiss, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bills 6066, 6067 and 6068 because they do not improve access to voting as their description suggests. HB6066 creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect. This bill is a step in the wrong direction.

Many Michigan residents do not have appropriate photo identification, and do not have the means to secure photo ID. A disproportionate number of these citizens are low income, racial and ethnic minorities, voters with disabilities, students, the elderly or do not have reliable access to obtain a photo ID during regular business hours. Obtaining an ID not only involves time but also money. No eligible citizen should have to pay to vote—and creating a poll tax is entirely a step in the wrong direction. While HB 6067 would seem to correct the poll tax issue by allowing a person to obtain a free certified copy of his or her birth certificate, doing so only would be relevant and useful for citizens born in the state of Michigan. For Michigan residents (like myself) born out-of-state, Michigan law for ‘free birth certificates’ would have zero bearing on the costs that another state or U.S. territory would impose in order to obtain ones’ vital records. This bill is based upon the faulty assumption and premise that everyone currently living in this state and eligible to vote in it was born in this state.

There is no credible evidence that in-person fraud, the only type of fraud that requiring photo identification could prevent, is even a minor problem. The bill’s sponsor has failed to demonstrate that these bills solve any tangible problem. Rather than putting up barriers to prevent Michigan citizens from voting, we must ensure that every eligible voter is able to vote through reforms like online registration, no-reason absentee voting, early voting and same day registration.”

Rep. Durhal, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it creates unnecessary barriers in the exercise of voting rights, and will have a discriminatory effect that will affect minorities. I believe this bill is a violation of our constitutional rights. While I support reforms to make voting more secure, accurate and modern, this bill will suppress and reduce the rights and abilities of our residents to vote. Due to the discriminatory effect of this bill, I believe it violates the United States Constitution and the Voting Rights Act. Voting is sacred and fundamental to our democracy, and it should be protected by more constitutional amendments than any other right, rather than attacked. Voting is a right to all our citizens and is not a privilege based on who can present an ID at the time that they vote.

Many Michigan residents, including but not limited to, a considerable population of African Americans and Hispanics in my district, do not have appropriate photo identification, and do not have the means to secure photo ID. A disproportionate number of these citizens are low income, racial and ethnic minorities, voters with disabilities, students, and the elderly. Obtaining an ID not only involves time but also money. This bill will require citizens to pay to obtain another ID, particularly if misplaced, just to have the right to vote. No eligible citizen should have to pay to vote.

There is no credible evidence that in-person fraud, the only type of fraud that requiring photo identification could prevent, is even a minor problem. The bill's sponsor has failed to demonstrate that this bill is solving any tangible problem and reasonable doubt that voting fraud in the State of Michigan exist. Michigan citizens deserve their fundamental rights to vote. Being a fundamental right, not a privilege, policies should be put in place to make voting easier and more accessible. We must ensure that every eligible voter is able to vote through reforms like online registration, no-reason absentee voting, early voting and same day registration."

Rep. Love, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This consequences of this legislation, intended or unintended is going to place more barriers for certain populations seeking access and opportunity to vote. In application (not conception) it violates the Constitution of the United States and tramples the Voting Rights Act. While the law would apply to everyone across the state, its effect would impact citizens of low income, ethnic minorities, those with disabilities, students and the elderly the most. This is the opposite of making voting more accessible.

If we are looking for true voter reform, we would make legislation that is more voter friendly, not adversarial. Reforms such as online registration, early voting, no reason absentee voting and same day registration are sensible approaches. Based on the past presidential election, the biggest threat towards election integrity are from outside threats such as hackers and possible foreign influences. To look inward for solutions aimed at citizens of Michigan who are disadvantaged is the wrong approach at best, and at worst have dubious intentions."

Rep. LaVoy, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 6066 because it could have a discriminatory effect on voting and voting rights. While I support reforms to make voting more secure, accurate and modern, nothing is more sacred and fundamental to our democracy than the right to vote, and it is protected by more constitutional amendments than any other right. The bill's sponsor has failed to demonstrate that this bill is solving any problem.
