House Resolution No. 205.

A resolution declaring Whitefish Point the Cranberry Capital of the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Whitefish Point, Michigan contains a rich agricultural heritage in cranberries dating back to frontier times when Native Americans used them for trade, dyes, teas, and wound compressors; and

Whereas, Whitefish Point is the site for the only historic cranberry farm in the state, Centennial Cranberry Farm, established in 1876 with land purchased from the United States government by John Clarke; and

Whereas, In the late 19th century, 18 farms in the area shipped cranberries to destinations around the Midwest such as Chicago and St. Louis; and

Whereas, Whitefish Point’s location on majestic Lake Superior has provided an ideal growing environment with an abundance of freshwater and acidic soil; and

Whereas, Whitefish Point has been the epicenter for cranberry production in the state of Michigan and for a lengthy period of time possessed the sole cranberry farm in the state; and

Whereas, Whitefish Point, Michigan produces over 80 tons of cranberries every year to be sold as preserves, store brand juices in major markets nationwide, raw fruits, preserves, and even wine; and

Whereas, Because cranberry production has steadily inclined on a national level, reaching record highs in 2004, it has become important to recognize and celebrate Whitefish Point’s integral role in this thriving agricultural market; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare Whitefish Point the Cranberry Capital of the state of Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

House Resolution No. 206.

A resolution recognizing March 16th, 2006, as Liberty Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Each citizen of the United States of America can personally respect the rights and liberties enumerated in the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution, which includes the Bill of Rights; and

Whereas, James Madison, with all the strength and courage given to him by his Creator, contributed to the Virginia Plan as a model and basis for a new constitution, further establishing our new form of government and replacing the Articles of Confederation; and

Whereas, Madison pursued the commonwealth of the United States by writing, in conjunction with John Jay and Alexander Hamilton, articles to various newspapers promoting the new constitution, the Federalists Papers; and

Whereas, James Madison served in the United States House of Representatives from 1789-1797, during which time he introduced to Congress the Bill of Rights, and was the President of the United States from 1809-1817; and

Whereas, March 16th, 2006, is the 255th anniversary of the birth of James Madison, the ‘Father of the Constitution,’ and the official Liberty Day as recognized by the Congress of the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body recognize March 16th, 2006, as Liberty Day in the state of Michigan.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Ward moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

House Resolution No. 207.

A resolution proclaiming March 5-11, 2006, as School Social Work Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Children need a supportive environment in order to learn the skills to prepare them to become members of the society at large; and

Whereas, Children have different backgrounds, abilities, and needs, but all can succeed; and

Whereas, Linking schools to human services, reducing barriers to learning, and facilitating positive learning atmospheres within schools require specialized mental health professionals; and

Whereas, School social workers constitute the 700 members of the Michigan Association of School Social Workers. They are among the 6,000 members of the Michigan Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers who are trained to provide the specialized services to ensure the well-being of children and reduce barriers to learning through working with families, teachers, and community organizations; and

Whereas, The Michigan Association of School Social Workers and the Michigan Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers have lent the legislature their expertise in determining policies concerning the well-being, safety, and success of students in Michigan’s schools on issues that have included special education, prevention of bullying and school violence, and psychotropic medications in schools; and

Whereas, School social workers across the country will mark the 100th anniversary of the profession during National School Social Work Week, March 5-11, 2006; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body proclaim March 5-11, 2006, as School Social Work Week in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Association of School Social Workers and the Michigan Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers as a token of our esteem.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Ward moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Angerer, Accavitti, Acciavatti, Anderson, Ball, Bieda, Brandenburg, Brown, Byrnes, Byrum, Clack, Condino, Elsenheimer, Espinoza, Farrah, Gillard, Gleason, Gonzales, Gosselin, Hood, Hopgood, Jones, Leland, Lemmons, Jr., Lipsey, McConico, McDowell, Meisner, Miller, Mortimer, Plakas, Polidori, Rocca, Sak, Sheltroun, Alma Smith, Spade, Stahl, Vagnozzi, Vander Veen, Waters, Wojno and Zelenko offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 208.

A resolution to express support for a boycott of “25 to Life,” a video game that invites players to kill law enforcement personnel, and to urge parents, retailers, caregivers, and others to join this boycott and to keep this game away from children.

Whereas, We recognize that our nation is built on a foundation of laws and a shared respect for the law; and

Whereas, Michigan’s law enforcement personnel uphold the laws of this state, protecting citizens from a wide variety of threats; and

Whereas, Law enforcement personnel provide security and comfort in the wake of natural and man-made disasters such as tornadoes, snowstorms, toxic spills, and fires, and investigate crimes and pursue criminals and bring them to justice; and

Whereas, Too many law enforcement personnel have been killed and injured in the line of duty, giving their lives so our laws, our families, and our way of life may be protected; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan recognizes and values deeply the service, sacrifice, and countless acts of bravery of our law enforcement personnel, as they uphold the law so our families and communities are safe from crime; and

Whereas, It is also important for our children to understand the role that police officers and other public safety personnel play in protecting us and our way of life; and

Whereas, The respect that we hold for the men and women of the Michigan law enforcement community is subverted and sullied by video games such as “25 to Life,” which calls for its players to kill law enforcement officers and take the side of crime; and

Whereas, The Michigan House of Representatives, as a legislative body, has a duty to act in matters affecting the public good; and

Whereas, We, the members of the Michigan House of Representatives, recognizing the importance of our laws and the men and women who enforce them, must reject “25 to Life” and the odious lesson of brutality, lawlessness, and crime that it would impart on our children; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we express support for the boycott of “25 to Life,” coordinated by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge Michigan’s parents, caregivers, retailers, and other members of our communities to join this effort and reject this despicable video game and invite all citizens of Michigan to join this boycott by signing the petition at www.nleomf.com/25tolife/.
