Pastor Kevin Casillas, Pastor of First Latin American Baptist Church in Detroit, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Sovereign Lord and Father, Soberano Señor y Padre, we come before Your presence, as Your Son has taught us, hallowing Your name, decimos santificado sea tu nombre, separating in our schedule and mind a solemn pause to acknowledge Your authority, power and greatness, for Yours is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory for ever, tuyo es el reino, y el poder, y la gloria, por siempre.

We pray that Your kingdom may come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven and we ask for our daily bread, our daily needs, we present to You the needs of our State that have brought us together in this place of sacred responsibility today. We pray for the men and women in this room. We thank You for their service and know from Your Word that You have ordained them with authority to be ‘Your servants for good.’

We pray that every conversation, debate, motion, and decision be made in full recognition that they will, first, respond and give an account to You for all that transpires this day in public session, as well as those behind closed doors.

Forgive us, we pray, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation and deliver us from evil, from the evil of greed and self-interest, deliver us from the evil of cowardice, deceit, arrogance, and pride.

May each representative serve, cognizant that they represent all peoples within their district, whether they believe the same or not, speak the same language or not, work in the private sector or public, immigrant or native born, if they teach in a public school or other school, single, married, young, elderly, low-income, affluent, homeless. All bear Your image; all are our neighbors; and You have taught us to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Lord, may their service today express that self-less love for others in how they respect colleagues with whom they may differ, in the compassion for those impacted most by their decisions and in decisions that will bring the most benefit for all who live in their districts and throughout our great state. Grant them the courage of Nehemiah, the wisdom of Solomon, the humility of Hannah, and the compassion and self-sacrifice of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

May He guide our behavior today through the example He gave us when He came to die in our place for sin, sacrificing Himself to offer salvation to all who trust in Him. It is in His name and for Your glory that we humbly ask for this grace and Your blessing upon this session. En el nombre de Cristo, Amen.”

Rep. Greig moved that Rep. Garrett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. LaFave, Crawford, Faris, Greig, Howrylak, Kelly and Maturen offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 37.

A resolution to declare March 2017 as Athletic Trainer Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Athletic trainers have a long history of providing quality health care for athletes and those engaged in physical activity and have acquired specific knowledge and skills acquired through their nationally regulated educational processes; and

Whereas, Athletic trainers provide recognition and prevention of injuries, evaluation and treatment, rehabilitation, health care administration, and education and guidance; and

Whereas, The National Athletic Trainers Association represents and supports 35,000 members of the athletic training profession employed in professional sports, colleges and universities, high schools, clinics and hospitals, corporate and industrial settings, performing arts centers, and military branches; and

Whereas, Leading organizations concerned with athletic training and health care have joined together in a common desire to raise public awareness of the importance of the athletic training profession and to emphasize the importance of quality health care within the aforementioned settings; and

Whereas, Such an effort will improve health care for athletes and those engaged in physical activity and promote the athletic training profession; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare March 2017 as Athletic Trainer Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Roberts and Kelly offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 38.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to repeal the standards set forth by the United States Environmental Protection Agency on portable fuel container design.

Whereas, The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) adopted rules to limit emissions from portable fuel containers, such as gas cans, in 2007. The standard was meant to force design changes in fuel containers to reduce evaporation, permeation, and spillage and was part of a larger package on reducing toxic air emissions from mobile sources like passenger vehicles. Since 2009, all containers manufactured now need to be designed to meet these standards; and

Whereas, Portable fuel containers are responsible for a relatively small portion of toxic air emissions from mobile sources. In 1999, these containers accounted for only 2 percent of these emissions. The EPA projects that the new portable fuel container standard will account for 6 percent of the reduction in toxic air emissions under the 2007 rule. Passenger vehicles and gasoline regulations will account for 94 percent of projected reductions; and

Whereas, Gas cans and other portable fuel containers designed to meet the new standard do not work effectively and are a continual source of frustration for consumers. To meet the standard, containers are being designed without a vent, resulting in slow, uneven flow out of the cans; and

Whereas, The portable fuel container emissions standard is not an effective way to limit toxic air emissions. Containers that work improperly may result in more spills as users are paying more attention to getting gas out of the container than how much gas is in the tank. Frustrated users may resort to modifying the container to create a vent, eliminating any environmental benefit from the design, or using other containers illegally; and

Whereas, The portable fuel container standards are yet another example of the EPA adopting regulations without properly accounting for real life use and impact. These regulations provide minimal environmental gain and make something as simple as filling a lawn mower tank an exercise in frustration; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to repeal the standards set forth by the United States Environmental Protection Agency on portable fuel container design; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources.

Messages from the SenateSenate Concurrent Resolution No. 11.

A concurrent resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Stephen V. Monsma, former member of the Michigan House of Representatives and the Michigan Senate.

Whereas, It was with great sorrow that the members of the Michigan Legislature learned about the passing of Stephen Monsma. He will be remembered as a statesman who provided a shining example for this body and exemplary service to residents in the Grand Rapids area and across the state of Michigan; and

Whereas, Stephen Monsma was born in Iowa and attained an extensive education focused on political science. He received a bachelor's degree from Calvin College, a master's degree from Georgetown University, and a doctorate from Michigan State University. After earning his PhD, he settled in west Michigan as a professor and academic at Calvin College. The son of a reverend, Stephen Monsma was a deeply religious man himself who studied spirituality and politics and sought to bring Christian values into public life and civic affairs; and

Whereas, Stephen Monsma served two terms in the House of Representatives in the mid 1970s and then served one term in the Senate through the early 1980s. In keeping with his scholarly background, his reputation was that of a calm, thoughtful, diligent legislator who was open to compromise. He served on committees that addressed civil rights, economic development, urban affairs, public health, post-secondary education, and appropriations. Advancing ideas and legislation to help disadvantaged members of society was important to Stephen Monsma. He was not shy to deal with controversial issues and his sterling example helped guide debates in a positive manner; and

Whereas, After leaving the Legislature, Stephen Monsma worked in state government for a few years, including as a member of the Michigan Natural Resources Commission. Later, he returned to academia, first at Pepperdine University in Malibu, California, and then back at Calvin College. Over his lifetime, he authored, co-authored, edited, or co-edited 18 books and published numerous other articles and papers. Stephen Monsma was also a believer in a robust civic society and belonged to many community and political organizations throughout his life. Outside of career pursuits, he was an avid fan of the outdoors. He hiked, backpacked, camped, skied, and enjoyed other activities with his family; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Stephen V. Monsma, a member of the Michigan House of Representatives from 1975 to 1978 and the Michigan Senate from 1979 to 1982; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Monsma family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.
