Rev. Gregory Guice, Pastor of Detroit Unity Temple in Detroit, offered the following invocation:

“God of all Creation, Who we know by many names

We come before You as servant of the people, to honor Your presence to this meeting.

We acknowledge You as our Creator for there is only one power and one presence in all of our lives.

As we begin this meeting, we ask that this divine presence

Will be the guiding source of our thoughts and our actions so that we may have a successful gathering today.

We call upon this presence within us today to rightly lead and guide our decisions so that we may bless our state with wisdom, love, and compassion. And in our prayers today may we see ourselves as servant leaders who are in positions to serve our community, our cities, our families and our state.

Dear Holy Spirit our prayers are for these Servant leaders whose mission is a calling that goes beyond a political party

Who serve Your people, give them the ability to work together, and May they realize the need to come together, to work together for the people they serve.

May they hear Your voice as they make their decisions, and may they follow Your guidance. May they have a passion for people, for truth, and for righteousness. Dear wise and loving Creator: ‘Thank You’ on behalf of all who are gathered here today. Thank You for Your many and abundant blessings that pour upon each and everyone here today.

Thank You for life itself, for the measure of health, we need to fulfill our callings of service and for friendship. Thank You for the ability to be involved in this humble work and for the honor of bearing these responsibilities.

Dear Holy Spirit I pray for these Servant Leaders, for the various levels of state Government, in particular, for this collective body. I am asking that You would kindly grant them:

- Wisdom to govern and the ability to find harmony with one another
- A sense of the welfare and true needs of our people
- A keen thirst for justice and rightness
- Confidence in what is good and fitting
- Personal peace in their lives and joy in their task

I pray for the agenda set before them today. Please give an assurance of what would please You and what would benefit those who live and work in and around our beloved state of Michigan.

It is in Your most blessed Name I pray,

Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Schor, Cochran, Singh, Chirkun, Clemente, Elder, Ellison, Faris, Geiss, Greig, Jones, Maturen, Pagan, Rabhi, Sabo, Sneller and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 112.

A resolution to declare June 7, 2017, as Lansing Labor Holiday Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The labor history of 1930s Michigan is often told from the geographic perspective of Detroit, or of Flint with its iconic sit-down strike. The story of Lansing, Michigan’s Capitol City, is often overlooked and ignored. With its upcoming 80th anniversary in June of 2017, the Lansing Labor Holiday should get the attention that it deserves; and

Whereas, After REO Motors experienced a month-long sit down strike during March/April of 1937, UAW Amalgamated Local 182 was established, bringing the UAW union to the auto shops in the Lansing area and representing roughly 15,000 automotive workers in locations including REO, Olds, Fisher Body, and a number of other workplaces under the leadership of Lester Washburn; and

Whereas, A few weeks later, employees of the Capitol City Wrecking Company voted to join the union and elected officers, but the company fired them and refused to negotiate with them. Several weeks of futile attempts to get a contract and have the fired workers reinstated led to a strike; and

Whereas, At 2:00 a.m. on June 7, 1937, Lansing’s Sheriff Allan McDonald cut the phone lines to the Washburn home and attempted to arrest Mr. Washburn and his wife. Finding only Mrs. Washburn home, the sheriff arrested her and left their three children unattended. Upon returning home Mr. Washburn called a meeting at the union hall where the union decided to call a Labor Holiday, otherwise known as a general strike; and

Whereas, That next work day, in protest of the arrest of Mrs. Washburn, 2,000 to 5,000 union members and sympathizers poured into the downtown streets, shutting down many of the businesses for the day. Meanwhile, Washburn and other union representatives negotiated the release of those imprisoned. At the end of the day the Labor Holiday was over, and before long, Capital City Wrecking negotiated a contract with its workers; and

Whereas, The Lansing Labor Holiday was a rare instance of a mass, spontaneous demonstration by the working class of the City of Lansing to address perceived injustice. To remember the event, the City of Lansing is marking the 80th anniversary by placing a Michigan historical marker remembering this historic event; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 7, 2017, as Lansing Labor Holiday Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan. We commemorate the 80th anniversary of this important labor event.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Schor, Singh, Cochran, Barrett, Bellino, Chirkun, Clemente, Elder, Ellison, Faris, Geiss, Greig, Maturen, Sneller and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 113.

A resolution to urge the United States Congress to continue full funding for the Facility for Rare Isotope Beams on the campus of Michigan State University.

Whereas, The President's proposed 2018 budget includes a $17 million cut in federal funding for the Facility for Rare Isotope Beams (FRIB) at Michigan State University. This could delay the project's anticipated completion date, increasing costs by an estimated $20 million; and

Whereas, Currently, the state-of-the-art project is on budget and ahead of schedule and is about three quarters completed. The FRIB will be the world's most powerful rare isotope beam facility upon completion; at least 1,000 times more powerful than Michigan State University's existing cyclotrons; and

Whereas, The FRIB will more than double the research opportunities available in the field of nuclear physics. Its cutting-edge discoveries will provide applications for society in such areas as cancer research, homeland security, and commercial innovation. A world class scientific facility such as the FRIB will address the U.S. innovation deficit and provide opportunities to train the next generation of scientific and business leaders; and

Whereas, The FRIB will have a huge impact on Michigan. It will contribute an estimated $4.4 billion in statewide economic activity over the course of its lifespan. It is expected to create over 1,000 jobs, generate wages of $1.7 billion, and strengthen and diversify the state's economy through investments in research and innovation; and

Whereas, It is critically important that federal funding continue to provide a solid foundation for cutting-edge scientific research at the FRIB. A funding shortfall and delay could mean canceled contracts and missed opportunities in the region's burgeoning particle science industry. Continuation of full funding is essential to keeping FRIB construction on time and on budget; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the United States Congress to continue full funding for the Facility for Rare Isotope Beams on the campus of Michigan State University; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Workforce and Talent Development.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Gay-Dagnogo, Liberati, Cochran, Faris, Hoadley, Chang, Peterson, Byrd, Lasinski, Love, Phelps, Zemke, Jones, Chirkun, Yanez, Green, Hertel, Sowerby, Geiss, Pagan, Sneller, Camilleri, Elder, Clemente, Hammoud, Bizon, Wittenberg, Leutheuser, Howell, VanderWall, Howrylak, Inman, Noble, Vaupel, Farrington, Alexander, Lilly, Reilly, Santana, Garrett, Crawford, Ellison, Greig, Kelly, Maturen, Rabhi and Sabo offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 114.

A resolution to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the Montford Point Marines.

Whereas, An estimated 5,000 African-Americans, free men and enslaved, served the American cause in the Revolutionary War, including members of the Continental Marines in April 1776; and

Whereas, Despite this heroic service, the USMC followed a racially discriminatory policy of denying African Americans and Native-Americans the opportunity to serve as Marines from 1798-1942; and

Whereas, In 1940 while the United States prepared for war, millions of jobs in the defense industry were being created. Blacks seeking jobs in the growing defense industries suffered violence and discrimination; and

Whereas, Many black leaders, including A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and the most widely known spokesperson for black working-class interests in the United States, met with Franklin D. Roosevelt and his administration to demand that he sign an executive order banning discrimination against black workers in the defense industry. Randolph threatened to bring tens of thousands of marchers to Washington, D.C; and

Whereas, On June 25, 1941, days before the march was to occur, Roosevelt issued Executive Order 8802, which barred government agencies and federal contractors from refusing employment in industries engaged in defense production on the basis of race, creed, color, or national origin. It was the first Presidential decree issued on race since Reconstruction. The order required the armed services, including the Marine Corps, to recruit and enlist African Americans; and

Whereas, Recruiting for the "Montford Marines" began on June 1, 1942. Thousands of African American men, eager to serve, flocked to recruiting offices. The first black recruits received basic training at the segregated Camp Montford Point in Jacksonville, North Carolina. The 1,200 men in the quota were housed in prefabricated huts. Racism continued in the Marine Corps after the issuance of Executive Order 9981, reflecting society; and

Whereas, Railroad tracks divided white residents from the camp for African American troops. The black recruits were not allowed to enter the main base of nearby Camp Lejeune unless accompanied by a white Marine. By 1945, all drill instructors and many NCOs at Montford Point were African Americans; and

Whereas, Between 1942 and 1949, more than 20,000 men were trained at Montford Point. In July 1948, despite strong opposition from Democrats of the segregated South, President Harry S. Truman signed Executive Order 9981, which required the desegregation of the military. In 1949 Montford Point was deactivated, and new black recruits were sent to Parris Island and Camp Pendleton. During the Korean War, the United States Marine Corps fully integrated; and

Whereas, President Barack Obama signed into law legislation to award the Congressional Gold Medal to the Montford Point Marines on November 23, 2011. This award recognizes the Montford Point Marines' contributions to the Marine Corps and the United States of America; and

Whereas, The Congressional Gold Medal was awarded to the Montford Point Marines on 27 June 2012, Original Montford Point Marine. With the completion of this initiative, it will forever serve as a fitting symbol honoring the legacy of black Marines and the effect of Executive Order 8802 which allowed blacks to be recruited in the United States Marine Corps. It will also serve as a reminder of the sacrifices of these 20,000 African American Marines who trained on the hallowed grounds of Camp Montford Point and went on to fight for the "Right to Fight". The Congressional Gold Medal serves to honor and solidify the dedication, perseverance, and bravery of the Montford Point Marines; and

Whereas, Approximately 75 years ago, African American men had the courage to accept a challenge that would change the course of history; men who paved the way for men who came from all walks of life, men who had to fight for the right to fight. They were true heroes who would go on to fight at Iwo Jima, Okinawa, Saipan, and the Marinas Islands just to name a few momentous battles. Some even paid the ultimate sacrifice by laying down their lives for this country and fellow Marines during a time of adversity and despondency when they were neither accepted by the Marines Corps nor their own country for which they served; and

Whereas, They endured racial discrimination and disrespect because of the color of their skin. These men fought and died for their country while at war. Despite their disparate treatment, these men proved themselves worthy of the title, Marine; and

Whereas, The sacrifices of these men, paved the way for other minorities and women to be integrated into the Marine Corps. By their sacrifice, Montford Point Marines engineered social and cultural change in the Marine Corps that created a lasting impact and has contributed to the success of the United States Marine Corps today; and

Whereas, A total of 57 members of this elite fighting group originated from or returned to the state of Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 75th anniversary of the Montford Point Marines. We honor the Montford Point Marines for their receipt of the Congressional Gold Medal, for their sacrifices, and for their exemplary service to our state and the nation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Gay-Dagnogo moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:
