Bishop Ira Combs, Jr., Pastor of Greater Bible Way Temple Church of the Apostolic Faith in Jackson, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty and Eternal God, El Shaddai, Supplying the needs of Your people by the way of the cross.

We approach Your throne on this auspicious occasion as we enter this most sacred holiday season to celebrate the birth of Christ, the coming of eternal salvation for the redemption of mankind.

We humbly ask Your blessings upon these most distinguished public servants, our President, Vice President; the United States Senate, House of Representatives, our dedicated and committed Governor Rick Snyder, Lt. Governor Brian Calley, and members of the Michigan Senate and House of Representatives.

We ask Your blessings upon their families, the communities they serve and the work that they do for the greater good.

Now keep us safe during this most sacred season and help us to appreciate the blessings that You have relegated to our Nation in general, as well as us as individuals.

World without end,

In the Name of Christ Jesus

Amen, Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 212.

A resolution of tribute to the Honorable Andy Schor.

Whereas, It is a privilege to extend the congratulations of the House of Representatives to the Honorable Andy Schor as he leaves this legislative body. For the last five years, he has been a diligent and passionate advocate for the people of the Sixty-eighth District; and

Whereas, Representative Schor’s career in public service began long before he was elected to the House of Representatives in 2012. After earning a bachelor’s degree from the University of Michigan, he took on a number of positions where he could work to improve the lives of the people in his community and around the state. Representative Schor worked for the Michigan Municipal League, was a legislative staffer in both houses of the Michigan Legislature, and was the public information officer for the Office of Financial and Insurance Services. He was also elected to five terms as an Ingham County Commissioner and has been a member of numerous other community organizations; and

Whereas, Since taking office in 2013, Representative Schor has worked on a wide range of issues important to the people of Lansing and Lansing Township. He has served on the Education, Elections and Ethics, Health Policy, Michigan Competitiveness, and Regulatory Reform committees, and has been the minority vice chair of the Commerce and Trade Committee, Michigan Capitol Committee, and the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules. Representative Schor was an assistant minority floor leader and the point person for his caucus on a number of important topics, including the passage of Healthy Michigan. His hard work and integrity have been deeply valued by his colleagues; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Andy Schor for his notable contributions to this legislative body and our entire state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Representative Schor as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes in his future endeavors.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Kosowski, Ellison, Hoadley, Jones, Liberati, Love, Maturen, Sabo and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 213.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to discontinue the practice of taxing state and local income tax refunds.

Whereas, The federal income tax system unfairly taxes the state and local income tax refunds of certain tax filers. Under the Internal Revenue Code, personal income tax filers who itemize their deductions may deduct either the amount of income taxes paid to state and local governments or the amount paid in state and local sales and use taxes. Individual income tax filers who deduct their state and local income tax payments and receive a refund must report all or part of the refund as taxable income the following year on their federal income tax returns; and

Whereas, Individuals who deduct state and local income tax payments and receive a refund should not have their refunds reported as taxable income the following year. This provision creates unnecessary confusion and ill will when individual income tax filers receive a federal notification requiring them to report all or part of their state and local income tax refunds as income the following year, and it makes it appear as though their income has been taxed twice under the federal income tax code; and

Whereas, Legislation that overhauls the federal income tax code should include the removal of the current requirement to tax all or part of a tax filer's state and local income tax refunds. Removing this provision would streamline the process of filing one's individual income tax returns, make it simpler for the average taxpayer to complete their own tax returns accurately, and reduce the administrative burden of the federal, state, and local agencies responsible for reporting, coordinating, and overseeing the multitude of individual income tax systems in this country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to discontinue the practice of taxing state and local income tax refunds; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to Committee on Tax Policy.

Reps. Sowerby, Chirkun, Yanez, Farrington, Yaroch, Green, Hornberger, Lucido, Marino, Hertel, Clemente, Ellison, Faris, Hoadley, Howrylak, Jones, Liberati, Maturen, Rabhi and Sneller offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 214.

A resolution to commemorate the bicentennial of Macomb County.

Whereas, Macomb County, Michigan's third oldest county, was formally created on January 15, 1818; and

Whereas, The county was named in honor of General Alexander Macomb, a veteran of the War of 1812; and

Whereas, At the time of the creating of Macomb County, it spanned a much larger area than it does today, as large portions of the county were removed to form Genesee, Lapeer, Oakland, and St. Clair counties; and

Whereas, Macomb County consists of 27 local units of government; combining urban, suburban, and rural communities. These municipalities include: Armada Township, Village of Armada, Bruce Township, Center Line, Charter Township of Chesterfield, Charter Township of Clinton, Eastpointe, Fraser, Grosse Pointe Shores, Charter Township of Harrison, Lenox Township, Macomb Township, Memphis, Mount Clemens, New Baltimore, Village of New Haven, Ray Township, Richmond, Richmond Township, Romeo, Roseville, Charter Township of Shelby, St. Clair Shores, Sterling Heights, Utica, Warren, and Charter Township of Washington; and

Whereas, Macomb County is the third most populous county in Michigan and home to over 865,000 people and includes three of the eight most populated communities in Michigan in Warren, Sterling Heights, and Clinton Township; and

Whereas, Macomb County is a culturally diverse county with many languages and nationalities represented and celebrated; and

Whereas, Macomb County and its citizens have given much to Michigan through agriculture, the armed services, education, industry, innovation, and natural resources; and

Whereas, More than 18,000 businesses are located in Macomb County that support growing industries in advanced manufacturing, automotive, defense, food processing, and health care; and

Whereas, More than 17,000 acres of parks and recreational spaces and 155 miles of non-motorized trails are located in Macomb County, as well as boating, fishing, and swimming opportunities on the Clinton River and Lake St. Clair; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan acknowledges the importance of Macomb County's history and impact; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the bicentennial of Macomb County. We recognize the 200th anniversary of the creation of Macomb County and remember and honor the contributions Macomb County has made to Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the mayor, township supervisor, and village president of all municipalities located in Macomb County, the Macomb County Executive's office, the Macomb County Board of Commissioner's office, Congressman Sander Levin and Paul Mitchell, and Senators Stabenow and Peters.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Sowerby moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 214.

A resolution to commemorate the bicentennial of Macomb County.

Whereas, Macomb County, Michigan's third oldest county, was formally created on January 15, 1818; and

Whereas, The county was named in honor of General Alexander Macomb, a veteran of the War of 1812; and

Whereas, At the time of the creating of Macomb County, it spanned a much larger area than it does today, as large portions of the county were removed to form Genesee, Lapeer, Oakland, and St. Clair counties; and

Whereas, Macomb County is the third most populous county in Michigan and home to over 865,000 people and includes three of the ten most populated communities in Michigan in Warren, Sterling Heights, and Clinton Township; and

Whereas, Macomb County is a culturally diverse county with many languages and nationalities represented and celebrated; and

Whereas, Macomb County and its citizens have given much to Michigan through agriculture, the armed services, education, industry, innovation, and natural resources; and

Whereas, More than 18,000 businesses are located in Macomb County that support growing industries in advanced manufacturing, automotive, defense, food processing, and health care; and

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the mayor, township supervisor, and village president of all municipalities located in Macomb County, the Macomb County Executive's office, the Macomb County Board of Commissioner's office, Congressman Sander Levin and Paul Mitchell, and Senators Stabenow and Peters.

The motion prevailed and the substitute (H-1) was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Wittenberg, Chang, Hoadley, Rabhi, Pagan, Gay-Dagnogo, Yancey, Hammoud, Lasinski, Elder, Geiss, Garrett, LaGrand, Ellison, Moss, Cambensy, Zemke, Clemente, Jones, Liberati, Sabo and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 215.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to lift the existing prohibition against publicly funded scientific research on the causes of gun violence and its effects on public health and to appropriate funds for the purpose of conducting such research.

Whereas, Death and injury due to firearm violence constitute a tragic and substantial public health burden on our society. Firearm violence can include suicide, violent conflicts and disputes, unintentional deaths and injuries, and violent criminal acts; and

Whereas, Firearms pose inherent risks that can be addressed and reduced through research. As gun violence can take many forms, from suicide to mass shootings, research must study all aspects to effectively reduce firearm violence; and

Whereas, Research allows the public health profession to define the problems associated with gun violence, identify risks and protective factors, and develop preventive interventions. Funding of gun violence research will allow for a database of scientific knowledge to be created for the development of meaningful interventions as our understanding of gun violence expands; and

Whereas, For over two decades, Congress has blocked any appropriations for gun violence research citing legislation enacted in 1996 to prohibit public funds from being used to advocate or promote gun control. Although not specifically prohibited, the language has been interpreted as a ban on funding. Scientific research must and can stand outside of politics for the betterment of public health; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to lift the existing prohibition against publicly funded scientific research on the causes of gun violence and its effects on public health and to appropriate funds for the purpose of conducting such research; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Reps. Cambensy, Gay-Dagnogo, Dianda, Chirkun, LaFave, Rabhi, Chatfield, Clemente, Ellison, Geiss, Hoadley, Jones, Liberati, Maturen, Sabo, Sneller and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 216.

A resolution to declare December 14, 2017, as Frostbitten Convention Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On a bitterly cold day in 1836, the Frostbitten Convention took place in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and sought to see an end to the Toledo War, which was a dispute between the territory of Michigan and state of Ohio over rightful claim to the Toledo Strip; and

Whereas, A compromise was proposed in the summer of 1836 by then President of the United States, Andrew Jackson, to offer the western portion of the Upper Peninsula along with statehood to the territory of Michigan. The region known as the "Toledo Strip" would be granted to the state of Ohio; and

Whereas, Under the guidance of then territorial Governor of Michigan, Steven Mason, a convention known as the "Frostbitten Convention" was convened in Ann Arbor, Michigan. On December 14, 1836, convention delegates voted to accept the western region of the Upper Peninsula and paved its way to statehood; and

Whereas, On January 26, 1837, the United States Congress granted statehood to Michigan; and

Whereas, To this day the western portion of the Upper Peninsula has led itself to have vast resources within the region. Michigan's leadership in forestry and the mining of both copper and iron ore have grown exponentially. In this year of 2017, we recognize the 181st anniversary of the Frostbitten Convention; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare December 14, 2017, as Frostbitten Convention Day in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Marquette Regional History Center and the Peter White Public Library.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Lauwers moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Schor:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker.

This day is a bit bittersweet for me. Serving in this Chamber has been the highest honor. When I first moved to Lansing 20 years ago, I hired in as a legislative staffer. I was that 21 year old kid working at the back desk for then-state senator Gary Peters. And I loved it. I loved helping people. I loved working on policy and legislation. I learned so much from Senator Gary Peters, and he continues to be my mentor to this day. I couldn't imagine that 15 years later, I would be serving in this Chamber. In the people's house.

And honestly, very little could take me away from this. To give up any part of my time in this chamber is tough for me. But the opportunity to serve my community, my City of Lansing, as its Mayor was probably the only thing that could make me leave this House early. This is such a great opportunity to help my neighbors and ensure that Lansing is a great city, and Michigan is a great state

We who serve in this chamber, on behalf of the citizens of Michigan, are so fortunate. I hope that every day you step through those big, heavy doors, you realize how truly lucky you are. How truly lucky we all are. Not just to serve as part of this august body. And that is a great privilege. But to serve the people of Michigan and our districts. Every day for five years, when I come into this chamber I get that feeling of awe knowing that we are making law; making decisions that affect almost 10 million people. I don't care if it is education or health care or agriculture or alcohol. The decisions we make have real impacts. It is an awesome responsibility and we are very lucky to be given that opportunity.

These five years have gone so quickly for me. So I want to thank a few of the many people that have made this a truly great experience.

First, I want to thank my seat mates.

My first term, I sat next to Reps. Abed and Cochran, and we had some very interesting times! What a great first two years. Rep. Cochran and I share Lansing, so he and I work together on so many things. Thanks, Tom, for all your help and support these five years.

My second and third term, I have had the honor of sharing desks with Representative Winnie Brinks. Winnie is one of the hardest workers that I know. She has taught me so much, and has even gotten me out to Grand Rapids from time to time over the last five years. I have to admit, they have some great things happening in western Michigan. Not as great as Lansing, but still wonderful.

I have to thank my leaders. Tim Greimel led the Democratic caucus for four years and he kept us together as a caucus. We cheered, and cried, and did so much to fight for Michigan. Tim, you are a general. A leader among leaders. I thank you for all the time and hard work you put into this chamber and I will stand with you as you have stood with me.

My leader now, of course, is Sam Singh. And he is doing an exceptional job leading this caucus. But Sam is not just my leader...he is a friend and neighbor. We have known each other for many years, and I am so impressed with all he has accomplished. Professionally and personally. I know there are great things ahead for you, Sam. And I am so excited for you and your family

I came in with an exceptional class five years ago. And I am still close with so many of you. Even Adam Zemke, who makes me wear that Green and White bowtie every time MSU beats Michigan. We have done great work for this state, and I hope you will make the most of your last year here in this chamber.

We in the House are like family. Over the last five years, we have celebrated and we have mourned. I am excited for my colleagues who have gotten married and had children. And I miss our colleagues who are no longer with us. Julie Plawecki, Pete Pettalia, and my good friend John Kivela who I came in with and will never forget.

I would like to thank my fellow Jewish Caucus members, Robert Wittenberg and Jeremy Moss. One of my absolute highlights in this chamber was last session when we were here late one night in December and were disagreeing about something...I don't remember what it was. But you know what I do remember... I remember us all stopping and going outside to light the candles for Chanukah. So many members of the House, as well as those in the lobby, joined Jeremy and Robert and Mike Callton and I as we lit the candles. That was certainly a sight to see.

There are so many others that I want to thank. Democrat and Republican friends alike. So many who supported me over the last year, a few of you who were even there the evening when I found out that I would be the next Mayor of Lansing. Friends who I knew before we served... friends like:

Jeff Yaroch, who I staffed at the Michigan Municipal League and have really enjoyed working with this year.

Jeremy Moss, who was my wife's intern 11 years ago and now serves as State Rep in that same office.

Senator Curtis Hertel, who first recruited me to run for office about 16 years ago and has been a great friend ever since.

Thanks to the Speakers that have lead this chamber while I have served. While we haven't always agreed, each of the Speakers have been fair to me as a member. I have passed legislation and had the opportunity to work with the majority from time to time to affect policy. So thank you to Jase Bolger, Kevin Cotter, and to Tom Leonard, my friend from the district north of mem who I met during the campaign when we both promised our constituents we would work with the other side to get things done.

There are so many Reps and Senators that I served with that I want to mention them all, but that would be a bit too long and you all want to get home to your families at some point!

I do need to thank the wonderful staff. Five years ago, Karissa Purchase and Marilyn Plummer started this journey with me. Karissa has gone on to bigger and better things counseling young people at MSU. And Marilyn Plummer will continue serving the residents of Lansing in the Mayor's office. I have also added Nathan Murphy to my staff, who will go on to solve all the environmental problems of Michigan!

I worked closely with everyone on Democratic central staff. Between my committees and the many issues I was involved in, I have managed to take much of their time. We can't do our work without these tremendously talented folks. They are in the background, but really get the job done. Thanks to all of them, those doing the job now and those that have gone on to bigger and better things. And thanks also to the Republican staff. Many of you have helped me tremendously to get bi-partisan things done.

Thank you to Alice Mansfield, who help always has our back in making sure we have what we need to survive both short and long days here, and for her encouragement and faith in me to lead our city.

And thanks to the sergeants who keep us safe here on the House floor, many of whom are former City of Lansing police officers.

I would also like to think one person who works behind the scenes for us that doesn't always get the proper recognition – thanks to Nay Thornhill. I knew his brother, Charlie, who was a sergeant in the Senate. Those of you who are Spartans know Charlie as mad dog Thornhill, an incredible football player. But I knew him as Charlie the sergeant, who taught me things when I was just a staffer that I still know today. Nay, his brother, works for us here at the house. He delivers our mail, he knows everything that goes on, and he's not afraid to express his opinions. Thank you nay for everything. Your brother is watching from Heaven and is so proud of you.

And I can't forget my wife and children. They have been so supportive through this five years of service and the campaigning. I couldn't do it without them, and I know they are excited for a four year term as Mayor. Erin, Ryan, and Hannah, I love you so much and appreciate all the sacrifices that you have made for me to be able to serve in this great body, and for all we will do together to make the city of Lansing a wonderful place over the next many years.

I am proud of this body and this chamber for many of the things we have passed in the last 5 years. Important policy that has made Michigan a better place. We have helped our kids. We have helped our seniors. We have helped our working families and businesses. While there are things that I have not agreed with here in the House, I would not trade my time here for anything.

So, Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I thank everyone in this body and wish you the very best of luck as you navigate the many important issues of importance to Michigan. Know that, from time to time, I will look out my window and see that American Flag flying over this chamber and know that you all are here, working hard, and doing the people's work.

Thank you again for all the memories and the opportunity to continue to ensure that Michigan is the best state in the Union. And I hope that you will all stay in touch and let me know how the City of Lansing can work with this House and this Legislature in the future!"

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Glenn to the Chair.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While this legislation is appears to be well-intentioned, I cannot support this legislation due to unintended consequences and the much larger discussion that must take place concerning Michigan’s opioid crisis.”

Rep. Canfield, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
 “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

My concern today regarding Senate Bill 166 is that it will limit access to care for Michigan citizens.

While I think we can all agree that finding solutions to stop the rise of the opioid crisis in Michigan should be a top priority for the Legislature, I believe we should do so with thoughtfulness and careful consideration. All stakeholders need to come to the table, including providers, to create a comprehensive approach to tackle this serious problem facing our citizens. The opioid bills that have passed during this legislative session have provided for many important, and much needed, changes to healthcare, and I have supported many of them for this reason. However, Senate Bill 166 places obstacles in front of providers that I fear will cause them to no longer prescribe necessary medicines for conditions that have nothing to do with the opioid crisis.

I have been provided data which indicates that 300 family physicians and many other physicians in other specialties in Michigan do not use electronic medical records. If Senate Bill 166 is enacted, these physicians will now be forced to use a process that they are not prepared to implement. Also, despite the State’s indication that internet capability is available throughout the entire state, many rural communities do not have reliable broadband internet connections. This lack of access will put providers at risk of sanction for simply doing their job.

Federal programs similar to Senate Bill 166 have offered waiver options for special circumstances, but amendments offered to this bill that would provide such waivers have been rejected. I remain concerned that access to needed assistance will be unavailable because of bureaucratic mandates. Many positive changes have been made to the bill, which I appreciate, but they do not go far enough and consequently I cannot support the bill.

As this bill passes into law it is my hope that I am wrong, but it is my fear that I am correct. Either way, I will continue to work to control the opioid crisis and improve healthcare in the state of Michigan.”

Rep. Canfield, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

My concerns regarding Senate Bill 167 reflect many of the same concerns I have with Senate Bill 166. Again, while I appreciate the Senate putting forward legislation to attempt to alleviate the severity of the opioid crisis currently ravaging our state, I do not believe Senate Bill 167 is the right choice for Michigan residents. This bill ultimately requires physicians to be perfect in their access to the MAPS program, which will prove to be a significant problem when put into practice.

Physicians and providers are not perfect and asking for this perfection puts them at risk for sanction, possibly even loss of licensure, if they do not look up every patient when prescribing a scheduled 2-5 medication. I also believe Senate Bill 167 provides for an overreach of power in the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs, which is punitive in nature and not educational.

The inherent problems in this bill and its counterpart, Senate Bill 166, have not allowed me to support their passage. However, I will continue to work to fight against the opioid crisis and to serve the residents of Michigan."

The question being on agreeing to the title of the bill,
Rep. Lauwers moved to amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to amend 1976 PA 451, entitled "The revised school code," by amending sections 553a, 1231, 1233, 1233b, and 1249 (MCL 380.553a, 380.1231, 380.1233, 380.1233b, and 380.1249), section 553a as amended by 2011 PA 277, section 1231

as amended by 2016 PA 192, section 1233 as amended by 2017 PA 151, section 1233b as amended by 1995 PA 289, and section 1249 as amended by 2016 PA 170.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Geiss, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Working to ensure that all of our students have access to qualified teachers is important. How can we give our students the tools for success if the people teaching them not only have mastery in their professions but also have the chops to teach.

Teaching is not solely about imparting knowledge and inculcating pupils. Teaching requires a broader set of skills that require more than six hours pre-classroom education and additional six after. For the three years that I’ve been on Workforce & Talent Development Committee, which this bill went through, we’ve been hearing how important it is that CTE students are as equal as college-bound students. So why are we offering them teachers that do not need to meet a high standard of integrity for the people teaching them? Our CTE students deserve more. They deserve the best. And this legislation is not it. We need to do much more work to provide our students the best, which they deserve. Today, I voted no on legislation that is substandard and unfair to our students.”

Rep. Lauwers moved that House Bill No. 5142 be placed on its immediate passage.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.
