Rabbi Mark Miller of Temple Bethal of Bloomfield Hills offered the following invocation:

Our God and God of all generations and of all people, we raise our voices to You with gratitude for all the gifts that bring meaning and purpose into our lives. Grant strength, wisdom, discernment, and joy upon our State Senators and those who surround them, so that they may defend our interests, further our hopes, and inspire our participation in working toward common goals.

May they be protected in their coming and their going. Help them to remember the moral virtue of their task. Grant them abundant peace; that it may spread across our great land.

May it be God's will, and together let all of us say, amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Statements

Senator Whitmer asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Whitmer's statement is as follows:

Before I get started, I would like to invite my colleagues to peruse the Senate Rules with regard to statements so that they can familiarize themselves with the rules. I think that would be helpful in terms of going forward. The first order of business is taken care of.

The second is I have been reading the newspaper as I do every day, and it seems like it has almost become routine at this point. Week after week, there are news reports of yet another scandal with Governor Snyder's administration. Whether it's his own employees' lavish perks on the taxpayers' dime; increasing state contracts to his cousin's furniture business; his right-hand man, Rich Baird's threats to sue anyone, myself included, who dares to question him; the list really does go on and on. But if there is one word that has almost become comical to read in the headlines week after week, it's "Aramark."

As those of us in this chamber well know, a decision was made against the objections of my Democratic colleagues and I to privatize food service in our prisons, resulting in this administration signing a $145 million contract with Aramark to take over that service. What has that gotten us? Meal shortages, maggots in the food, sex with inmates, prisoner unrest, and now on the front page of today's Detroit Free Press, an Aramark employee arrested for smuggling heroin and other drugs into the St. Louis Correctional Facility.

Aramark's complete incompetence and inability to fulfill basic obligations to the people of the state Michigan goes far beyond simple mistakes. It puts the safety of prison guards and other workers inside our prisons at significant risk. While the Governor is on TV in commercials describing himself as an accountant who is focused on decisions by numbers, he refuses to take action to correct this. But the truth is it doesn't take an accountant to figure out what is wrong here. Any rational person would have come to the conclusion long ago that this contract must be terminated. Instead, the Governor's team has actually tried to hide information from the public about just how bad the problem really is.

Just last week, it was discovered that the Department of Corrections tried to fine Aramark $98,000 back in March for some of these very problems, but the fine was suspended after the Governor's office pressured the department to back off. That isn't the action of an accountant; that is the action of a politically-driven Governor who is more interested in protecting a company than protecting the people of our state. It is time for Governor Snyder to finally admit his mistake, and end this ridiculous ordeal for the good of our state, our corrections officers, and our taxpayers.

Governor, fire Aramark, or the people of Michigan are going to have every reason to fire you this November.
