Reverend Thomas Seppo of Operation Transformation of Lakeport offered the following invocation:

Father, it is with great privilege that we come here this morning to conduct business that affects millions of people here in this great state. We thank You for Your many blessings that You've given to us. We continue to ask for Your guidance and help. You said in Micah 6:8 that You have told us what is good and what You'd require of us to do, and this is to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God.

I pray, Lord, that You continue to give these Senators great strength as they face the many strong temptations of pride and arrogance, greed and deceitfulness, immorality, substance abuse, and discouragement. I pray, Lord, that they may grow in Your power and understanding, so that they would have Your power to resist these traps that would destroy their lives and families, as well as their effectiveness as leaders.

I ask that You would grant them the spirit of courage to do what it is right no matter what the personal cost is; that they may be strong and of good courage, and observe to do all according to Your laws; that this Book of the Law shall not depart from their mouths; that they should meditate on it day and night, and do all that is written in it. Then, You said that You'd make our way prosperous, and we'd have great success.

Finally, I pray that You would grant us and our leaders a spirit of wisdom and discernment, that they may have clarity and the good sense to make difficult decisions that affect the good people of this great state. You said that if anyone lacks wisdom, we're to ask of You, and You would give to all those who ask most liberally.

We pray all these things in Your most powerful name; Jesus' name. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Schuitmaker, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Motions and Communications

Senators Pavlov and Richardville entered the Senate Chamber.

Senator Meekhof moved that rule 3.902 be suspended to allow the guests of Senator Richardville admittance to the Senate floor.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Hopgood moved that Senators Hunter and Young be temporarily excused from today's session.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Hopgood moved that Senators Smith and Johnson be excused from today's session.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Richardville asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Richardville's statement is as follows:

Today, I have a special tribute to one of the most important persons to work in this building. On October 31 of this year, Trena Trowhill will be retiring, and her remarkable Capitol career has spanned more than 22 years.

Trena first came to work at the Michigan State Capitol as a receptionist in the building's brand-new facilities office on March 23, 1992, as the Capitol entered the final phase of an exhaustive three-year restoration. Working with Jerry Lawler, the executive director of the Michigan Capitol Committee, Trena began to help create and define the office where she would work for more than twenty years. In 1994, her exceptional organizational abilities were recognized by her appointment to two key positions: Capitol events coordinator and Capitol flower bed coordinator, positions she holds today.

As Capitol events coordinator, Trena's responsibilities include scheduling exhibits, rallies, luncheons, weddings, and memorials, as well as inaugurations, Silver Bells, and the Governor's annual State of the State address. She has assisted in planning more than 5,000 events over the course of her career.

At the same time, Trena took on the responsibility for developing one of the Capitol's most successful volunteer programs, Flower Planting Day. Every spring, more than 120 volunteers gather to plant more than 20,000 flowers in the Capitol's authentic Victorian flower beds—all in a single day. Not only did Trena recruit and train a team of loyal volunteers who return year after year, but she also found a partner in the Kalamazoo Plant Growers Cooperative, which, to date, has donated over 325,000 flowers to beautify Capitol square.

Her responsibilities, however, extended far beyond flowers and events. She has truly been a caretaker of this beautiful building, inside and out, and has performed each task with great competence and enthusiasm.

She is joined today by her husband, Dean. Later this month, Trena and Dean will celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary. Also here today are their two sons, Alan and Curt. Would you all please join me in thanking Trena Trowhill for her remarkable career, the work that has affected this Capitol and our lives so often.

The Secretary announced that the following bills were printed and filed on Tuesday, September 30, and are available at the Michigan Legislature website:

Whereas, Expanding the relationship between Michigan and Turkey is economically and culturally worthy; and

Whereas, Muskegon, Michigan, and Antalya, Turkey, are sister cities; and

Whereas, In June 2012, the Michigan-Turkey forum “Trends in Research and Development with Industry” was held in Istanbul; and

Whereas, Ford Motor Company has one of its largest joint venture assembly plants in Turkey; and

Whereas, The Turkish American Society of Michigan (TASM) is very active in expanding awareness of their culture; and

Whereas, The Niagara Foundation and the Turkic American Federation of the Midwest are huge proponents of the Turkish-Great Lakes State Friendship Task Force; and

Whereas, It is in the best interest of the state of Michigan to further cultivate the relationship with Turkey and other Turkic nations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the friendship and partnership between Michigan and the Republic of Turkey be honored and affirmed; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Niagara Foundation, the Turkic American Federation of the Midwest, and the Turkish American Society of Michigan.

Statements

Senator Jansen asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Jansen’s statement is as follows:

Senate colleagues, today is the Advanced Practice Registered Nurses Advocacy Day, and you’ll probably get visits from APRNs from your district talking to you about the truth behind Senate Bill No. 2 to establish highly-trained, educated, and skilled APRNs in the outdated Public Health Code. The Senate supported and passed this measure last year, and I’m very, very grateful to my colleagues for helping to take this big step toward better access to health care for our Michigan citizens.

However, if you look out toward the House Office Building today, you’ll see a billboard telling House members to vote “no” on Senate Bill No. 2. First, the physicians who oppose this think it’s their right to keep APRNs from having a license that recognizes their master’s or even doctorate degrees, and now they are interfering with the APRN Advocacy Day. That’s the best they can do.

The facts of Senate Bill No. 2 remain clear; that it is good for Michigan. We have study after study in our office showing patient safety is not jeopardized. In fact, in some cases, it improved in the 19 states and the District of Columbia that license APRNs to practice in such a way that reflects their education and training. The proof is there.

I would ask the opposition to read the Senate-passed version rather than lie about another Senate version that was not passed. As they ambush my colleagues and they ambush APRNs and use things like this ridiculous billboard, it's time for them to put their own self-interest aside, get rid of the hard line in their own little turf war, and put the patients in Michigan first.
