

HENRY E. STALLINGS, II

3rd Senatorial District

Office: Room 1015, Farnum Bldg., P.O. Box 30036, Lansing, MI 48909, (517) 373-0990

Committees: Economic Development, International Trade and Regulatory Affairs (Vice Chair); Finance; Human Resources, Labor and Veterans Affairs

Biography: Democrat, of Detroit; born December 30, at San Diego, CA; graduated from Pershing High School, Detroit; B.S. in Food Distribution and Business Administration from Western Michigan University; attended Detroit College of Law; daughters, Erica, Amena, Nicole, Jennifer, and son, Henry, III; Greater Grace Temple of Detroit; owner of Skywalk Art Gallery; served as a Congressional Black Caucus Fellow in the United States House of Representatives, 1983; law clerk, Office of Attorney General, 1982;

General Counsel Office, United Auto Workers; member, NAACP, DIA Founders Society, Friends of African Art, Museum of African-American History, Western Michigan University Alumni Association, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity; marketing executive, Xerox, 1974-1982; vice president, First Independence National Bank; former director, Minority Business Enterprise Division, Department of Commerce; 32 degree Prince Hall Mason; Wolverine Consistory; Shriner, MARRACCI Temple; board member, Minority Technology Council of Michigan; elected to the State Senate, 1995; Minority Assistant Whip; 2nd Vice Chair, Michigan Legislative Black Caucus.

