Pastor Darryl Gaddy of Victory Fellowship Baptist Church of Detroit offered the following invocation:

Father God, we thank You for this day. God, we thank You for the sunshine. We thank You for allowing us to rise. God, as we prepare to go into another session, we ask that You would touch and bless Your servants. God, we ask that You would bless those, the constituents, and those who are sharing in this session, who are called out and appointed to do Your business.

God, we thank You and we ask that You would just touch the hearts and the minds today of all those, the residents and the people of this great state of Michigan and the people of this great country, the United States.

God, we thank You, and we bless You. Now in the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Cherry, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

The following communication was received and read:
Office of the Auditor General

April 30, 2009

Enclosed is a copy of the following audit report:

Financial audit of the Michigan Exposition and Fairgrounds Authority, a discretely presented component unit of the State of Michigan, for the period October 1, 2007 through September 30, 2008.

Sincerely,
Thomas H. McTavish, C.P.A.
Auditor General

The audit report was referred to the Committee on Government Operations and Reform.

The following communication was received:
Department of Transportation

April 28, 2009

Pursuant to Section 384(2) of Public Act 275 of 2008, attached is a report intended to fulfill the requirements of the following language:

The department will report on a quarterly basis to both the house and senate appropriations committees on any expenditures relative to the process identified in subsection (1).

Sec. 384. (1) The state transportation department is allowed to finish the Detroit River international crossing (DRIC) study provided that activity associated with finishing the DRIC study shall not bind the state in any way to construction. Certain preliminary activities which are necessary to prepare a proposal for a decision by the legislature are allowed as long as they do not bind the state. Those activities include all of the following:

- (a) Applications for permits and approvals.*
- (b) Preliminary design engineering work.*
- (c) Preliminary utility planning and relocation.*
- (d) Preliminary financial and funding arrangements.*

The report includes a listing of internal, consultant, and total study expenditures to-date through the end of the second quarter of Fiscal Year 2009, two charts detailing expenditures by year and source of funds, and monthly progress reports for the quarter detailing the history of the consultant team's efforts on behalf of the department.

The Michigan Department of Transportation takes great pride in the way we are conducting the DRIC study. We urge you to visit the project Web site, www.partnershipborderstudy.com, where a wealth of additional information regarding study data and activities has been available since 2005. All material attached to this memo will be made available on the project Web site if not already posted.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (517) 373-3946 or DeCookR@michigan.gov.

Sincerely,
 Ronald K. DeCook, Director
 Office of Governmental Affairs

The communication was referred to the Secretary for record.

The following communication was received:
 Department of Treasury

May 4, 2009

Please find attached one copy of the Personal Property Audit Quarterly Report for the period January 1, 2009 - March 31, 2009. The report is required by Public Act 261 of 2008, the General Government Appropriations Act. Section 947 of the Act provides, in part, as follows:

- (1) Of the $4,749,200.00 included in part 1 for the revenue enhancement program, $4,249,200.00 shall be used for revenue collection enhancement activities including auditing functions.
- (2) The department of treasury shall submit quarterly progress reports to the senate and house of representatives standing committees on appropriations subcommittees on general government and the senate and house fiscal agencies, regarding personal property tax audits funded under subsection (1). The report shall include the number of audits, revenue generated, and number of complaints received by the department related to the audits.
