Rep. Ray A. Franz, from the 101st District, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon You and we ask Your blessings upon this body, our families, our constituents, this great state and our Country.

We thank You for giving us this beautiful opportunity to honor the men and women who so bravely served this country in her hour of need, especially those who gave their lives. Father we ask You to bless and strengthen those brave souls who selflessly give of themselves without asking anything in return.

Comfort us now in our longing for the return of the Prisoners of War and those Missing in Action.

Heal our wounded warriors who returned home in pain. Bless them. Restore them. Heal their bodies.

We ask You to bless the families of our military who stay behind while their loved one goes into battle. Keep them safe and provide for their needs according to Your abundance. Lord we pray for a special blessing upon the families whose loved one gave his or her life to this country. Keep them safe and comfort their hearts.

For all of this and more, we give thanks. Amen.”

Rep. Stamas moved that Reps. Horn and Shirkey be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Stapleton, Barnett, Brown, Darany, Dillon, Durhal, Heise, Knollenberg, Kowall, LeBlanc, Liss, O’Brien, Potvin, Slavens, Switalski, Talabi and Tlaib offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 279.

A resolution to declare June 2, 2012, as Childhood Cancer Survivors Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Today, over 250,000 Americans are survivors of childhood cancer. Most children survive thanks to advances in early cancer detection, treatment, and research; and

Whereas, Children’s Hospital of Michigan, the oldest and largest hospital caring for the children of Michigan, has an active and productive cancer survivor population. This demonstrates that a cancer diagnosis is no longer an automatic death sentence; and

Whereas, In addition to Childhood Cancer Survivors Day, communities all across America will be celebrating life Saturday, June 2, 2012, as part of the world’s largest cancer survivor event, the 24th annual National Cancer Survivors Day; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That members of this legislative body declare June 2, 2012, as Childhood Cancer Survivors Day in the state of Michigan. We urge all citizens to join in this joyous celebration of life; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Children’s Hospital of Michigan as evidence of our support for their endeavors.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Dillon, Haveman, Tlaib, Barnett, Bauer, Brown, Darany, Durhal, Heise, Knollenberg, LeBlanc, Liss, Potvin, Segal, Slavens, Switalski and Talabi offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 280.

A resolution to declare May 25, 2012, as Hispanic Senior Citizens Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The state of Michigan is fortunate to count among its population a diverse and vibrant Hispanic senior citizen population which contributes in a great number of ways to our state’s culture, economy, and society; and

Whereas, The Hispanic senior citizens community has continually demonstrated dedication to family, community, and professional development throughout the state of Michigan; and

Whereas, The work ethic of the Hispanic senior citizen community in the Great Lakes State continually sets a worthy and admirable example for all citizens of this state; and

Whereas, Hispanic senior citizens are highly respected for their contributions to the economic, cultural, and historical wealth of the state of Michigan. Committed to family and community throughout the Great Lakes State, Hispanic senior citizens help to foster engaged and responsive communities around our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 25, 2012, as Hispanic Senior Citizens day in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That we encourage all citizens to recognize and celebrate the many accomplishments and contributions that the Hispanic senior citizen community has made to our state.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Segal, Barnett, Darany, Dillon, Durhal, Heise, Kowall, LeBlanc, Liss, O'Brien, Potvin, Slavens, Switalski, Talabi and Tlaib offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 281.

A resolution in support of naming a new United States Navy Littoral Combat Ship for Battle Creek, Michigan.

Whereas, The following active and stricken ships have, or have had, name ties to the State of Michigan: USS Detroit, USS Flint, USS Grand Rapids, USS Gerald R. Ford, USS Grayling, USS Isle Royale, USS John C. Calhoun, USS Kalamazoo, USS Lake Erie, USS Michigan, USS Saginaw, and USS Saugatuck; and

Whereas, Battle Creek, Michigan is a unique military community with a long and rich history of service to the United States of America; and

Whereas, Beginning in 1917 with the establishment of Camp Custer as the Midwest's largest Army training site, Battle Creek was the induction point for tens of thousands of soldiers in World Wars I and II; and

Whereas, Fort Custer continues today as a 6,000-acre National Guard and Reserve Midwest Training site for the National Guard and civilian law enforcement agencies and is part of Battle Creek's Joint Reserve Base; and

Whereas, Battle Creek is also home to Michigan's Air National Guard and the 110th Airlift Wing and Battle Creek airmen have been deployed multiple times with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) in Operation Deny Flight in Kosovo and have served in wartime efforts in Iraq and Afghanistan; and

Whereas, Based at the W.K. Kellogg Airport, with a 10,000-foot runway, the 110th Airlift Wing of the Air National Guard is now flying the C-21 as an interim mission, awaiting the delivery of the new C-27J Joint Cargo Aircraft and was named the top flying squadron in the Air National Guard in 2008 and earned numerous other awards over the years; and

Whereas, Battle Creek is home to the Hart-Dole-Inouye (HDI) Federal Center which houses two major commands of the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) and HDI is home to DLA Logistics Information Service and DLA Disposition Services with field offices all around the Globe which provide logistics and supplies to war fighters everywhere; and

Whereas, The historic Hart-Dole-Inouye building began as the Kellogg Sanitarium, the world's premier health spa in the first part of the 20th century through World War II. Following WWII, the building became the Percy Jones Army Hospital and was the nation's leading recovery site for critically injured and amputee veterans. Among those who recovered in Battle Creek were future United States Senators Bob Dole, Dan Inouye and Philip Hart, for whom the building is now named; and

Whereas, Battle Creek and the entire state of Michigan have also had a strong Navy presence since World War II, when a Reserve Center was established on Goguac Lake. At the time, many lake residents offered the use of their Chris-Craft boats for weekend training on the lake and a formal reserve center was later established near Fort Custer, at one time having a drilling population of nearly 300 officers and enlisted personnel; and

Whereas, The reserve center was also home to a detachment of the Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, one of the two major NATO strategic commands for many years, as well as, several active ship detachments; and

Whereas, In the summer of 2012, a new Navy Operational Support Center (NOSC) will be commissioned on Fort Custer as part of the Navy's commitment to Battle Creek and our joint efforts; and

Whereas, This new NOSC will consolidate Navy Reserve operations from Grand Rapids and Lansing, Michigan into one West Michigan NOSC which will represent a major cost savings for the Navy and Navy Reserve as well as offer Navy Reservists access to training and educational facilities on Fort Custer; and

Whereas, The U.S. Marine Corps has also had a presence in Battle Creek for many years and presently two USMC Bridge and Engineering companies will take over the former Navy Reserve Center and continue their presence in the city; and

Whereas, Battle Creek has Marine Units from around the Nation come to train on Engineer Lake; and

Whereas, Many Marines from Battle Creek and the entire state of Michigan have been individually deployed in the Global War on Terrorism and the community has fully and publically supported their efforts; and

Whereas, One of our state's proudest moments came in the wake of Hurricane Katrina when four plane loads of New Orleans refugees were airlifted to Battle Creek, where soldiers, sailors, airmen, marines, and many other civilians came together on Labor Day weekend to help transport, treat and help them adjust and recover at Fort Custer. Many of these victims had no idea where they were going when they were loaded on a plane and were separated from their families, but Michigan welcomed them with open arms and compassion, which led some of them to stay permanently in the area; and

Whereas, Battle Creek and the entire state of Michigan have gone far beyond simply supporting war fighters and have also taken care of our nation's wounded and disabled veterans for years, as the home to the Regional Veterans Affairs Medical Center, which treats more than 75,000 veterans annually from all around the Midwest; and

Whereas, Battle Creek has also honored veterans from nearly every conflict our nation has been engaged in with the final tribute and burial at Fort Custer National Cemetery where more than 38,000 American Heroes rest in honored glory; and

Whereas, Fort Custer National Cemetery is the 7th largest cemetery in the National Cemetery Administration and one of the only national cemeteries with an all-volunteer honor guard of veterans who render honors to each veteran being interred; and

Whereas, Battle Creek is a leader in joint cooperation and the community has embraced all of its military services for many years, working together and mirroring the Littoral Combat Ship mission of joint inter-operability and true American Pride; and

Whereas, Battle Creek has been labeled “The Best Known City of its Size in the World,” in large part, because of its significant military contributions, its cereal industry giants like Kellogg, Post and Ralston, and it is the world headquarters of the W.K. Kellogg Foundation; and

Whereas, The naming of a Littoral Combat Ship for the city enjoys widespread community support, including but not limited to the Battle Creek-Kalamazoo Chapter of the Navy League of the United States, the USS Battle Creek Committee, Battle Creek Unlimited, and the Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, The city of Battle Creek, as proven by their long history of proudly providing support to their exceptional military community, would undoubtedly provide ongoing support to the crew and its successors for many years to come; and

Whereas, Naming a Littoral Combat Ship, a truly joint warship, for Battle Creek, a truly joint community, would be mutually beneficial to the Navy and the state of Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body support the naming of a new United States Navy Littoral Combat Ship for the city of Battle Creek, Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Secretary of Defense, the United States Secretary of the Navy, and the members of the Michigan Congressional Delegation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Opsommer to the Chair.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Hooker, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

While allowing natural fathers responsibility and right of parentage, keeping a marriage together is important. My biggest objection was the retroactivity which could shock a child as old as 10 and cause disruption in a stable family where the child’s mother and her husband have reconciled and provided a stable home for a youngster. I believe the child’s interests supercedes the natural father’s rights.”

Rep. McBroom, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted ‘no’ on this bill package with mixed emotions. There is certainly a problem in our society that these bills address. Confusion and outright fraud in regard to paternity is a growing problem in our state and needs to be dealt with. It is unfortunate that we address this societal problem at its expression rather than its source: the continuing erosion of the sanctity of the marriage relationship and its special role in raising children.

It is because I fear that these bills forget about the special, lawful privileges marriage has always enjoyed I must vote ‘no.’ These privileges are in place because history has always displayed the value of marriage and its causal relationship to strong families constructed on that foundation. The possibility that a lawful husband would need to defend his right to shield a child he takes for his own from the biological father that participated in violating the marriage lowers, rather than elevates marriage. It is because of this I have voted no. These bills could have provided the relief and guidance necessary to deal with this ill without lowering marriage. A hedge around the marriage relationship, that recognizes its preeminence, should have been included and hopefully will be before the conclusion of this issue. Thank you.”

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to codify, revise, consolidate, and classify aspects of the law relating to wills and intestacy, relating to the administration and distribution of estates of certain individuals, relating to trusts, and relating to the affairs of certain individuals under legal incapacity; to provide for the powers and procedures of the court that has jurisdiction over these matters; to provide for the validity and effect of certain transfers, contracts, and deposits that relate to death; to provide procedures to facilitate enforcement of certain trusts; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Poleski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I believe that a tax return checkoff is an inappropriate place to do fundraising. The Alzheimer's Association is a very worthy organization; that isn't the issue. We complicate our tax forms and put unnecessary work upon our Treasury with checkoffs. I respectfully vote no.

Thank you Mr. Speaker."

Rep. Olson, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
 “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I do not believe it is a proper function of government to be collecting money for private entities, even as worthy as this is, nor picking winners and losers among worthy charities.”
