Rep. Woodrow Stanley, from the 34th District, offered the following invocation:

“Gracious and heavenly Father, maker and sustainer of life. We thank You for Your generous blessings, for our families, our communities, our state. We thank You, Father, for the opportunity to be invested with this awesome and sacred trust of elected service to represent the interest of Your people. Father, You have told us in Your word that if we ask, it shall be given, if we seek, we shall find, and if we knock, doors shall be opened to us.

Father we now knock at Your door of wisdom. We ask, O God, that You endow each member of this chamber with the discernment and wisdom to discharge our responsibilities in a manner that is pleasing to You. Even as we face unprecedented and daunting challenges, we ask, O God, that You bless this legislature with a renewed sense of cooperation and common purpose. Strengthen our faith and we will be forever mindful to give You the honor and praise. It is in Your magnificent name that we pray, Amen.”

This continuation budget further delays the tough decisions that need to be made. While I understand that contingency plans must be in place to arrange for the shutdown of government, an unfortunate but possible outcome on this the last day of the fiscal year, I believe this is the easy way out. It is said that in every crisis you must strive to find the opportunity and we must use this crisis to the best extent possible. That includes fixing the structural problem with a moderate approach combining a mixture of cuts, revenues, and reforms. This continuation budget represents an attempt to keep the pressure off, the very pressure I believe is necessary to achieve real solutions. That’s why I have to vote NO, even if only in protest.”

Rep. Angerer moved to amend the title to read as follows:

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Schuitmaker, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

No Vote Explanation

HB 5403 (Promise Grants)

This bill violates the bipartisan, signed agreement between the Democrat Speaker of the House and the Republican Senate Majority leader to balance the budget without raising taxes. It proves that the Democrats never had any intention of living up to their end of the bipartisan agreement to reduce spending because they are already trying to backfill agreed upon cuts.

There are many legal problems with this legislation. It attempts to repeal a law that does not exist, it attempts to provide supplemental funding to a budget that does not exist, and it references a revenue source that does not exist.

Democrats who control the House are flagrantly abusing their power by trying to ram this legislation through without allowing lawmakers to debate the bill or even read it before being forced to vote.

For these reasons I cannot support this bill.”

Rep. Elsenheimer, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

There are many legal problems with this legislation. It attempts to repeal a law that does not exist, it attempts to provide supplemental funding to a budget that does not exist, and it references a revenue source that does not exist.

Specifically, the Michigan Constitution requires appropriation bills to be passed before supplemental appropriation bills are passed (Michigan Constitution, Article IV, Section 31). Article IV Section 25 prohibits laws from being amended by reference. In this situation the Democrats are attempting to repeal sections of a bill that had not been voted on by the House, let alone signed into law.

Democrats who control the House are flagrantly abusing their power by trying to ram this legislation through without allowing lawmakers to debate the bill or even read it before being forced to vote.

For these reasons I cannot support this bill.”

Rep. Angerer moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Miller, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of Senate Bill No. 777, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

It is ironic to me that on the very day we are struggling to balance the state budget, fund our priorities, and fix a structural deficit problem we are forking over another $25 million dollars in a targeted tax cut to benefit a single enterprise. While advanced battery technology may well be a part of Michigan’s future economy, this carve-out is as much an expenditure of taxpayer resources as any line item in the state budget and one I think we cannot afford right now. Put it into early childhood education instead. “
