A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 4818 AS INTRODUCED 5-10-89

The bill would amend the Michigan Employment Security Act to revise archaic language and to require the seller of a business to provide the buyer, at the time of the sale, with a statement of the seller's outstanding Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC) liens. The bill would also require the MESC to furnish the buyer with a list of the names of individuals he or she had laid off within the preceding 12 months.
