LIABILITY INSURANCE MARKETING PROGRAM

House Bill 5277

Sponsor: Rep. Roland G. Niederstadt

Committee: Insurance

Complete to 11-28-89

A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 5277 AS INTRODUCED 11-9-89

The bill would require the insurance commissioner (or a designated representative) to meet with representatives from carriers offering coverage for medical malpractice, products liability, municipal liability, and liquor liability for the purpose of establishing a permanent market assistance program to be administered by the insurance industry. The commissioner would have to report by January 1, 1991, on the establishment of such a program to the governor, Senate Majority Leader, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the standing committees on insurance issues for the Senate and House of Representatives.
