A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 5744 AS INTRODUCED 5-10-90

The bill would amend the Management and Budget Act to require a department to respond when the auditor general issued a report on it. Within 60 days, the department would have to report to the legislature on the following: the auditor general recommendations that had been implemented, the recommendations not implemented, the recommendations implemented in a modified form, and the rationale for modifying a recommendation or not implementing it.
