Committee: Social Services and Youth

Complete to 9-12-90

A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 5947 AS INTRODUCED 6-29-90

Public Act 184 of 1987 required the Department of Social Services to pay a reasonable attorney's fee on behalf of a recipient of AFDC or general assistance who won retroactive Supplemental Security Income benefits in a proceeding against the federal Social Security Administration, if the proceeding resulted in a reimbursement to the state for interim assistance paid to the recipient during the period covered by the award. The act will expire November 30, 1990. House Bill 5947 would eliminate the expiration date, thus extending the provisions of the act.
