Senate Bill 295

Sponsor: Senator Gilbert J. DiNello

Committee: Local Government and Veterans

Date Completed: 5-5-89

SUMMARY OF SENATE BILL 295 as introduced 4-11-89:

The bill would amend the General Municipal Planning Act to allow a member of a regional planning commission to receive a per diem allowance and mileage as established by the local unit that appointed that member, or by the regional commission as currently permitted under the Act, for attending meetings and actual expenses incurred as a member of the commission.

FISCAL IMPACT

Senate Bill 295 would have no fiscal impact on State government. The bill could provide a shifting of responsibility and the costs associated with funding a local regional planning commission's per diem and mileage allowances from the regional planning commission to participating local units of government.
