STATE OF MICHIGAN
85TH LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION OF 1989

Introduced by Senators Ehlers, Arthurhultz, Gast, Cherry and Binsfeld

ENROLLED SENATE BILL No. 243

AN ACT to amend section 21 of Act No. 156 of the Public Acts of 1851, entitled as amended "An act to define the powers and duties of the county boards of commissioners of the several counties, and to confer upon them certain local, administrative and legislative powers; and to prescribe penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act," being section 46.21 of the Michigan Compiled Laws; and to repeal certain parts of the act.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Section 1. Section 21 of Act No. 156 of the Public Acts of 1851, being section 46.21 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 21. A county board of commissioners may permit or prohibit within that county the construction of any bridge over or across any navigable stream. They shall also have power to provide for the removal of any obstruction arising from the erection of booms or the collecting of logs or rafts in such streams, by any individual; and to direct the time in which, and places where, persons having logs, rafts and boats in such streams shall be allowed to remain, and when the logs, rafts, and boats shall be removed. A county board of commissioners may impose any penalties as they consider necessary to enforce regulations issued under this section, and may authorize the sheriffs or their deputies to carry into effect the regulations made under this act.

Section 2. Section 22 of Act No. 156 of the Public Acts of 1851, being section 46.22 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, is repealed.

Section 3. This amendatory act shall not take effect unless Senate Bill No. 242 of the 85th Legislature is enacted into law.

Section 4. This amendatory act shall take effect June 1, 1990.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
