Rep. Bill Huizenga, from the 90th District, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly, Holy and Merciful Father, we thank You for this day. We ask that You be with us today and this week as we make decisions and debate issues and ideas. We pray that You put in our hearts wisdom, compassion and, Lord, sometimes forgiveness as it’s needed. We pray that You be with us as we move forward and try to improve and better Michigan for our children and our grandchildren. Lord, we ask a special blessing on those that need Your help now. We especially ask that You be with our troops overseas who are defending our country and with the families that are hurting from loss. We pray that You give wisdom and understanding to all of our leaders at the federal, national, state and local level. Please continue to be with this institution as we try to serve You. In Your Holy name, Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Kooiman, Accavitti, Ball, Baxter, Bieda, Booher, Brandenburg, Brown, Caswell, Clack, Condino, Cushingberry, Elsenheimer, Espinoza, Farrah, Garfield, Gillard, Gleason, Gosselin, Green, Hansen, Hildenbrand, Hopgood, Jones, LaJoy, Leland, Lemmons, III, Lemmons, Jr., Lipsey, Marleau, McDowell, Meyer, Miller, Mortimer, Nitz, Pearce, Polidori, Proos, Shaffer, Sheltroun, Alma Smith, Spade, Stahl, Stakoe, Taub, Tobocman and Vander Veen offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 224.

A resolution recognizing May 2006 as Hepatitis Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, It is estimated that 4 million Americans and 180,000 Michigan residents have been infected with the hepatitis C virus (HCV); and

Whereas, Seventy-five to eighty-five percent of individuals infected with HCV go on to develop chronic infections, which can result in damage to the liver, end-stage liver disease, or death; and

Whereas, It is estimated that treatment for HCV infected patients will exceed $13 billion by the year 2019; and

Whereas, Approximately 50 percent of treated individuals may clear the virus from their bodies, and for others, risk of progression may be prevented or delayed through early detection and appropriate medical management; and

Whereas, HCV is a blood-borne virus. Infected individuals may transmit it to others through sexual contact, from mother to child during the birthing process, from occupational exposure to blood, or through injection drug use; and

Whereas, It is believed that the majority of people with HCV, including many infected through blood transfusions before 1992 or blood products produced before 1987, do not know they are infected. Many at high-risk for future infection are not aware of their risk and may not be knowledgeable about ways to prevent the spread of infection; and

Whereas, Increased public awareness and education about HCV, a continuum of hepatitis-related services including prevention programs, and medical management/treatment programs are needed to ensure the best possible health outcomes for individuals already infected with HCV and to prevent new infections; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body recognize May 2006 as Hepatitis Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Ward moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Pavlov, Acciavatti, Ball, Baxter, Booher, Brandenburg, Caswell, Elsenheimer, Espinoza, Farhat, Garfield, Gosselin, Hansen, Hildenbrand, Jones, Kooiman, LaJoy, Lemmons, III, Marleau, Meyer, Mortimer, Nitz, Pastor, Pearce, Polidori, Proos, Rocca, Shaffer, Stahl, Stakoe, Steil, Taub and Vander Veen offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 225.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to permanently repeal the federal inheritance tax.

Whereas, In 2001, the United States Congress adopted legislation to phase out the federal inheritance, or “death tax”. This landmark piece of legislation, however, did not permanently repeal the tax, and, without further action, the inheritance tax will revert back to its old form in 2011. Clearly, the death tax is one of our most onerous taxes. The entire concept of taxing estates at a time of personal tragedy and loss is shameful public policy; and

Whereas, The repeal of the inheritance tax has long been a centerpiece of tax policy reform. The tax imposes a double imposition by taxing estates that have already paid their fair share of taxes on income. It is particularly burdensome on family farms and small businesses, which are a key part of the foundation of our entire economy. Indeed, if the tax resumes in 2011, farmers and small business owners will face the loss of their farms and businesses, and countless numbers of their employees would lose their livelihood. Moreover, all of our economy’s gains from the death tax phase-out will be wiped out in one fell swoop; and

Whereas, Sound public policy argues that the death tax should be definitively and permanently repealed. If the tax had been fully repealed in 2001, our nation's economy would have already experienced tremendous growth from increased investment and economic input. Fully repealing the tax now will send a clear message to our nation's entrepreneurs that investment in job creation is truly our highest priority; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we hereby memorialize the Congress of the United States to permanently repeal the federal inheritance tax; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Tax Policy.

Reps. David Law, Accavitti, Acciavatti, Anderson, Ball, Baxter, Booher, Brandenburg, Brown, Caswell, Clack, Clemente, Condino, Elsenheimer, Espinoza, Farhat, Farrah, Garfield, Gleason, Gosselin, Green, Hansen, Hildenbrand, Jones, Kooiman, LaJoy, Leland, Lemmons, III, Lipsey, Marleau, McDowell, Meyer, Mortimer, Nitz, Pastor, Pearce, Plakas, Proos, Rocca, Sak, Schuitmaker, Shaffer, Sheltroun, Stahl, Stakoe, Steil, Taub, Vander Veen, Walker and Wojno offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 226.

A resolution to memorialize the United States Congress to enact legislation restricting protests at funerals.

Whereas, More than 100 military funerals nationwide have been besieged with protesters in the past three years. Protesters have trespassed on the solitude and dignity of grieving families, who want nothing more than to bury their husbands, wives, sons, and daughters in peace and solemnity. Espousing perverse and hateful language and placards, these protesters celebrate the slaying of our nation's heroes; and

Whereas, No family member, on the blackest day of their life, should have to confront such premeditated viciousness, which is solely calculated to deepen the anguish of bereavement. Under such circumstances, the family's right to privacy outweighs any supposed free speech concerns; and

Whereas, The United States Congress is considering legislation to restrict protests at funerals at national cemeteries for 60 minutes before or after a funeral. The measure would also restrict protesters to remain 500 feet or more from the grave site or from individuals they are protesting; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the United States Congress to enact legislation restricting protests at funerals; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Veterans Affairs and Homeland Security.

Reps. McDowell, Espinoza, Lipsey, Polidori, Angerer, Gleason, Lemmons, III, Accavitti, Acciavatti, Adamini, Anderson, Bieda, Brandenburg, Brown, Clack, Condino, Cushingberry, Farrah, Gillard, Gonzales, Hopgood, Leland, Lemmons, Jr., Meisner, Miller, Plakas, Sak, Sheltroun, Alma Smith, Spade, Stahl, Tobocman, Vagnozzi and Waters offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 31.

A concurrent resolution to urge the Department of Homeland Security to make public the findings of a recent Inspector General report that outlined the security threat posed by Canadian waste shipments.

Whereas, The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Office of Inspector General (OIG) released a summary "Audit of Screening Trucks Carrying Canadian Municipal Solid Waste" in January 2006 assessing the Bureau of Customs and Border Protection's process for screening trucks carrying Canadian municipal solid waste; and

Whereas, The volume of waste imported into Michigan from Canada has increased by 347% since 1996, and some shipments have already been found to contain medical waste, illegal drugs, and illegal currency. In addition, other serious safety concerns have arisen as a result of several trucks hauling Canadian waste being involved in traffic accidents, including at least two incidents within the last year where loads have spilled onto public roads in Michigan; and

Whereas, The OIG has concluded in its report that improvements are needed in the port inspection process in order to better protect American citizens. The OIG recommended that a risk analysis be conducted and a more uniform inspection process be created, which would include minimum requirements for selecting and inspecting trucks carrying Canadian waste. However, these suggested reforms cannot be properly debated and implemented until the findings of the unclassified OIG report are made public. We are greatly troubled by the refusal of DHS to release the report of this investigation, and we find no basis for not releasing the entire report publicly; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we urge the Department of Homeland Security to make public the findings of a recent Inspector General report that outlined the security threat posed by Canadian waste shipments; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Homeland Security.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. Pavlov, Acciavatti, Ball, Baxter, Booher, Brandenburg, Caswell, Elsenheimer, Espinoza, Farhat, Garfield, Gosselin, Hansen, Hildenbrand, Jones, Kooiman, LaJoy, Lemmons, III, Marleau, Meyer, Mortimer, Nitz, Pastor, Pearce, Proos, Rocca, Shaffer, Stahl, Stakoe, Steil, Taub and Vander Veen offered the following concurrent resolution:

Messages from the Governor

The following veto message from the Governor was received and read:

Executive Office, Lansing, March 23, 2006

Michigan House of Representatives
State Capitol
Lansing, Michigan 48909-7514

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Today I have vetoed and return without signature Enrolled House Bills 5744 and 5745, as provided under Section 33 of Article IV of the Michigan Constitution of 1963. The bills would foreclose arbitrarily the ability to assure that senior citizens and the disabled are receiving safe and quality care by well-trained and adequately compensated caregivers.

Furthermore, because the Michigan Constitution of 1963 separates the powers of government among three branches, I have an obligation to defend the Executive Branch from encroachment, just as you seek to defend the prerogatives of the Legislative Branch. If at some point it is determined that administrative rules are needed to assure that workers providing care to senior citizens and the disabled are receiving the wages and benefits necessary to assure quality care and safety, the Administrative Procedures Act of 1969 affords ample opportunity for legislative review and reaction. If it is determined that rules are not needed, I have a responsibility to preserve the ability of a future governor to decide otherwise.

Respectfully,
Jennifer M. Granholm
Governor

The question being on the passage of the bills, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding, Rep. Ward moved that consideration of the bills be postponed for the day.
The motion prevailed.

2. Amend page 2, line 10, after "SECTION" by inserting a comma and "SUCH AS THE MICHIGAN MODEL FOR COMPREHENSIVE SCHOOL HEALTH EDUCATION,".

The motion prevailed and the amendments were adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.
