

What are the different populations within the cohorts (both under existing plan and expanded), and aside from what their numbers are, what are the demographics of the populations?

So for example, if under expansion we add x amount of people, how are those people broken down in a reasonably detailed manner, both by number and type?

How do we "know" which types of patients we are going to be specifically picking up by expanding Medicaid? Pie charts, etc would be great.

Source: Tabulations of the 2010 American Community Survey

Source: Tabulations of the 2010 American Community Survey