Rev. Albert Kelley, Pastor of Pennsylvania Avenue Original Church of God in Lansing, offered the following invocation:

“As we come together on behalf of the Juneteenth celebration let us honor those who sacrificed so much for this opportunity, we say thank You Lord for this day of celebration You have given us, so Lord we come before Your presence with bowed down heads and humbled hearts as Your public servants as we seek Your wisdom and guidance as we serve the people of this great state of Michigan. May each of us fulfill Your purpose as You have created this nation to provide liberty and justice for all. We ask this in the name of our Lord, Amen.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Glenn to the Chair.

Rep. Lauwers moved that Rep. Scott be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Reps. Sowerby, Moss, Rabhi, Greig, Clemente, Wittenberg, Sneller, Ellison, LaGrand, Liberati, Kosowski, Sabo, Neeley, Faris, Brinks, Durhal, Zemke, Byrd, Canfield, Howrylak, Maturen and Pagan offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 365.

A resolution to declare June 9, 2018, as National Outdoors Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Our nation will be celebrating Great Outdoors Month in June. We celebrate the unmatched magnificence of our nation's natural wonders. Spending time in the great outdoors, especially during summer, is an American tradition, with millions of people participating in outdoor recreation annually. Outdoor recreation has a far-reaching positive impact on both our citizens and economy; and

Whereas, We celebrate the passage of the Outdoor Recreation Jobs and Economic Impact Act of 2016. This historic act gives the outdoor industry its own metric by which to quantify its impact on the nation's economy. Thanks to this legislation, the outdoor industry receives official government recognition for years to come; and

Whereas, The importance of outdoor recreation cannot be understated. Parks and recreation can have a positive impact on the physical, mental, and social health of individuals and their communities. In experiencing the outdoors and observing our natural surroundings, we gain a better understanding of the complexities of our beautiful world. Spending time enjoying the outdoors also provides an opportunity to reset from the stress of everyday life; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 9, 2018, as National Outdoors Day in state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Macomb County Board of Commissioners, Michigan Trails and Greenways Alliance, Governor Rick Snyder, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the National Park Service, and members of the Michigan Congressional Delegation, as evidence of our esteem for being a voice for the outdoor industry, and helping to create a healthier and more prosperous Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Love, Yancey, Geiss, Dianda, Peterson, Cochran, Chirkun, Santana, Lasinski, Hertel, Hoadley, Pagan, Chang, Runestad, Phelps, Guerra, Greig, Moss, Sowerby, Clemente, Neeley, Durhal, Greimel, Green, Iden, Kelly, Afendoulis, Graves, Webber, McCreedy, Kesto, Yanez, Jones, Sneller, Zemke, Gay-Dagnogo, Liberati, Brinks, Byrd, Sabo, Cambensy, Canfield, Maturen, Miller, Rendon and Wittenberg offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 366.

A resolution to declare June 8, 2018, as Men's Mental Health Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Men are widely celebrated around the country for their role in providing for and protecting their spouses, children, families, and the nation at large. The image of the stereotypical man, as a hardworking, never complaining, tough guy has been ingrained in the American psyche as a mythical, ideological example that all men should strive for. Society has conditioned men that they are to be an unshakeable bedrock of production, both at work and at home, devoid of emotion. This, however, is far from reality as studies show that men often suffer in silence from mental health issues because of society's lack of empathy and understanding for the psychological challenges that men face; and

Whereas, The lack of social acceptability for men to seek mental health treatment leads them to self-medicate and have significantly higher incidence of alcohol and drug dependency as well as increased suicide rates compared to their female counterparts. Studies show that 20% of men will develop alcohol dependency; and

Whereas, Statistics from the National Health Interview Survey show that 9% of men experience depression or anxiety on a daily basis, a figure that rises to 31% when including men who note that they have suffered from depression at some point in their lifetimes; and

Whereas, Suffering in silence and addiction leads men to have proportionately high suicide rates, accounting for over 75% of suicide victims in the United States. The combination of not having meaningful work, the influence of self-medication with alcohol and drugs, isolation, the stigma of shamefulness that unemployment brings, all combined with the lack of a healthy outlet for therapy, lead men down the road of addiction often called "Slow-Motion Suicide"; and

Whereas, Despite the high incidence of mental health issues facing men, the stigmatization that surrounds men coming forward is expressed in the cultural phrase "Man Up," implying that having psychological challenges are contrary to the picturesque image of men, perpetuated in society. This leads to a fear of ostracization preventing men from seeking help for mental health issues, ultimately compounding them, as men suffer in isolation; and

Whereas, Research indicates that men are significantly mentally affected by divorce and the subsequent separation from their children. According to data from the U.S. Census, only 1 of 6 men retain custody of their children after a divorce and usually only have minimal visitation rights. This has a devastating effect on men as society conditions them to not express emotions such as sadness, even when faced with traumatic life events; and

Whereas, Men's mental health should be recognized as a societal and cultural issue, as much as a health issue so that healthy discussions about the epidemics of substance abuse and suicide among men can be had in a public forum. More male-tailored options and programs for mental health treatment need to be developed and implemented to promote mental and psychological well-being among men. This would positively impact men and society as a whole; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 8, 2018, as Men's Mental Health Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Runestad, Lucido, Bellino, Sheppard, Howell, Vaupel, LaGrand, Yancey, Kesto, Greimel, VerHeulen, Tedder, Cox, Crawford, Allor, Yaroch, Elder, LaSata, Robinson, Howrylak, Canfield, Faris, Leutheuser, Maturen, Rendon, Sneller, Webber and Wittenberg offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 367.

A resolution to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the establishment of the Michigan District Court system.

Whereas, District courts achieved enactment in the legislature after long debates over the replacement of the justice of the peace system and the requirement that the district court judges be attorneys and full-time judges; and

Whereas, Under Michigan's Constitution, the creation of a new court requires passage by two-thirds majorities in both the Michigan House and the Michigan Senate. The Michigan District Court system was established by the passage of Public Act 154 of 1968, effective June 17, 1968, amending the Revised Judicature Act to create our state district court system; and

Whereas, The district court is often referred to as "The People's Court," as the public has more contact with the district court than with any other court in the state. The court conducts marriages in a civil ceremony. Those appearing in district court are more often representing themselves without an attorney and it has exclusive jurisdiction over all civil claims for damages up to $25,000, including small claims, landlord-tenant disputes, land contract disputes, and civil infractions; and

Whereas, District courts conduct preliminary examinations in felony cases prior to transfer to the circuit court and handle a wide range of criminal proceedings, including most misdemeanors and offences for which the maximum possible penalty does not exceed one year in jail; and

Whereas, In its first 50 years, the Michigan District Court system has proven to be comprised of fair-minded and thoughtful jurists who have served the people of Michigan capably and admirably; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 50th anniversary of the establishment of the Michigan District Court system. We honor the contributions that the Michigan District Court system has made to the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
