

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 261

Reps. Farrington, Haadsma, Marino, Sneller and Young offered the following resolution:

1 A resolution to declare April 2022 as Financial Literacy Month
2 in the state of Michigan.

3 Whereas, The informed use of credit and other financial 4 products and services benefits individual consumers and promotes 5 economic growth; and

6 Whereas, Learning financial literacy skills at an early age
7 encourages greater economic self-sufficiency, higher levels of 8 successful homeownership, and enhanced retirement security, 9 particularly among low-and moderate-income citizens; and

10 Whereas, Michigan has formally participated in financial 11 literacy programming for eighteen years through the collaboration 12 and coordinated effort of hundred of organizations including

1 financial institutions, non-profit groups, government entities,
2 schools and libraries. The initiative showcases these organizations
3 educational resources, strengthens public-private partnerships,
4 engages the media, and connects people with resources to help them
5 better manage their money; and

6 Whereas, A greater understanding of, and familiarity with,
7 financial markets and institutions will lead to increased economic 8 activity and growth; and

9 Whereas, According to the 2021 Consumer Financial Literacy
10 Survey report by the National Foundation for Credit Counseling, 62%
11 of U.S. adults have carried credit card debt in last 12 months and 12 41 percent of adults living in the United States gave themselves a 13 grade of C, D, or F on their knowledge of personal finance; and

14 Whereas, Personal financial education and money management
15 skills are crucial to ensure that all Michiganders and especially 16 our young people are prepared to manage credit and debt and become 17 responsible workers, heads of households, homeowners, investors, 18 entrepreneurs, business leaders, and productive citizens; and

19 Whereas, According to the report titled "Economic Well-Being 20 of U.S. Households" by the Board of Governors of the Federal 21 Reserve System, 40 percent of adults in the United States cannot 22 cover an expense of $400; and

23 Whereas, According to the report of the Board of Governors of 24 the Federal Reserve for the fourth quarter of 2020 outstanding 25 household debt in the United States reached $14,560,000,000,000 and 26 the total debt balance is $414 billion higher than at the end of 27 2019; and

28 Whereas, According to the most recent FDIC Survey and Report
29 of Household Use of Banking and Financial Services, the number one

1 reason, at twenty-nine percent, cited by unbanked households for 2 not having an account was "Don't have enough money to meet minimum
3 balance requirements" compared to the majority of banked households
4 being satisfied with their primary bank and thinking that fees
5 were clearly communicated; and

6 Whereas, Expanding access to the mainstream financial system
7 will provide individuals with less expensive and more secure 8 options for managing finances and building wealth; and

9 Whereas, The young people of our state represent Michigan's 10 single greatest resource who, in the years ahead, will assume 11 leadership positions and responsibility for advancement of our 12 society; and

13 Whereas, Financial Literacy Month highlights the commitment of 14 Michigan banks to strengthen the financial knowledge of Michigan
15 citizens to prepare them for a fiscally-responsible future; now,
16 therefore, be it

17 Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 18 this legislative body declare April 2022 as Financial Literacy
19 Month in the state of Michigan. We encourage raising public 20 awareness about the importance of personal financial education in 21 Michigan and the rest of the United States. This will help address 22 the serious problems that are associated with mismanagement of 23 personal finances; and be it further

24 Resolved, That we call on each parent, school, business, 25 financial institution, community organization, and unit of 26 government to observe the month with appropriate programs and 27 activities.
