land said. "So this was definitely a first."

As Short and Smith departed, Strickland strode out to the end of the dock to watch the plane taxi and depart. Bryant watched as the plane disappeared beyond the trees, then lined up to take off to the east toward Short's bottling facility in Elk Rapids. The "oohs" and "aahs" almost drowned out the sound of the plane.

"This is a highlight of our summer, absolutely," Bryant said. "To see a seaplane come in right to your front step and deliver beer and hop off. I mean this was just phenomenal."

"I was a stay-at-home mom for the most part."

Michigan is a member of the Streamlined-Sales and Use Tax Agreement (SSUTA). Under the terms of the SSUTA, if a member state's sales/use tax rules use a word or phrase that is defined in the SSUTA Library of Definitions that state must also define that word or phrase using the SSUTA definition in its rules. See SSUTA Article III, Section 327. Michigan uses the phrase "bottled water" in R 205.127, MCL 205.54d, and MCL 205.94 without providing a definition of the phrase. Michigan can correct this possible noncompliance with SSUTA by adding the SSUTA definition of "bottled water" to R 205.127. The amendment to the rule will also according what constitutes again to the lasting to the sales and persons regarding what constitutes again the lasting water. will also provide clarity to businesses and persons regarding what constitutes non-taxable bottled water.

The amendment to R 205.127 is premulgated by authority conferred on the Department of Treasury by section 3 of 1941 PA 122, MCL 205.3. The rule will take effect immediately upon filling with the Secretary of State.

The rule is published on the Michigan Government website at http://www.michigan.gov/moath and will be in the July 1, 2020 issue of the Michigan Register. Copies of the draft rule may also be obtained by mail or electronic request at the addresses above.
