2. Rules that are obsolete or superseded and can be rescinded between July 1, 2024 and June 30, 2025. Also, please identify the rules or rule sets that are least important to the mission and function of the agency or are otherwise strong candidates for rescission.

None.

3. Has the agency failed to promulgate any statutorily required rules or failed to utilize any statutorily required rules? Please explain.

No.

4. Please indicate the rules that are most problematic to industry and could be reviewed to determine the most business-friendly method of regulation.

Both applicable rulesets are in active review and open.

- A. Describe whether there is a continued need for the rules.

Yes, the rules are required under the Child Care Organizations Act and contribute to the health, safety, and well being of children in care.

- B. Provide a summary of any complaints or comments received from the public concerning the rules.

The rulesets are in active review and ad hoc committees of providers and family are seated and providing the department their perspective.

- C. Describe the complexity of complying with the rules.

The rules require fire safety and environmental health review as well as applicable safety training for staff that oversee children.

- D. Describe whether the rules conflict with or duplicate similar rules or regulations adopted by the federal government or local units of government.

None.

- E. Provide the date of the last evaluation of the rules and the degree, if any, to which technology, economic conditions, or other factors have changed regulatory activity covered by the rules.

The rules are in active review.

5. Please provide the URL link the department or bureau is currently using to display their administrative rules.

No.

4. Please indicate the rules that are most problematic to industry and could be reviewed to determine the most business-friendly method of regulation.

The only applicable ruleset is already slated for review due to a statutorily required ad hoc committee.

Annual Regulatory Plan 2024-2025

A. Describe whether there is a continued need for the rules.

Yes. The rules pertain to the health and safety of children and foster adults while attending licensed programs.

B. Provide a summary of any complaints or comments received from the public concerning the rules.

No complaints or comments are known.

C. Describe the complexity of complying with the rules.

The rules do require specific verification of fire and environmental health standards, as well as training and awareness of required practices for the health and safety of campers under their care. Camp licensing consultants as well as county health inspectors and qualified fire inspectors serve as resources to assist licensees and potential licensees in understanding their obligations to meet statutory and regulatory requirements.

D. Describe whether the rules conflict with or duplicate similar rules or regulations adopted by the federal government or local units of government.

They do not conflict to our knowledge.

E. Provide the date of the last evaluation of the rules and the degree, if any, to which technology, economic conditions, or other factors have changed regulatory activity covered by the rules.

The rules were last reviewed in 2019. Per statute, an ad hoc committee must be seated every 5 years to review the rules and provide recommendations to the department.
