	Name &amp; Organization	Comments made at public hearing	Written Comments	Agency Rationale for change	Rule number &amp; citation changed
1	Kelli Wilkins, Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer		The commenter stated that most emergency cardiac care certifications expire after 2 years and suggested that instead of requiring the training within 3 years, that the requirement be that the applicant hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	The board and department agreed that the rule should be amended to require the applicant to hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	R 338.1309 (c)
2	Kelli Wilkins, Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer		The commenter stated that most emergency cardiac care certifications expire after 2 years and suggested that instead of requiring the training within 3 years, that the requirement be that the applicant hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	The board and department agreed that the rule should be amended to require the applicant to hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	R 338.1317 (1)(c)

3	Kelli Wilkins, Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer		The commenter stated that most emergency cardiac care certifications expire after 2 years and suggested that instead of requiring the training within 3 years, that the requirement be that the applicant hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	The board and department agreed that the rule should be amended to require the applicant to hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	R 338.1321 (1)(d)
4	Kelli Wilkins, Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer		The commenter stated that most emergency cardiac care certifications expire after 2 years and suggested that instead of requiring the training within 3 years, that the requirement be that the applicant hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	The board and department agreed that the rule should be amended to require the applicant to hold a current emergency cardiac care certification.	R 338.1345 (1)(e) R 338.1345 (2)(e)

Agency Report to JCAR-Page 5

5	Kelli Wilkins, Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer		It is presumed that Ms. Wilkins intended for the cardiac care certification requirement to consistently apply to all applicants regardless of how the license is obtained and merely neglected to comment specifically on rule 49.	The board and department agreed that an applicant must hold a current emergency cardiac care certification when applying for license renewal, relicensure, or licensure.	R 338.1349 (1)(a)
6	Kelli Wilkins, Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer		The commenter stated that the guideline referenced was updated in October 2020.	The board and the department agreed that the American Heart Association Guidelines published in October 2020 should be adopted by reference.	R 338.1355 (2)
7	Shannon Fleming, Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer		The commenter stated that the "Practice Analysis, 8th Edition" would be effective in January 2024.	The board and the department agreed that the most recent standards should be adopted by reference.	R 338.1357 (3)
