Senate Bill 589 (Substitute S-2)
Sponsor: Senator Joanne G. Emmons
Committee: Families, Mental Health and Human Services

Date Completed: 12-21-95

SUMMARY OF SENATE BILL 589 (Substitute S-2) as passed by the Senate:

The bill would amend the Revised Judicature Act to provide that, for an action to enforce a support order that was enforceable under the Support and Visitation Enforcement Act, the period of limitations would be 10 years from the date that the last support payment was due under the support order regardless of whether the last payment was made. (Currently, under the Revised Judicature Act, the period of limitations is 10 years for an action founded upon a judgment or decree rendered in a court of record of this State, from the time the judgment or decree was rendered.)

The bill would take effect on June 1, 1996.
