Rep. Kaza, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mister Speaker and members of the House:

Bankruptcy, regrettably, has lost its shame as the memory of the Great Depression fades in the memories of Americans not old enough to understand the significance of an excessive credit structure.

The evidence of an excessive credit structure; pervasive and dangerous; is found on a daily basis in newspapers and on television:

‘Zero percent down.’

‘No interest payments until year 2000.’

‘Second and even exotic third mortgages and loans.’

Consumer credit debt continues its mad scramble skyward.

The number of individuals behind on their monthly loan or mortgage payments increases as every year passes.

Most ominously, the number of bankruptcies (individual) under federal bankruptcy law continues to grow at ominous rates. Between 1980 and 1997, there was a 304 percent increase in bankruptcies (individual) in Michigan, from 12,670 to 38,503 filings:

Annual Number of Individual Bankruptcy Filings (American Bankruptcy Institute)

	MI	U.S.
1980	12670	287,570
1981	13199	315,818
1982	12102	310,951
1983	9162	286,444
1984	7458	284,517
1985	7785	341,233
1986	10876	449,203
1987	12839	495,553

	MI	U.S.
1988	14111	549,612
1989	15951	616,226
1990	18891	718,107
1991	23852	872,438
1992	25206	900,874
1993	22365	812,898
1994	20956	780,455
1995	23556	874,642
1996	30727	1,125,006
1997	38503	1,350,118

The generation that came of age during the Great Depression understood, far better than many today, the dangers of an excessive credit structure. They also understood the importance of thrift, self discipline and individual responsibility; individual character traits lost on the bankrupts of today.

If an individual borrows more than can be repaid, and subsequently hides behind federal bankruptcy law to engineer a default, one must suspect either their financial acumen, or character. At best, the bankrupt is irresponsible. At worst, they are manipulating an excessive credit structure to shirk their financial debts and responsibilities.

But if an individual, despite financial difficulties, arranges to make good on their debts and responsibilities in the future they should be applauded. For they know the shame of bankruptcy and fight hard to avoid it.

The three-bill legislative package before us rewards bankrupts by exempting more property from creditors in the execution of any bankruptcy judgment. Worse, it rewards stock market speculation by protecting specific financial vehicles that are used by some individuals for that purpose.

Bankruptcy as an option is certainly well promoted in our society; many unscrupulous financial advisers and even lawyers have developed lucrative businesses by encouraging individuals to take advantage of federal bankruptcy laws to discharge their personal debts. Although bankruptcy is legal, that does not mean it is ethical. Voluntary bankruptcy is theft: the debtor stealing from the creditor and society as a whole.

Individuals who borrow money have an ethical obligation to repay it.

Individuals who spend money purchasing goods have an ethical obligation to pay for those products—with interest if they bought on credit.

Bankruptcy is the abrogation of individual responsibility; the increased use of bankruptcy powerful evidence of the excessive credit structure permeating our country today.”

Rep. London, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This legislation allows more people to hide more assets from legitimate creditors under bankruptcy law.

This law is detrimental to small businesses who give unsecured credit to their customers. It is detrimental to the hospitals and medical personnel who must give medical treatment to people who refuse to pay than then are legally able to shield their assets.

This proposal is saying to bankrupts that they can hide more of their assets from legitimate creditors.”

In The Chair: Murphy

Rep. Kaza, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

These bills grant Orwellian powers to state and federal government agencies that will result in the gross violation of the privacy rights of Michigan citizens.

The Social Security numbers of individual citizens should be exempt from disclosure to the general public.

Supporters of this legislation are saying Social Security numbers should be disclosed to the public via public records.

Opponents contend the privacy rights of individual citizens outweigh other considerations; Social Security numbers should continue to be exempt from disclosure via public rights.

This package will result in the printing of the Social Security numbers of children on their birth certificates, a public record.

It will also result in the printing of the Social Security numbers of newly-weds on their marriage licenses, another public record.

Social Security numbers already appear on another public record—death certificates issued in this state.

More ominously, this package will result in the printing of Social Security numbers of motorists on drivers licenses. What happens if a drivers license is lost, or stolen? Another gross violation of the privacy rights of Michigan citizens. Does the Michigan Secretary of State really want to be in the unenviable position of administering that requirement every four years? Probably not given the uproar that is likely to result when details of this horrible package reach the public.

‘It is absurd,’ an analysis of this package notes, ‘for (state) governmental agencies to keep records of all citizens in order to increase collections of child support orders and to find a few more violators.’

The damage that will result from the public disclosure of these Social Security numbers far outweighs any benefit that would accrue from this legislation.

The privacy interest is compelling; it should be defended, even extended, as we did last session when we placed in state statute a prohibition against the disclosure of Social Security numbers to the public under the Freedom of Information Act.

This package does far more damage to privacy rights than disclosure under FOIA ever had the potential to bring about.

It is opening the door to horrible abuse, a great crime against a hard-fought right to privacy expected by Michigan citizens.”

Rep. Middleton, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no because the bill breaks the trust between the State of Michigan and its citizens. The citizens rightfully believe that the state will not use a person’s Social Security Number as a government identification number.”

Rep. Gagliardi moved to reconsider the vote by which the House did not pass the bill.
 The motion prevailed, a majority of the members present voting therefor.
 The question being on the passage of the bill,
 Rep. Gagliardi moved that consideration of the bill be postponed temporarily.

(b) "Entity" means a health care corporation or insurer operating in accordance with a prudent purchaser agreement.

(3) The department may enter into contracts to obtain certain MICchild services from community mental health service programs.

(4) The department may make payments on behalf of children enrolled in the MICchild program from the line-item appropriation associated with the program as described in the MICchild state plan approved by the United States department of health and human services, or from other medical services line-item appropriations providing for specific health care services.

Sec. 205. The department may provide up to 1 year of continuous eligibility to a family made eligible for the MICHild program unless the family's status changes and its members no longer meet the eligibility criteria as specified in the federally approved MICHild state plan.

Sec. 206. The department shall continue eligibility for all beneficiaries in the caring program for children until their eligibility for the MICHild program is established.

Sec. 207. The department may establish premiums for MICHild eligible persons in families with income above 150% of the federal poverty level. The monthly premiums shall not exceed $5.00 for a family.

Sec. 208. The department shall not require copayments under the MICHild program.

Sec. 209. Families whose category of eligibility changes between the Medicaid and MICHild programs shall be assured of keeping their current health care providers through the current prescribed course of treatment for up to 1 year, subject to periodic reviews by the department if the beneficiary has a serious medical condition and is undergoing active treatment for that condition.

Sec. 210. A department employee shall determine eligibility for each MICHild applicant.

Sec. 211. Within 120 days after the health care financing administration's approval of the state's MICHild plan, the department shall implement the MICHild program in each county of the state in which a MICHild provider is willing to provide the MICHild benefits at or below the regionally adjusted capitation rate.

Sec. 212. To be eligible for the MICHild program, a child must be residing in a family with an adjusted gross income of less than or equal to 200% of the federal poverty level. Whereas, The 1977 Elliot-Larsen Civil Rights Act of Michigan further deems it unlawful to discriminate based on age or marital status; and

Whereas, Equal opportunity in housing can best be accomplished through leadership, example, education and the mutual cooperation of the public and all who are affiliated with the real estate industry; and

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare the month of April as Fair Housing Month in celebration of the laws and efforts of its citizens to remove impediments to equal housing opportunity and to highlight and promote the significance of the U.S. Fair Housing Law, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as it assures the right of all citizens to continued freedom of choice in housing and private property ownership; and be it further

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we call on the Michigan Sentencing Commission to revise its proposed sentencing guidelines and, pursuant to the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1927 PA 175, as amended by 1994 PA 445, submit them to the Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate within 90 days. We call on the commission to do the following:

- Analyze the impact of the proposed guidelines on county correctional resources, particularly jail bed space and the jail reimbursement program.
- Develop a simple mechanism for applying the proposed guidelines to sentences imposed after probation has been revoked.
- Determine how many probation violators are currently sentenced to prison for technical violations as opposed to new offenses.
- Determine the impact of applying the proposed guidelines to probation violators.
- Develop guidelines ranges for all drug offenses to which mandatory sentences currently apply in the same manner that ranges have been developed for other offenses.
- Compare the sentences that would result from applying the proposed guidelines to all prisoners with prior records without using separate habitual offender grids to the sentences that will result from using the proposed separate grids.
- Compare, by type of offense, the average minimum sentence dictated by the proposed guidelines and the actual average sentence prisoners are currently being required to serve by the parole board. This comparison should include life sentences in all calculations.
- Examine detailed demographic information regarding current prisoners, including race, sex, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, educational levels, and mental health history, to determine the impact of the proposed guidelines on individuals with each characteristic.
