House Bill 5234 (Substitute S-2 as reported by the Committee of the Whole)
Sponsor: Representative Clyde LeTarte
House Committee: Education
Senate Committee: Education

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Revised School Code to require that standards for school accreditation or summary accreditation include the percentage of pupils achieving State endorsement on State assessments under the Revised School Code and the multiple year change in the percentage of pupils achieving State endorsement. The bill also would retain the current requirement that these standards include pupil performance on the Michigan Education Assessment Program tests and the multiple year change in pupil performance on these tests.
