Rep. Keith Stallworth, from the 12th District, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Lord, bless this chamber and members of this House as we humbly attempt to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Michigan. Give us the wisdom to seek truth, fairness and equity in our deliberations. Give us the strength to voice and vote our convictions, and open our hearts to consider the needs of those less fortunate. Dear Lord, bless us with the consciousness of Your Shepherd so that we may not forget that our success is not measured by the fattest of our flock, but rather by the care and concern that we deliver to the weakest and lost lamb. Help us to always remember that Your Word, the Living Word, is the law, and that our meager efforts to legislate rules for our society mean nothing if we disobey Your basic expectation to love one another. Dear Lord, lift us up so that we may perform beyond our capability and to Your expectations. We thank You for the opportunity to serve. In Jesus Name, let the people say, Amen.”
