Rep. William Byl, from the 75th District, offered the following invocation:

“From Isaiah 58, verses 6 through 10:

This is the kind of fasting that I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—when you see the naked, to clothe him, and not to turn away from Your own flesh and blood? Then Your light will break forth like the dawn, and Your healing will quickly appear; then Your righteousness will go before You, and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guide. Then you will call, and the Lord will answer; you will cry for help, and He will say: Here am I. You will be like a well watered garden, like a spring whose waters never fail. Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the age-old foundations; You will be called Repairer of Broken Walls, then you will find your joy in the Lord, and I will cause you to ride on the heights of the land and to feast on the inheritance of your father Jacob. The mouth of the Lord has spoken.

And, for a fitting benediction from Psalm 19, verse 14, ‘may the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, our Rock and our Redeemer.’ Amen.”

House Resolution No. 297.

A resolution to commemorate the Tenth Anniversary of the restoration of the independence of the people of Lithuania.

Whereas, It is a pleasure to join with the membership of the Lithuanian-American community of metropolitan Detroit and the sons and daughters of this proud republic throughout our state and nation in marking the tenth anniversary of the restoration of the independence of Lithuania; and

Whereas, The courage that this nation has displayed throughout history, but most especially in the recent past, has provided a model of belief in liberty that has set the way for others to follow; and

Whereas, A proud and noble people, Lithuanians in 1990 emerged from the illegal domination of the Soviet Union as a result of a strong sense of unity and longing for democracy of its citizens. In the face of many threats, Lithuanians stood boldly against the forces of tyranny to begin a process of spreading liberty that continues to this very day; and

Whereas, On March 11, 1990, Lithuania, through its Supreme Council, rejected Soviet rule and restored Lithuania's independence. The first Baltic republic to take such actions, Lithuania has now been joined in its self-assertion by many other republics throughout Europe; and

Whereas, It is most fitting that Lithuania was the leader in exercising its rights of self-determination. Established as an independent state in 1918, Lithuania never capitulated to the oppression of foreign rule; and

Whereas, Lithuania's struggles, which so long inspired others, continue to blaze a trail as the new world of the twenty-first century takes shape with Lithuania holding its rightful place among the family of nations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That tribute be hereby accorded to mark the tenth anniversary of the restoration of the independence of Lithuania; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to coordinators of this celebration in Michigan, Washington D.C., and Vilnius as evidence of our esteem.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Raczkowski moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
