House Concurrent Resolution No. 122.

A concurrent resolution offered as a memorial for Robert Waldron, former Speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives.

Whereas, With the recent passing of Mr. Robert Waldron, the people of this state have lost a gentleman of unshakable commitment to our republic and the ideals of liberty. His energy, intellect, and integrity enriched our state in many ways. These gifts were reflected in his achievements in law, the political arena, and business; and

Whereas, Robert Waldron's lifelong passion for our nation's freedoms and fundamentals of self-rule was strengthened in the four years he served in the European Theater of Operations in the United States Army Air Corps during World War II. This experience ignited a fire for public life that was never extinguished; and

Whereas, A graduate of Dartmouth College, Robert Waldron earned his law degree at the University of Michigan. He became known as a true scholar of the law. His devotion to service and concern with how our society adapts to change through its political institutions led to his 1954 election to the Michigan House of Representatives from the Grosse Pointe area. His sixteen years of work as a lawmaker constituted an era of landmark changes in Michigan. In addition to the boom of the postwar era, Michigan implemented a new constitution and greatly revamped state government. Robert Waldron was at the heart of debates and policy decisions that shaped the Michigan we know today; and

Whereas, Robert Waldron's knowledge and personal integrity led to his election as the Speaker of the House in 1967-68. His tenure in this post was among the more memorable in the state's history. This was a direct reflection of the respect Speaker Waldron commanded from both sides of the aisle of the evenly divided membership; and

Whereas, Even after leaving the legislature and becoming the director of the Associated Petroleum Industries of Michigan, Mr. Waldron continued to speak out on issues. Indeed, his legacy of service will likewise long benefit our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we offer this expression of tribute as a memorial for Robert Waldron, former Speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Waldron family as evidence of our sincerest condolences.

The House of Representatives has adopted the concurrent resolution.

Senators Emmons and Young were named co-sponsors of the concurrent resolution.

Statements

Senator Dingell asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Dingell's statement is as follows:

I rise to both applaud some suggestions of the Michigan Secretary of State for ways to improve the way we cast ballots in Michigan and also to add some ideas of mine. I got a suggestion in my e-mail a few days ago from a constituent who suggested that at polling places where punch cards are used as a vehicle for someone to vote that some means of a person both verifying their ballot had not been spoiled, as well as verifying to the person for whom the ballot had been cast would be a useful improvement.

Today I am writing to the Secretary of State to ask that she come up with not just a uniform system for Michigan citizens to vote, but also some means by which Michigan citizens can verify in a uniform fashion that their ballot was not spoiled and also for whom their ballot had been cast. I think this would be an enormous improvement for the citizens of Michigan.
