1       Sec. 2. (1) Each house of the legislature may commission
2 the sergeant at arms and may commission 1 or more assistant ser-
3 geants at arms within that respective house as police officers,
4 to enforce rules adopted by that house and the laws of this state
5 as designated by the senate and the house of representatives,
6 respectively. In performing those enforcement activities, com-
7 missioned sergeants at arms and assistant sergeants at arms are 8 vested with the powers, privileges, prerogatives, and immunities
9 conferred upon police officers under the laws of this state.

1       (2) Each sergeant at arms and assistant sergeant at arms
2 commissioned by the senate or the house of representatives as a
3 police officer under subsection (1) has the power to enforce 4 rules adopted by that house and the laws of this state in the 5 following places:

6       (a) The capitol building and capitol grounds.

7       (b) Buildings in which the offices of legislative members
8 are located.

9       (c) Locations where either house of the legislature or a 10 committee or subcommittee of either house is holding a session,
11 meeting, or public hearing, including a reasonable time before
12 and after the session, meeting, or hearing.

13       (d) Legislative parking areas.

14       (e) Areas immediately adjacent to the places described in 15 subdivisions (a) to (d).

16       (3) The senate may delegate, pursuant to rules of the 17 senate, the authority to commission the sergeant at arms or 18 assistant sergeants at arms as police officers and delegate their 19 responsibilities under subsection (1) to the senate majority
20 leader, the secretary of the senate, or other officers or employ-21 ees of the senate.

22       (4) The house of representatives may delegate, pursuant to 23 rules of the house of representatives, the authority to commis-
24 sion the sergeant at arms or assistant sergeants at arms as 25 police officers and delegate their responsibilities under subsec-
26 tion (1) to the speaker of the house of representatives, the
