Rev. Donald KeVERN, Support Minister of Clarkston United Methodist Church in Clarkston, offered the following invocation:

“Loving, supportive, and nurturing God, we give thanks this day for the opportunity to share this world, this country, and this state which has been presented to us. We stand awed by the beauty of Michigan and by the care with which our forefathers touched its sacred boundaries. Indeed we find here the richness of soil, the blessings of many lakes, and air that is still safe to breathe. We recognize this day the awesome responsibility that has been given to us by You, O God, and by those persons who have chosen us, their legislator, to lead them into the future. Though we are partisan in politics, let us be unified in knowing what is best for the people who have chosen us to represent them. Let us be fully aware of the trust that has been placed in us. May that trust be demonstrated not only in each session of the Legislature, but also in the ways in which we conduct our business and our lives. Let us keep our heads when all about us seems chaotic. Let us never be so proud that we cannot fall to our knees and bow our heads to ask what You would have us do. Let us find in Your presence that peace that allows for good decisions, honest policy and fair judgment. Chastise us when we allow the sin of arrogance to stand in the way of productivity. Push us when we feel that we are already exhausted by the work that stands in front of us. Let us understand the glory of giving and the humility of receiving. Let us be a positive example for the children of this state so that they may find in us an inspiration to lead in the future. Remind us constantly of the charge that has been given to us. Let us find no peace in practices that would take us away from what You would have us be. Let our roads be paved with the goodness of heart, the joy of service, and the desire to do the best for all. Let us strive for equality among the people. Let us reach out to those in need. Let us bring food to the poor, clothing to the naked, and peace to those imprisoned by lives that are submerged by the pain of poverty and hunger. In times of darkness and despair, let us light the candle of promise and hope. Let us be known as Godly people, men and women who in their ability to touch the lives of others, have indeed been touched by the hand of God. In the name of the God of us all, we pray. Amen.”

Rep. Vander Roest moved that Reps. DeVuyst and Scranton be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Jacobs moved that Reps. Hardman and Thomas be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Vander Roest moved that Rep. Toy be excused temporarily from today’s session.

Rep. Lemmons, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4448 for the following reasons: As the current law stands in the wake of the Michigan Supreme Court decision in Yaldo v. North Pointe Insurance Company, Section 6013(5) of the Revised Judicature Act benefits consumers and should not be changed. The existing law provides insurance companies with an added financial incentive to pay valid claims, rather than to force their customers to sue to receive payment on a claim. House Bill 4448 will change the law to provide a financial benefit to insurance companies, not the people.”
