The House agreed to the title of the bill.

Rep. Patterson moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Callahan, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

The proposed fee increase does not generate enough revenue to properly fund the DEQ permit and enforcement procedures. The fees should be set high enough to adequately fund the program.”

Reps. Minore, Plakas, Murphy, Rison, Clark, Basham, Anderson, Jacobs, Garza, McConico, Hardman, Daniels, Phillips, Dennis, Jamnick, Williams, Wojno, Hansen, Neumann, Clarke, Whitmer, Woodward and Waters having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4792 because it will not raise the funding necessary for the Department of Environmental Quality to run an effective air permitting, compliance and enforcement program. The bill is projected to raise $12.2 million in the FY 2002 based on current emissions levels. However, with annual emissions expected to continue to decline, revenues will likely fall below the level the Department testified it minimally needs to maintain an adequate program.”

Rep. Kolb, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4792 because it will not raise the funding necessary for the Department of Environmental Quality to run an effective air permitting, compliance and enforcement program. The Department’s own report found that it needed more funds than this bill will generate. A Legislatively mandated Task Force prepared and agreed to by representatives from MDEQ, the regulated community and environmental groups concluded that with a constant level of General Fund dollars the Air Emission fees needed to generate $12,800,000 per year for year 2002-2007. This bill is projected to raise $12,200,000 in the FY 2002, but an analysis by the Legislative Service Bureau shows that this bill will only generate $11,600,000 in FY 2002 and only $9,500,000 in FY 2005. Annual emissions are expected to continue to decline, revenues will continue to decline, costs of the program will continue to increase which taken together will make revenues to fall below the level the Department testified it minimally needs to maintain an adequate program. The Department of Environmental Quality admits to only operating a ‘bare bones’ program. Currently, the Air Quality Division of the DEQ does not conduct annual inspections of major sources, and furthermore the AQD rarely conducts a complete Level II inspection - sufficient to determine compliance with a permit. The health of the citizens of Michigan requires an adequately funded Air Quality Program and this bill unfortunately does not produce the necessary funds to ensure that the Department of Environmental Quality can implement an effective air permitting, compliance and enforcement program. The people of our great state desire better.”

Rep. Bogardus, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on HB 4792 because it does not provide adequate protection for the children of our state. Air pollution is a prominent factor in respiratory conditions such as asthma. As the new parent of an asthmatic child who recently suffered an asthma attack, I have personally seen the effects of this condition. Our own nonpartisan fiscal agency’s analysis shows this bill will not generate enough revenue to cover the cost of inspections needed to guarantee a decrease in air pollution. The result will be a degradation of air quality in our state. It is irresponsible to pass a bill which is inadequate.”

Rep. Lipsey, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4792 because it will not raise the funding necessary for the Department of Environmental Quality to run an effective air permitting, compliance and enforcement program. The bill is projected to raise $12.2 million in the FY 2002 based on current emissions levels. However, with annual emissions expected to continue to decline, revenues will likely fall below the level the Department testified it minimally needs to maintain an adequate program. The shortfall will necessarily come out of general fund revenues.”

House Resolution No. 141.

A resolution condemning the Taliban’s use of Nazi-like tactics to force Hindus in Afghanistan to wear symbols identifying them as Hindu.

Whereas, The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights guarantee the freedom of religion; and

Whereas, On Tuesday, May 22, 2001, the Taliban regime of Afghanistan directed Hindus to wear an identity label and Hindu women to cover themselves in yellow veils; and

Whereas, This proposal is reminiscent of the yellow Star of David that Jews were forced to wear in Nazi Germany and Nazi occupied areas; and

Whereas, A State Department spokesperson, Richard Boucher, condemned the Taliban action, stating that "Forcing social groups to wear distinctive clothing or identifying marks stigmatizes and isolates those groups and can never, never be justified"; and

Whereas, The Taliban regime recently offended the world by ordering the destruction of all pre-Islamic statues in Afghanistan, among them a pair of 1,600-year-old, 100-foot tall statues of Buddha that were carved out of a mountainside; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we strongly condemn the Taliban's use of Nazi-like tactics to force Hindus in Afghanistan to wear symbols identifying them as Hindu. We urge the United States Congress and the State Department to join with people of all faiths around the world in standing against the religious persecution by the Taliban regime and we urge federal officials to do all they can to demand that the Taliban regime immediately revoke its order stigmatizing Hindus and non-Muslims in Afghanistan and conform its laws to all basic international civil and human rights standards; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Secretary of State, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Patterson moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Lemmons, Raczkowski, Vander Veen, Wojno, Whitmer, Cassis, Koetje, Shulman, Bernero, Jacobs, Van Woerkom, Kolb, Adamini, Faunce, Gosselin, Hansen, Richardville, Reeves, Hardman, Woodward, Anderson, Daniels, Rocca, Rich Brown, Switalski, Neumann, Zelenko, Dennis, Schauer, Lipsey, Ehardt, Scranton, Spade, Kilpatrick, Murphy, Bovin, Bogardus, Jamnick, Rivet, Clark, McConico, Thomas, Waters, Birkholz, Hager, Bishop, Toy, Pappageorge and Vear offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 142.

A resolution honoring Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles.

Whereas, Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles has, with commendable care and concern, provided outstanding service to the people of Detroit and Hamtramack as the founder of the Mother Waddles Perpetual Mission, Inc., located in Hamtramack, Michigan. On this occasion, it is most appropriate to offer this expression of the value that we all place on the work that Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles has undertaken and handled so well in seeking to protect and preserve the vulnerable members of our society; and

Whereas, Through her dedicated efforts with the mission, Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles has clearly put into action the highest standards of citizenship and unselfishness. This concern for others is the life of service she has dedicated herself to in order to better the lives of others; and

Whereas, Born on October 7, 1912, in St. Louis, Missouri, Mother Waddles had to quit school when she was 12 years old, due to the death of her father. She cared for her bedridden mother and two younger sisters. She married at an early age and they had a daughter. She, her husband, and daughter moved to Detroit because of the job opportunities in the automotive industry. While living in Detroit, they had nine more children. She later was divorced and left to raise their ten children alone. Welfare was not enough to make ends meet, so Mother Waddles continued to be resourceful by taking in laundry, cooking and selling barbecue dinners, and working aggressively in other ways to supplement the family's income. She stretched her dollars at the Salvation Army and Goodwill Thrift Stores. She kept her house neat and clean and her children well-dressed. She joined a small church and sold barbecue dinners at church fundraisers. There, she met Payton Waddles and they fell in love and got married. During their marriage they were both ordained ministers. Mother Waddles was supported wholeheartedly by her husband when she had a vision to start a mission to help the underprivileged. Her husband gave a large portion of his Ford Motor Company checks to help out this endeavor. Mother Waddles formed a prayer band with some other concerned women and they were soon helping members in trouble and even saved a member's home from foreclosure; and

Whereas, Starting out by giving free bread, cakes, and pies to needy families, Mother Waddles opened her first $0.35 kitchen in 1956. She soon expanded her emergency assistance program to needy families by supplying food, clothing, and shelter. Mother Waddles struggles daily to operate her mission since she receives no regular grants or corporate contributions. Yet, this inspired and gutsy fighter for the people manages to serve over 4,500 needy people a month. Throughout the years, she has aided over 2,000,000 people. Her ministry extends through Detroit and Hamtramack to India and Africa; and

Whereas, Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles has been celebrated in the media. She has been featured in Life magazine, Reader's Digest, Time, National Geographic, Ebony, and others. She has received over 300 awards for her tireless efforts on behalf of the poor, and has been recognized by Vice President Hubert Humphrey, President Richard Nixon, and President Bill Clinton; and

Whereas, The quality of a concerned citizen, like Mother Waddles, has a significant impact on any community as she serves food to the hungry, provides shelter to homeless families, assists wayward travelers, provides financial support to bury a loved one, and prevents someone's utilities from being turned off. We all rely on people like Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles for the care and support of the vulnerable members of our community and society; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body honor Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles for her admirable work on behalf of the poor and needy. May Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles and her family enjoy the health and happiness her efforts have earned them; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Reverend Mother Charleszetta Waddles as evidence of our best wishes for the future.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Patterson moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

House Resolution No. 143.

A resolution establishing a sister-city relationship between Noisy-le-Roi, France and the City of Albion, Michigan, U.S.A.

Whereas, The French are among the most trusted friends and allies of the American people. They have an environment rich in culture, history, and art. They are important trading partners of the American people. It is incumbent on the people of Michigan to foster this relationship and no better way of doing so exists than in establishing a sister-city relationship between our two peoples; and

Whereas, In a complex world it is very important to promote greater world understanding by learning more about the people of different nations. Such actions are mutually beneficial and encourage social, economic, educational, and cultural programs through which all nations are enriched and increased world understanding is created; and

Whereas, Noisy-le-Roi, France is wealthy in agricultural and horticultural heritage. It is wealthy, too, in its people, as we are in Michigan. It would be in our own interest and in the interest of Noisy-le-Roi, France to foster a strengthening of our current knowledge of one another by creating a sister-city relationship between Noisy-le-Roi, France and Albion, Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body hereby establish a sister-city relationship between Noisy-le-Roi, France and Albion, Michigan. We invite the people and government of France to conduct mutually beneficial social, economic, educational, and cultural programs to bring our citizens closer together and to strengthen international understanding and goodwill; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Noisy-le-Roi, France as a token of our esteem.

House Resolution No. 144.

A resolution honoring Nhia Lee.

Whereas, It is a great pleasure to honor Nhia Lee upon his selection for the Knight Ridder Scholars Program; and

Whereas, During the Vietnam War, the Lee family was forced out of their homeland of Laos and into Thailand as refugees. Among the hardships and starvation, Nhia Lee was born to strong-willed and caring parents; and

Whereas, In 1985, the Lee family was sponsored by a Michigan church to immigrate to the United States and start a new life. Learning a new language and culture proved difficult, but Nhia's parents continued to teach and strengthen their Hmong heritage. While cultural and social barriers can make it difficult for Hmong children to realize their dreams in America, Nhia dreams of becoming a successful journalist and inspiring others to achieve whatever they aspire to do, showing that an impoverished youth is no obstacle to national success; and

Whereas, Nhia Lee maintains an exemplary grade point average, is features editor for the Everett High School newspaper "The Voice", and is President of the Mayor's Lansing Youth Council; and

Whereas, Nhia Lee has been honored by the Knight Ridder Corporation, as part of its Minority Scholars Class of 2001, for the essay he wrote of his family's experiences, hopes, and dreams. He will receive, as his award, a $40,000 scholarship, four paid internships at Knight Ridder newspapers during his schooling, and employment upon his completion of college; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body join in honoring Nhia Lee upon his selection for the Knight Ridder Scholars Program, extending our highest accolades of commendation; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Nhia Lee as a token of our esteem for his fine accomplishment.
