Rev. Jerry Sutton, Pastor of Free Methodist Church in Bad Axe, offered the following invocation:

“Lord, we thank You for the privilege of knowing You. Thank You, Lord, for the privilege of serving You and for serving one another. Lord, as we consider the Scriptures in whatever our capacity is today and whatever work it is that lies ahead of us, our prayer is very simple. We understand that if there is a season there is a reason, and Lord, we thank You for reminding us that You have given us a reason to be born. So Lord, remind us of our purpose today—might we live out that purpose with integrity. And Lord, at the end of our life whenever that will be, might we die without regret. Thank You, Lord, for the honor of knowing You and serving You. Amen.”

Rep. Jacobs moved that Reps. Clarke and Garza be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

House Resolution No. 158.

A resolution calling for increased energy conservation and urging the Michigan Public Service Commission to include relevant information in its education materials on gas and electric choice.

Whereas, Every generation seems to need the shock of rising fuel costs to be reminded that many of the traditional sources of our energy are finite in nature and that energy is essential to our nation's future. While the balance of supply and demand is influenced by a wide array of factors, including environmental concerns, economic demands, and international relations, there are many effective steps we can take as individual citizens and businesses to deal with rising energy prices; and

Whereas, At the present time, attention is being focused on rapidly rising gasoline prices. Only a few months ago, natural gas supplies and projected cost increases were the center of concern. California's electricity crisis and rolling blackouts have served to remind us of the vulnerability of our society to any disruption in energy supplies; and

Whereas, With the many factors involved in producing and delivering energy, there are few courses of action available that can make a difference quickly to the supply component of this equation. Conservation practices can bring about an immediate reduction in demand. Even a small percentage of savings can represent a notable quantity of oil, natural gas, or other fuel; and

Whereas, The Michigan Public Service Commission has an opportunity to communicate conservation information through its ongoing efforts to educate Michigan citizens on natural gas choice options. Adding examples, statistics, and hints about conservation to the materials being prepared can help our state and its citizens; and

Whereas, While the long-term challenge of meeting our energy needs includes new investments, new sources of energy, and new technologies, the positive impact that conservation practices can make must not be overlooked. Most observers would likely concede that our level of energy consumption includes considerable waste and inefficiency. Public education programs can serve to remind households and places of business to be more prudent in making sure we use energy wisely. To ignore the real savings that can result from conservation is foolhardy, for we can save resources and money with little more investment than good planning and common sense in our homes, in our schools, and in our places of work; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we call upon Michigan's citizens and businesses to increase energy conservation efforts; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge the Michigan Public Service Commission to incorporate a strong conservation message in the upcoming public education programs it will be providing on natural gas choice and electric choice; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Public Service Commission.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. Murphy, Hale, Lemmons, Stewart, Spade, Shulman, Hansen, Dennis, Jacobs, Rivet, Kilpatrick, Schauer, Faunce, Van Woerkom, Hager, Zelenko, Bernero, Wojno, Lipsey, Adamini, Kolb, Gielegghem, McConico, Rich Brown, Frank, Thomas, Minore, Neumann, Meyer, Gosselin, Ehardt, Birkholz, Rison, Bogardus, Daniels, Bovin, Clark, Whitmer, Caul, Waters, Drolet, Hardman, Quarles, Jamnick, Plakas, Kooiman, Richner, Scranton, Woodward, Phillips, Reeves, Switalski, Basham, Lockwood and Pestka offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 159.

A resolution commemorating June 19, 2001, as Juneteenth Day in recognition of the annual holiday celebrating the end of slavery in the United States.

Whereas, Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day or Emancipation Day, is the annual holiday celebrated on June 19th in the United States to commemorate the end of slavery. For more than a century, Juneteenth has been observed mainly in Texas and parts of Arkansas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma. June 19th marks the day in 1865 when word reached African-Americans in Texas that slavery in the United States had been abolished; and

Whereas, News of the proclamation officially reached Texas on June 19, 1865, when a Union general backed by nearly 2,000 troops arrived in the city of Galveston. The general, Gordon Granger, publicly announced that slavery in the United States had ended. Reactions among newly freed slaves ranged from shock and disbelief to jubilant celebration. That day has been known ever since as Juneteenth, a name probably derived from the slang combination of the words June and nineteenth; and

Whereas, Juneteenth celebrations began in Texas in 1866. Within a few years, the recognition of this day had spread to other states and became an annual tradition. Celebrations often open with praying and religious ceremonies and include a reading of the Emancipation Proclamation. A wide range of festivities entertained participants, from music and dancing to contests of physical strength; and

Whereas, Juneteenth symbolizes the end of slavery and has come to symbolize for many African-Americans what the fourth of July symbolizes for all Americans, freedom. It serves as a historical milestone reminding Americans of the triumph of the human spirit over the cruelty of slavery. It honors those African-American ancestors who survived the inhumane institution of bondage, as well as demonstrating pride in the marvelous legacy of resistance and perseverance they left us; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate June 19, 2001 as Juneteenth Day. We encourage American citizens everywhere to take a moment to reflect upon the millions of African-Americans who were enslaved in this country. This day truly symbolizes a tenet upon which this country was founded, the freedom and equality for all Americans.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,
Rep. Patterson moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.
The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.
The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Bishop, Mead, Hale, Lemmons, Stewart, Spade, Vander Roest, Shulman, Hansen, Dennis, Jacobs, Rivet, Kilpatrick, Faunce, Julian, Van Woerkom, Hager, Pappageorge, Zelenko, Wojno, Lipsey, Adamini, McConico, Rich Brown, LaSata, Thomas, Minore, Neumann, Meyer, Gosselin, Voorhees, Kowall, Koetje, Shackleton, Ehardt, Birkholz, Bogardus, Bovin, Whitmer, Vear, Waters, Jansen, Kuipers, Jamnick, Richner, Woodward, Phillips, Switalski, Basham, Cassis and Anderson offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 160.

A resolution honoring Ray Lawson for his outstanding years of service to the students of Rochester Community Schools.

Whereas, It is with deep appreciation for the hard work, dedication, and professionalism that Ray Lawson has put forth on behalf of the students, community, and administration of the Rochester Community Schools that we honor him. As the community of Rochester recognizes the loyalty and devotion to public education of this committed teacher, we add our sentiments of gratitude for a job well done; and

Whereas, In his 54 years of service, Ray Lawson has tirelessly served public education in the Rochester Community Schools in order to improve the instruction and well-being of our children. Through the years, the educational system has changed and evolved. Ray Lawson has responded with enthusiasm and a heartfelt concern for the students of Rochester Community Schools. This has been greatly appreciated, both by the citizens and students that have benefitted directly from Ray Lawson's work; and

Whereas, Ray Lawson has long and faithfully served in leadership roles in state organizations including the Michigan Council of Teacher of English, Michigan Educators Association, Michigan Interscholastic Press Association, and the Michigan Association of the Professions; and

Whereas, There can be little doubt of the personal sense of duty and enthusiasm that Ray Lawson brings to the classroom on a daily basis, and the positive influence and impact on the thousands of students educated by Ray Lawson throughout his compassionate and generous years of serving the students of Rochester Community Schools and the community of Rochester; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body honor Ray Lawson for his outstanding years of service to the students of Rochester Community Schools; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Ray Lawson as a token of our esteem.

Pending the reference of the resolution to a committee,

Rep. Patterson moved that Rule 77 be suspended and the resolution be considered at this time.

The motion prevailed, 3/5 of the members present voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Hansen, Murphy, Hale, Lemmons, Stewart, Spade, Dennis, Jacobs, Rivet, Callahan, Kilpatrick, Schauer, Zelenko, Bernero, Wojno, Lipsey, Adamini, Kolb, Gielegem, McConico, Rich Brown, Thomas, Minore, Neumann, Meyer, Rison, Bogardus, Daniels, Bovin, Clark, Whitmer, Waters, Hardman, Quarles, Jamnick, Plakas, Woodward, Phillips, Reeves, Switalski, Basham, Pestka and Anderson offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 161.

A resolution to urge the Governor to move the administration of the MEAP test from the Department of Treasury back to the Department of Education.

Whereas, In October 1999, the Governor transferred responsibility for the administration of the Michigan Education Assessment Program from the Department of Education to the Department of Treasury. This transfer was made through Executive Order No. 1999-12 on October 18, 1999. The reorganization order also included the shifting of authority for various functions among these two departments, the Department of Career Development, the State Board of Education, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction; and

Whereas, While there are significant financial considerations with the administration of the Michigan Education Assessment Program, this is clearly an enterprise that is central to education. As a measure of student and school performance, the MEAP tests reflect the work and expertise of educators in development, analysis, and planning. The understanding of classroom management, preparation, and procedures that is within the education community and the Department of Education is vital to the success of the MEAP in fostering progress in our schools; and

Whereas, Recent events serve to illustrate the appropriateness of education professionals handling the various duties related to standardized tests and their evaluation. For both effectiveness and efficiency, the Department of Education should be responsible for the administration of the Michigan Education Assessment Program; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Governor to move the administration of the MEAP test from the Department of Treasury back to the Department of Education; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Education.

Reps. Lemmons, Murphy, Hale, Stewart, Spade, Shulman, Hansen, Dennis, Jacobs, Rivet, Kilpatrick, Schauer, Faunce, Vander Veen, Pappageorge, Zelenko, Bernero, Wojno, Lipsey, Adamini, Kolb, Gielegheem, McConico, Rich Brown, Thomas, Minore, Neumann, Meyer, Ehardt, Birkholz, Rison, Bogardus, Daniels, Bovin, Clark, Whitmer, Waters, Hardman, Jamnick, Richner, Woodward, Phillips, Reeves, Switalski and Cassis offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 162.

A resolution honoring Dr. Alexa I. Canady upon her retirement.

Whereas, It is with deep appreciation for the hard work, dedication, and professionalism that Dr. Alexa I. Canady has put forth on behalf of the people of the state of Michigan that we honor her upon her retirement. As the people of the state of Michigan recognize the loyalty and devotion to public service of this conscientious individual, we add our sentiments of gratitude for a job well done; and

Whereas, Dr. Alexa I. Canady has been working in the medical field during an era of great change. She has given many years of service to the people of the state of Michigan. As Dr. Alexa I. Canady well knows, financial pressures and changing expectations have combined to make a challenging time to work in medicine. With the personal sense of duty that Dr. Alexa I. Canady brought to work each day, she met these challenges with enthusiasm and a genuine interest in efficiency in health care. This has been deeply appreciated by both the citizens and organizations in the state of Michigan. They have benefited directly from Dr. Alexa I. Canady's work, as well as other doctors who have witnessed this fine example; and

Whereas, Alexa Canady was born in 1950 to Clinton Canady, Jr. and Elizabeth Hortense (Golden) Canady. She and her three brothers grew up with high standards and expectations. Her parents instilled in her a strong belief in community support and the feeling that "Getting up each day is an adventure."; and

Whereas, Alexa Canady's high achievement began in elementary school when she was able to skip the third grade and go right to the fourth grade due to her amazing test scores. Attending the University of Michigan as a math major, she became an editorial page editor for the Michigan Daily. When she became interested in medicine, she was accepted into the University of Michigan Medical School. Although, at first, Alexa Canady was interested in the nervous system, she eventually decided that she "felt at home in neurosurgery". As a surgical intern at Yale-New Haven Hospital and a resident in neurosurgery at the University of Minnesota Hospital, she learned to overcome stress, challenges, and rejection while staying focused on her goal of service to those in need of health care. She overcame the barriers of racism and sexism to achieve this goal; and

Whereas, While on a fellowship in pediatric neurosurgery at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, she met her career mentor, Dr. Luis Schut. Dr. Schut taught her to counteract the everyday stress of this profession by having fun. It was a lesson which Dr. Alexa I. Canady learned well. Everyone who has worked with Dr. Canady knows that play is an important part of the health care program, of the therapy, of the practice of medicine, and of getting well. At Children's Hospital of Michigan, Dr. Alexa I. Canady has continued to save lives and make a big difference in the lives of her patients and their families; and

Whereas, Dr. Canady understands and communicates with the people she treats. Indeed, she has stated, "I'm just your friendly neighborhood neurosurgeon and my patients should be able to talk to me as they would anyone on the street.". She is more than this, however, she is the first female African-American neurosurgeon in the United States. Hour Detroit magazine called her "the Jackie Robinson of pediatric neurosurgery". She is nationally acclaimed and world renowned. Dr. Canady has been noted for her 14-hour workdays, her work as a mentor, and the high standards of education she has brought to the residents who have worked with her; and

Whereas, In 1988, Dr. Canady married George Davis, a retired medical corps recruiter for the U.S. Navy. Dr. Alexa I. Canady is now planning to retire with her husband in Florida. Dr. Canady will not be idle. She says, "I'm constitutionally incapable of sitting still.". She plans to write a book on pediatric neurosurgery for pediatricians. We look forward to continued service and great work from Dr. Alexa I. Canady; and

Whereas, There can be little doubt that the record of Dr. Alexa I. Canady in her responsibilities as neurosurgeon over the past years will continue to reap rewards for the people of the state of Michigan. We offer our thanks on this personal milestone; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body join with the citizens of the state of Michigan in honoring Dr. Alexa I. Canady upon her retirement and her many outstanding years in neurosurgery. May she enjoy the happiest of retirements; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Dr. Alexa I. Canady as a token of our esteem.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 33.

A concurrent resolution calling for increased energy conservation and urging the Michigan Public Service Commission to include relevant information in its education materials on gas and electric choice.
