Pastor Paul Leslie of Green Corners Baptist Church and Chaplain of the Belding Police Department of Belding offered the following invocation:

Our gracious Heavenly Father, we rejoice, Lord, in the privilege of self-government—the freedom that You’ve given to all of us. I pray for this legislative body. I pray, Lord, that You would give them wisdom; that You would guide and direct them; and that You would watch over their families. Encourage their families, Lord, as they make so many sacrifices to allow these men and women here to do what Romans 13 commands, that You have called them to do. We ask, again, Your blessing over today’s activities. In Thy name we pray. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Birkholz, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senators Allen, Clarke, Hammerstrom and Thomas entered the Senate Chamber.

Statements

Senator Hammerstrom asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.
The motion prevailed.

Senator Hammerstrom's statement is as follows:

I just want to remind the members that there is a memo on their desk today because this is National State Employee Recognition Day. I think that oftentimes, as the article says, they are unsung heroes, whether they are the members who help us within our staff, in our offices, our central staff, those who help us here on the Senate floor, or at the different agencies or departments in Lansing and throughout the state. I think it's appropriate that we recognize them today on this day, the state employee recognition day.

On behalf of all of us here in the Senate, I want to offer our thanks for the great job that you do and the great job that you do for the citizens of this state. Congratulations on your special day.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of
