Reps. Meekhof, Kowall, Haines and Schuitmaker, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Voting is the bedrock of our democracy and we must be careful that any changes to the way we vote protects the integrity of our elections. Allowing no-reason absentee voting greatly increases the potential for voter fraud and undermines confidence in our election results.

Absentee ballots are already available for seniors, people who are ill or incapacitated, military members on active duty and people who will not be in town on Election Day. If we want to increase early voting, the proper way to do it is to allow voters to vote at their clerk’s office before the election, in person, where their identity can be verified.

Another concern is that we may not want to encourage people to vote before Election Day because they will not have all the information available during a campaign to make an informed decision.”

Motions and Resolutions

Rep. Kennedy offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 20.

A concurrent resolution calling on Governor Granholm to divest all state money from certain hedge funds refusing to accept a settlement on the Chrysler bonds they hold and urging other states to divest their holdings in these hedge funds, should these hedge funds fail to agree on a bond settlement before today's deadline on concluding an agreement.

Whereas, The people of Michigan are intensely interested in the fate of our automobile industry. While the long-term outlook of Chrysler remains bright, getting through the next several months requires all involved in negotiations over the fate of this company to balance parochial interests with vision about what is best for our state and nation; and

Whereas, While negotiations that could save Chrysler from seeking bankruptcy protection before today's deadline for concluding talks have made great strides, a number of hedge funds that hold about 30 percent of the Chrysler bonds are refusing to compromise in their stand on what they want to erase the debts that are crippling Chrysler's future. The hedge fund managers may be too narrowly focused on immediate returns rather than considering the long-term ramifications on our nation and its manufacturing base. Such short sightedness has already lost our nation a great deal; and

Whereas, Should these hedge fund managers stand in the way of saving Chrysler, these hedge funds will have taken part in inflicting a devastating blow to our domestic automobile industry that will reverberate throughout our state and nation. The human hardship that will follow from the loss of jobs, the loss of tax revenue, and the loss of hope in the future will shatter the reputation of Oppenheimer Funds, Perella Weinberg Partners' Xerion Capital Fund, and Stairway Cap Management as reliable financial partners for our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we call on Governor Granholm to divest all state money from the hedge fund offerings of Oppenheimer Funds, Perella Weinberg Partners' Xerion Capital Fund, and Stairway Cap Management, if they refuse to accept a settlement on the Chrysler bonds they hold. We also urge other states to divest their holdings in these hedge funds, should these hedge funds fail to agree on a bond settlement before today's deadline on concluding an agreement; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor of Michigan; the leadership of Oppenheimer Funds, Perella Weinberg Partners' Xerion Capital Fund, and Stairway Cap Management; and the governors of Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio, and Wisconsin.

Scripps, Tlaib, Valentine, Slavens, Roberts, Ebli, Barnett, Bauer, LeBlanc, Gregory, Lisa Brown, Donigan, Johnson, Geiss, Terry Brown, Warren, Byrnes, Constan, Dean, Durhal, Espinoza, Gonzales, Haase, Haugh, Rick Jones, Leland, Lemmons, Lipton, Liss, Marleau, Miller, Neumann, Polidori, Rocca, Sheltroun and Spade offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 89.

A resolution to memorialize Congress to enact the Credit Cardholders' Bill of Rights Act.

Whereas, Amid the many problems that have developed in financial markets, some credit card companies have recently imposed sharply higher interest rates and new conditions on their customers. This has brought significant hardships to many individuals and families. Although the steps taken by credit card lenders reflect the economic crunch they are facing, some of the hikes have brought rates to as high as 30 percent. These moves have raised serious concerns that some lenders are taking unfair advantage of consumers who most likely did not understand their vulnerability to such aggressive actions; and

Whereas, Congress is considering a bill, H.R. 627, that would amend the Truth in Lending Act to bring several reforms to how credit cards are used. At the heart of these measures is a focus on increasing accountability, with increased notification requirements. The Credit Cardholders' Bill of Rights Act also would restrict the conditions under which a credit card company can impose certain finance charges and new fees and interest rates, would grant consumers certain rights in conjunction with promotional or new credit card offerings, and would prohibit the extension of credit to those under the age of 18 in most circumstances; and

Whereas, Common sense measures to safeguard consumers from predatory practices within the credit card industry are long overdue. The Credit Cardholders' Bill of Rights Act would bring about not only fairer standards, but increase understanding of the policies governing their accounts for millions of Americans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize Congress to enact the Credit Cardholders' Bill of Rights Act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.
