Rep. Gail Haines, from the 43rd District, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father, we thank You for this crisp, clear winter day. We thank You for the many blessings You have bestowed upon us. We thank You for the opportunity to serve in this body and for bringing us together this day.

We ask that You shine Your light of wisdom upon us and allow us to do what is right for the people we serve in our great state. Through Your light, grant us the ability to work together in the spirit of true bipartisanship.

We ask that You give us determination to defend the principles of freedom, love and tolerance, strength to protect the innocent, and clarity of vision to guide the state towards economic prosperity, justice, and peace. Let us be ever mindful of our mission to serve You.

Finally, we ask that You protect those who serve in our armed forces and remember those who sacrificed their lives for us. We pray for those away from home and those they love and ask that they find strength in You.

Bless us each with Your never-ending love and grace. In Your precious name we pray. Amen.”

Rep. Stamas moved that Rep. Walsh be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 292.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Agnes M. Dobronski, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, It was with great sadness that this legislative body learned of the passing of Agnes M. Dobronski. With tremendous strength, a no-nonsense approach, a generous spirit, and an unflinching commitment to her community and the state of Michigan, she graced the halls of the State Capitol as a member of the House of Representatives in the late 1980s and 1990s; and

Whereas, Born in Detroit, Agnes Dobronski dedicated her life to the community of Dearborn and its people. For 37 years, she worked for the Dearborn Public School System, rising from a secretarial position and eventually becoming the school system’s business manager. At the same time, she earned her bachelor’s degree from the Detroit College of Business and her master’s degree in education administration from Eastern Michigan University. She also served for seven years on the Dearborn School Board immediately prior to her election to the House of Representatives in 1986; and

Whereas, Agnes Dobronski represented the people of Dearborn within this legislative body for 10 years. During her tenure, she focused on issues related to public education, local government, senior citizens, and women’s rights, notably serving four years as chair of the House Committee on Local Government. She will be remembered for her principled focus on always doing what she felt was best for Dearborn and the state of Michigan, whether popular or not; and

Whereas, Agnes Dobronski did not stop working to improve her community upon leaving the House of Representatives. She remained active in local politics and served on the resident council at the Henry Ford Village Retirement Community and as president of that community’s League of Women Voters chapter in the years preceding her death; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Agnes M. Dobronski, a member of this legislative body from 1987 to 1988 and 1991 to 1998; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Dobronski family as evidence of our lasting esteem for her memory.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

Reps. Lipton, Driskell, Hovey-Wright, Singh and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 293.

A resolution to declare January 27-31, 2014, as Promise Zones Awareness Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, It is estimated that two- thirds of the jobs in Michigan’s economy will require education beyond high school by 2025; and

Whereas, There is a bi-partisan consensus in our state that Michigan’s economic future depends upon more of our citizens obtaining college degrees, technical certifications, and other meaningful post-secondary credentials; and

Whereas, Michigan's level of educational attainment has lagged behind the national average; and
 Whereas, This problem is most severe in Michigan communities experiencing high rates of poverty; and
 Whereas, The fortunes of these communities threaten Michigan's overall ability to grow and prosper; and
 Whereas, In 2005, Kalamazoo became the first community in the United States to embrace a new concept for dramatically raising the level of educational attainment—a universal place-based scholarship initiative known as the Kalamazoo Promise; and

Whereas, In 2008, Michigan became the first state to give support and encouragement to communities that wanted to start their own universal scholarship programs by enacting what became known as the Promise Zones legislation; and

Whereas, In 2009, ten communities with above average poverty rates were given Promise Zones designations—Baldwin, Battle Creek, Benton Harbor, Detroit, Hazel Park, Jackson, Lansing, the Muskegon ISD, Pontiac and Saginaw; and

Whereas, It has taken tremendous effort on the part of community leaders in the Promise Zones to launch these scholarship programs and great generosity on the part of donors to raise the private funds needed to make them work; and

Whereas, Promise Zones make effective use of federal and state resources by requiring students to apply for needs-based aid before using their Promise Zone scholarships; and

Whereas, Promise Zones are making college and other post-secondary education more affordable for the young people of their communities and creating a “college-going culture” that increases students' aspirations for education beyond high school; and

Whereas, Promise Zones are reinforcing the message that every young person who graduates from high school in Michigan should be prepared for success in college, technical training, and the work place; and

Whereas, Promise Zones will help make the existence of a skilled, educated workforce a key component of the economic development strategies of their communities; and

Whereas, Promise Zones are, step by step, moving Michigan closer to its goal of having a workforce that is second to none; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare January 27-31, 2014, as Promise Zones Awareness Week in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of this legislative body support the goals and ideals of Promise Zones Awareness Week; and be it further

Resolved, That this legislative body encourages media organizations to participate in Promise Zones Awareness Week and help educate the public about benefits of Promise Zones.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Rutledge moved that Rep. Nathan be excused temporarily from today's session.
 The motion prevailed.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Cotter to the Chair.

Communications from State Officers

The following communication from the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs was received and read:

January 24, 2014

In accordance with Section 8 of the Michigan Employment Security Act, being Section 421.8 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, the Unemployment Insurance Agency is required to report annually to the Governor and the Legislature any amount, in excess of $1.00, that the maximum weekly unemployment benefit rate would increase if the annual increase in the United States Department of Labor's Consumer Price Index (CPI) were applied to the maximum weekly benefit rate.

I am therefore transmitting to the Governor, and to the House and Senate for publication along with this letter in the Journals of their respective bodies, the enclosed report showing that since the last increase in the maximum weekly benefit rate to $362.00, the increase in the CPI would result in an increase in the maximum weekly unemployment benefit rate to $464.30.

Respectfully submitted,
Shaun Thomas
Director
